Vietnam Gareth Porter, 1981 Publisher description This landmark volume at last gives us a full picture from both sides of the Vietnam conflict from Ho Chi Minh's first call for revolution to the fall of the U S backed government in Siagon Decision makers whose words come to us in over 300 documents spanning almost 35 years Many of these documents come from recently declassified U S archives They combine to show the step by step process by which Franklin Roosevelt's early support for Vietnamese independence moved in succeeding administrations to support for French colonial rule and then to our own direct armed intervention They form a record too of changing North Vietnamese policy as hope of peaceful triumph faded and struggle against vast military odds became a necessity Charged with a sense of tragic inevitability as American misconceptions compounded themselves and North Vietnamese militancy stiffened this revelatory compilation gives eloquent answers to agonizing questions raised by one of the great turning points of modern history Here is what really happened And here is why

The Road to War Marvin Kalb, 2013-05-09 Not since Pearl Harbor has an American president gone to Congress to request a declaration of war Nevertheless since then one president after another from Truman to Obama has ordered American troops into wars all over the world From Korea to Vietnam Panama to Grenada Lebanon to Bosnia Afghanistan to Iraq why have presidents sidestepped declarations of war Marvin Kalb former chief diplomatic correspondent for CBS and NBC News explores this key question in his thirteenth book about the presidency and U S foreign policy Instead of a declaration of war presidents have justified their war making powers by citing commitments private and public made by former presidents Many of these commitments have been honored but some betrayed Surprisingly given the tight U S Israeli relationship Israeli leaders feel that at times they have been betrayed by American presidents Is it time for a negotiated defense treaty between the United States and Israel as a way of substituting for a string of secret presidential commitments From Israel to Vietnam presidential commitments have proven to be tricky and dangerous For example one president after another committed the United States to the defense of South Vietnam often without explanation Over the years these commitments mushroomed into national policy leading to a war costing 58 000 American lives Few in Congress or the media chose to question the war's provenance or legitimacy until it was too late No president saw the need for a declaration of war considering one to be old fashioned The word of a president can morph into a national commitment It can become the functional equivalent of a declaration of war Therefore whenever a president commits the United States to a policy or course of action with or increasingly without congressional approval watch out the White House may be setting the nation on a road toward war The Road to War was a 2013 Foreword Reviews honorable mention in the subject of War Military
