Narrating the Nation Stefan Berger, Linas Eriksonas, Andrew Mycock, 2008 A sustained and systematic study of the construction erosion and reconstruction of national histories across a wide variety of states is highly topical and extremely relevant in the context of the accelerating processes of Europeanization and globalization However as demonstrated in this volume histories have not of course only been written by professional historians Drawing on studies from a number of different European nation states the contributors to this volume present a systematic exploration of the representation of the national paradigm In doing so they contextualize the European experience in a more global framework by providing comparative perspectives on the national histories in the Far East and North America As such they expose the complex variables and diverse actors that lie behind the narration of a nation

Nation-building Gungwu Wang, 2005 Addressing questions such as how should historians treat the earlier pasts of each country and the nationalism that guided the nation building tasks this book tries to put them not only in the perspective of Southeast Asian developments of the past five decades but also the larger areas of historiography

Speaking the Nation Anandita Bajpai, 2018-07-04 Untangling the logical lexical and semantic patterns of the multiple official speeches of Indian prime ministers Speaking the Nation gauges how the Indian state has been projected by different governments in different times in the face of challenges from internal and external actors that put pressure on its leaders to safeguard their status as legitimate elites in power It analyses how Indian nationhood is consistently reshaped and reaffirmed by invoking its secular ethos and practice as well as the experience of market liberalization The book calls for serious engagement with political oratory in India A close reading of speeches since 1991 from Narasimha Rao to Narendra Modi it captures how through these crosscutting topics the prominent authors of the nation and the vanguards of the state speak India into being The Nation's Schools Michael Vincent O'Shea,1929 After Ireland Declan Kiberd,2018-01-08 Ireland is suffering from a crisis of authority Catholic Church scandals political corruption and economic collapse have shaken the Irish people's faith in their institutions and thrown the nation's struggle for independence into question While Declan Kiberd explores how political failures and economic globalization have eroded Irish sovereignty he also sees a way out of this crisis After Ireland surveys thirty works by modern writers that speak to worrisome trends in Irish life and yet also imagine a renewed more plural and open nation After Dublin burned in 1916 Samuel Beckett feared the birth of a nation might also seal its doom In Waiting for Godot and a range of powerful works by other writers Kiberd traces the development of an early warning system in Irish literature that portended social cultural and political decline Edna O'Brien Frank O'Connor Seamus Heaney and Michael Hartnett lamented the loss of the Irish language Gaelic tradition and rural life Nuala Ní Dhomhnaill and Eavan Boland grappled with institutional corruption and the end of traditional Catholicism These themes though bleak led to audacious experimentation exemplified in the plays of Brian Friel and Tom Murphy and the novels of John Banville Their achievements embody the defiance and resourcefulness of Ireland's founding spirit and a strange kind of hope After Ireland places these writers and others at the center of Ireland's ongoing fight for independence In their diagnoses of Ireland's troubles Irish artists preserve and extend a humane culture planting the seeds of a sound moral economy Literary Canon Formation as Nation-Building in Central Europe and the Baltics ,2021-02-15 In this volume seventeen scholars from Estonia Hungary Lithuania Poland and Slovakia present their research on the formation and transformation of national literary canons as a practice of nation building in Central Europe and the Baltics The articles focus on the shaping of national identities through literature and analyze the establishment of literary canons by means of language the role of national poets and similar topics Case studies of so called minor literatures reveal common tendencies in the structure of many national canons as well as specific responses and creative decisions in nation building processes This volume rethinks the relations between literature and nationalism from the 19th century to present times and contributes to the field of studies of historical development of nationalism Contributors are Olga Bartosiewicz Nikolaev Renata Beliova Ramun Bleizgien Pawe Bukowiec Anna R Burzyńska Judit Dobry Gergely Fűrész Katre Kikas Aist Kuinskien Helena Markowska Fulara Radosław Okulicz Kozaryn Jurga Sadauskien Vaidas eferis Viktorija eina Brigita Speityt Jagoda Wierzejska and Krystyna Zabawa Nation's Business ,1922 The Grammar of Empire in Eighteenth-Century British Writing Janet Sorensen,2000-10-19 This study first published in 2000 examines the role of language as an instrument of empire in eighteenth century British literature The Nation and Athenæum ,1912 Nation Games Benjamin Zachariah,2020-08-10 This volume examines the tension between the nation idea as a necessary language of legitimacy with which to claim liberation and its role in disciplining people and their identities in India in the name of national liberation It is an attempt to open up new lines of thinking and ways of reading Indian history Studies in American Jewish Literature in Honor of Sarah Blacher Cohen Carole Kessner, Ann Shapiro, Daniel Walden, 2010 Scholar teacher playwright and editor Sarah Blacher Cohen was one of the earliest champions of the study of American Jewish literature a field of academic study that has been in existence for barely thirty five years Over the years until her premature death in 2008 she contributed to the discipline in a profusion of genres from scholarly to popular from essay to drama writing or editing seven books of her own She also wrote and produced several plays with her longtime collaborator Joanne B Koch This special volume 29 of the annual Studies in American Jewish Literature ISSN 0271 9274 the journal edited by Daniel Walden contains a range of tributes from her many friends and colleagues Nature's State Susan Kollin, 2018-06-15 An engaging blend of environmental theory and literary studies Nature s State looks behind the myth of Alaska as America s last frontier a pristine and wild place on the fringes of our geographical imagination Susan Kollin traces how this seemingly marginal space in American culture has in fact functioned to alleviate larger social anxieties about nature ethnicity and national identity Kollin pays special attention to the ways in which concerns for the environment not only shaped understandings of Alaska but also aided U S nation building projects in the Far North from the late nineteenth century to the present era Beginning in 1867 the year the United States purchased Alaska a variety of literary and cultural texts helped position the region as a crucial staging ground for territorial struggles between native peoples Russians Canadians and Americans In showing how Alaska has functioned as a contested geography in the nation s spatial imagination Kollin addresses writings by a wide range of figures including early naturalists John Muir and Robert Marshall contemporary nature writers Margaret Murie John McPhee and Barry Lopez adventure writers Jack London and Jon Krakauer and native authors Nora Dauenhauer Robert Davis and Mary TallMountain Split Screen Nation Susan Courtney, 2017-02-01 Split Screen Nation traces an oppositional dynamic between the screen West and the screen South that was unstable and dramatically shifting in the decades after WWII and has marked popular ways of imagining the U S ever since If this dynamic became vivid in Quentin Tarantino s Django Unchained 2012 itself arguably a belated response to Easy Rider 1969 this book helps us understand those films and much more through an eclectic history of U S screen media from the postwar era It deftly analyzes not only Hollywood films and television but also educational and corporate films amateur films aka home movies and military and civil defense films featuring tests of the atomic bomb in the desert Attentive to sometimes profoundly different contexts of production and consumption shaping its varied examples Split Screen Nation argues that in the face of the Cold War and the civil rights struggle an implicit sometimes explicit opposition between the screen West and the screen South nonetheless mediated the nation s most paradoxical narratives namely land of the free land of slavery conquest and segregation Whereas confronting such contradictions head on could capsize cohesive conceptions of the U S by now familiar screen forms of the West and the South split them apart to offer convenient discrete and consequential imaginary places upon which to collectively project avowed aspirations and dump troubling forms of national waste Pinpointing some of the most severe yet understudied postwar trends fueling this dynamic including non theatrical film road trips feature films adapted from Tennessee Williams and atomic test films and mining their potential for more complex ways of thinking and feeling the nation Split Screen Nation considers how the vernacular screen forms at issue have helped shape how we imagine not only America s past but also the limits and possibilities of its present and future The Annual Literary Index William Isaac Fletcher, Richard Rogers Bowker, 1899
