The Official CHFI Study Guide (Exam 312-49) Dave Kleiman, 2011-08-31 This is the official CHFI Computer Hacking Forensics Investigator study guide for professionals studying for the forensics exams and for professionals needing the skills to identify an intruder's footprints and properly gather the necessary evidence to prosecute. The EC Council offers certification for ethical hacking and computer forensics. Their ethical hacker exam has become very popular as an industry gauge and we expect the forensics exam to follow suit. Material is presented in a logical learning sequence: a section builds upon previous sections and a chapter on previous chapters. All concepts simple and complex are defined and explained when they appear for the first time. This book includes Exam objectives covered in a chapter are clearly explained in the beginning of the chapter. Notes and Alerts highlight crucial points. Exam's Eye View emphasizes the important points from the exam's perspective. Key Terms present definitions of key terms used in the chapter. Review Questions contains the questions modeled after real exam questions based on the material covered in the chapter. Answers to the questions are presented with explanations. Also included is a full practice exam modeled after the real exam. The only study guide for CHFI provides 100% coverage of all exam objectives. CHFI Training runs hundreds of dollars for self tests to thousands of dollars for classroom training.

Entry-level Reading and Writing Tests for California Law Enforcement Richard A. Honey, 1998 This study was undertaken to develop and validate reading and writing tests to be used for the selection of entry level law enforcement officers in California. In effect this study was comprised of two research projects: one resulting in a reading test and one resulting in a writing test. The tests were validated using both the content and criterion related strategies of validation. The tests were content validated using job skills as the criteria and empirically validated using academy academic performance as the criteria. POST feels the language ability tests are appropriate for use as entry level selection procedures for all law enforcement agencies in the state of California.
