The View From Nowhere The View From Nowhere:

The ^AView From Nowhere Thomas Nagel,1986-01-23 Human beings have the unique ability to view the world in a detached way but at the same time each of us is a particular person in a particular place each with his own personal view of the world Thomas Nagel s ambitious and lively book tackles this fundamental issue arguing that our divided nature is the root of a whole range of philosophical problems touching every aspect of human life He deals with its manifestations in such fields of philosophy as the mind body problem personal identity knowledge and skepticism thought and reality free will ethics the relation between moral and other values the meaning of life and death The Subjectivity of the Mental Jeremy W.

Morgan,2022-08-15 The degradation of modern sport its commercialization trivialization widespread cheating cult of athletic stars and celebrities and manipulation by the media has led to calls for its transformation William J Morgan constructs a critical theory of sport that shores up the weak arguments of past attempts and points a way forward to making sport more humane compelling and substantive Drawing on the work of social theorists Morgan challenges scholars and fans alike to explore new spaces in sport culture and imagine the rich cultural and political possibilities to be found in the pastimes we follow with such passion Question Authority Mark Kingwell,2024-11-05

Philosopher Mark Kingwell thinks about thinking for yourself in an era of radical know it all ism Question authority the popular 1960s slogan commanded Think for yourself But what started as a counter cultural catchphrase playful in logic but serious in intent has become a practical paradox Yesterday s social critics are the tone policing tyrants of today while those who claim colourblindness see no need to engage with critical theory at all The resulting crisis of authority made worse by rival political factions and chaotic public discourse has exposed cracks in every facet of shared social life Politics academia journalism medicine religion science every kind of institutional claim is now routinely subject to objection investigation and outright disbelief A recurring feature of this comprehensive distrust of authority is the firm often unshakeable belief in personal righteousness and superiority what Mark Kingwell calls our addiction to conviction In this critical survey of the predicament of contemporary authority Kingwell draws on philosophical argument personal reflection and details from the headlines in an attempt to reclaim the democratic spirit of questioning authority and thinking for oneself Defending a program of compassionate skepticism Question Authority is a fascinating survey of the role of individual humility in public life and illuminates how we might each do our part in the infinite project of justice The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States United States. and Identity Brendan Bradshaw,Peter Roberts,2003-12-18 The historical resonances of the concept of Britain for the communities of the Atlantic Archipelago in the early modern period are explored here in terms of the ideological demands made upon it Various and competing concepts of Britishness are examined from the Henrician legislation which united Wales with England and which created the kingdom of Ireland to the Act of Union of the realms of England and Scotland The chequered history of the consciousness of Britain as a polity which embraced the united kingdoms is discussed in relation to the distinctive national identities of the constituent countries and the question of the impact of Britain on English policy making under the Tudor Stuart and the first Hanoverian monarchs is addressed The puzzling resistance of the Irish to assimilation in contrast to the docility of the Welsh and eventually of the Scots is also explored The Juvenile instructor
