The Whole Death Catalog A Lively Guide To Bitter End Harold Schechter:

The Whole Death Catalog Harold Schechter, 2009-06-02 In the tradition of Mary Roach's bestselling Stiff and Jessica Mitford's classic exposé The American Way of Death comes this meticulously researched refreshingly irreverent and lavishly illustrated look at death from acclaimed author Harold Schechter. With his trademark fearlessness and bracing sense of humor, Schechter digs deep into a wealth of sources to unearth a treasure trove of surprising facts, amusing anecdotes, practical information, and timeless wisdom about that undiscovered country to which we will all one day travel. Topics include: Death anxiety is your fear of death, normal or off the scale. You can't take it with you or can you? Wacky wills and bizarre bequests. The hospice experience: going out in comfort and style. Deathbed and funeral etiquette: how to help the dying and mourn the dead with dignity. Death on demand: why the right to die movement may be the next big thing. Goodbye everybody: famous last words. The embalmer's art: all dressed up and nowhere to go. Behind the scenes at your local funeral home. Alternative burial choices: from coral reefs to outer space. From the cold, hard facts of death to lessons in the art of dying well: from what happens in the body's last living moments to what transpires in the ground or in the furnace, from near-death experiences to speculation on the afterlife. The Whole Death Catalog leaves no gravestone unturned. Mortality's Muse D. T. Siebert, 2013-10-10 The inevitability of death, that of others and our own, is surely among our greatest anxieties. Mortality's Muse: The Fine Art of Dying explores how art, mainly literary art, addresses that troubling reality. While religion and philosophy offer important consolations for life's end, art responds in ways that are perhaps more complete and certainly more deeply human. Among subjects treated: the ars moriendi or art of dying; tradition; the contrast between past and more recent cultural values; the religious consolation's value but shortcoming for some people; the role of art in offering a secular consolation; dying as a performing art; the philosophic ideal of good death; the lively appeal of carpe diem or living for the present moment; the elegiac sense of life; and the two opposite parts Mortality's Muse has played in dealing with war, the most senseless and unnecessary cause of death. The idea of an aesthetic sense of life forms the basis of these discussions. Human beings are makers in the largest sense of the word, and art represents everything they make: civilization itself, with all its greatness and failings. Our civilization may ultimately be nothing but an evanescent blip in the cosmos. Even so, the creation of beauty, meaning, and purpose from disorder and suffering defines us as human beings. In the words of Robinson Jeffers, even if monuments eventually crumble and all art perish, yet for thousands of years carved stones have stood and pained thoughts found the honey of peace in old poems. Death and Dying Diane Andrews Henningfeld, 2010-07-16 This book offers a collection of twenty-three essays that examines viewpoints on death and dying from around the world. Causes of death are examined, including increases in mortality due to AIDS in Africa, drug abuse in Scotland, and suicide in Ireland. Chapters discuss access to palliative end-of-life care and assisted suicide. Readers will evaluate the influences of the world's major religions and their beliefs, traditions, and rituals surrounding death. They will also learn about funeral practices throughout
