The Local Meets the Global in Performance Pirkko Koski,Melissa Sihra,2010-02-19 This anthology explores the ways in which theatre and performance functions at the interstices of contemporary local and global networks Theatre and performance occurs in time and space and exists between the audience and performer as a communicative event This local world of experience and human interactivity is not easily subsumed by global networks or commercial systems and remains a potent force of expression and at times resistance The volume offers a range of critical viewpoints from which to evaluate the interrelationality of the local and the global such as philosophical cosmopolitanism post colonialism feminism class ethnicity gender and the experience of the diasporic or exilic artist The anthology concludes with a reflection between Janelle Reinelt and Marvin Carlson upon the ideas put forth in the book and the broader connectivities of the local and the global Reinelt and Carlson reveal that these concepts should not be regarded in opposition but rather as entangled something which is reflected in this volume as a whole A number of international productions and performance practices are discussed from diverse geographical and cultural perspectives illuminating the complexity of the local and the global As Reinelt suggests The global local category as a hyphenated concept has become a slogan now a clich even It first arose because the local was supposed to save the global from totalisation but in fact the global local concept became in reality so complex that this opposition was not useful anymore Carlson s and Reinelt s engagement with the essays and with the broader issues of the global and the local marks an important intervention into how we process experience through theatre and performance in the world today Contributors include Marvin Carlson Shams Eldin Lynette Hunter Pirkko Koski Yana Meerzon Yasushi Nagata Janelle Reinelt Heike Roms Nehad Selaiha Melissa Sihra Juha Sihvola Joanne Tompkins Denise Varney and Farah Yeganeh

Philosophy and the Abrahamic Religions Rahim Acar, Bilal Bas, Torrance Kirby, 2013-01-15 From Greco Roman Antiquity through to the European Enlightenment philosophy and religious thought were inseparably interwoven This was equally the case for the popular natural or pagan religions of the ancient world as it was for the three pre eminent religions of the book namely Judaism Christianity and Islam The lengthy and involved encounter of the Greek philosophical tradition and especially of the Platonic Aristotelian and Neoplatonic strands of that tradition initially with the Hellenistic cults and subsequently with the three Abrahamic religions played a critical role in shaping the basic contours of Western intellectual history from Plato to Philo of Alexandria Plotinus Porphyry Augustine and Proclus from Aristotle to al-Farabi Avicenna al-Azhar Aquinas and the medieval scholastics and eventually to Meister Eckhart and Nicholas Cusanus and such modern philosophers and theologians as Richard Hooker the Cambridge Platonists Jacob Boehme and G W F Hegel to name but a few The aim of the twenty four essays comprising this volume is to explore the intellectual worlds of the three Abrahamic religious traditions their respective approaches to scriptural hermeneutics and their interaction over many centuries on the common ground of the inheritance of classical Greek philosophy The shared goal of the contributors is to demonstrate the extent to which the three Abrahamic religions have created similar shared patterns of thought in dealing with crucial religious concepts such as the divine creation providence laws both natural and revealed such problems as the origin of evil and the possibility of salvation as well as defining hermeneutics that is to say the manner of interpreting their sacred writings

Enfoldment and Infinity Laura U. Marks, 2010-08-13 Tracing the connections both visual and philosophical between new media art and classical Islamic art In both classical Islamic art and contemporary new media art one point can unfold to reveal an entire universe A fourteenth century dome decorated with geometric complexity and a new media work that shapes a dome from programmed beams of light both can inspire feelings of immersion and transcendence In Enfoldment and Infinity Laura Marks traces the strong similarities visual and philosophical between these two kinds of art Her argument is more than metaphorical she shows that the Islamic quality of modern and new media art is a latent deeply enfolded historical inheritance from Islamic art and thought Marks proposes an aesthetics of unfolding and enfolding in which image information and the infinite interact image is an interface to information and information such as computer code or the words of the Qur'an is an interface to the infinite After demonstrating historically how Islamic aesthetics traveled into Western art Marks draws explicit parallels between works of classical Islamic art and new media art describing texts that burst into image lines that multiply to form fractal spaces nonorganic life in carpets and algorithms and other shared concepts and images Islamic philosophy she suggests can offer fruitful ways of understanding contemporary art The Esoteric in Religious and Spiritual Traditions Patrick Laude,2025-06-28 This book offers a comparative examination of the esoteric dimension across diverse religions including Buddhism Christianity Hinduism and Islam It seeks to answer the question of whether the concept of the esoteric can be applied across traditions and explores intersections convergences and differences in its use and presence therein The book provides new avenues for research by moving beyond the study of Western esotericism and examining how the category of the esoteric can be applied in the contexts of Abrahamic faiths and Asian traditions The book is organized into six centers of reflection including the esoteric dialectics of hiding and revealing the claim of esoteric traditions to restore wholeness and provide a comprehensive understanding of reality the character of immediacy and directness the intrinsic esoteric distinction between two truths and the non dualistic leanings of esoteric schools in terms of the unity of reality and the subjective immanence of an all embracing Divine Selfhood Overall the book provides a comprehensive phenomenology of the esoteric in religions It will be of interest to researchers and students of theology and religious studies Pathways to an Inner Islam Patrick Laude,2010-01-21 Pathways to an Inner Islam provides an introduction to the esoteric or spiritual inner Islam presented by Western thinkers Louis Massignon Henry Corbin Ren Gu non and Frithjof Schuon Particularly interested in Sufism the mystical tradition of Islam these four twentieth century authors who wrote in French played an important role in presenting Islamic spirituality to the West and have also had an influence in parts of the Muslim world such as Turkey Iran and Pakistan Patrick Laude brings them together to argue that an understanding of their inner Islam challenges reductionist views of Islam as an essentially legalistic tradition and highlights its spiritual qualities The book discusses their thought on the definitions of spiritual Islam and Sufism the metaphysical and mystical understanding of the Prophet and the Qur'an the function of femininity in Islamic spirituality and the inner understanding of jihad In addition the writers Christian backgrounds and their participation in the intellectual and spiritual traditions of both Christianity and Islam offer a dynamic perspective on interfaith dialogue All the World an Icon Tom Cheetham,2012-07-03 All the World an Icon is the fourth book in an informal quartet of works by Tom Cheetham on the spirituality of Henry Corbin a major twentieth century scholar of Sufism and colleague of C G Jung whose influence on contemporary religion and the humanities is beginning to become clear Cheetham's books have helped spark a renewed interest in the work of this important creative religious thinker Henry Corbin 1903-1978 was professor of Islamic religion at the Sorbonne in Paris and director of the department of Iranic studies at the Institut Franco Iranien in Teheran His wide ranging work includes the first translations of Heidegger into French studies in Swedenborg and Boehme writings on the Grail and angelology and definitive translations of Persian Islamic and Sufi texts He introduced such seminal terms as the imaginal realm and theophany into Western thought and his use of the Shi'ite idea of ta wil or spiritual interpretation influenced psychologist James Hillman and the literary critic Harold Bloom His books were read by a broad range of poets including Charles Olson and Robert Duncan and his impact on American poetry says Cheetham has yet to be fully appreciated His published titles in English include Creative Imagination in the Sufism of Ibn Arabi Avicenna and the Visionary Recital and The Man of Light in Iranian Sufism As the religions of the Book place the divine Word at the center of creation the importance of hermeneutics the theory and practice of interpretation cannot be overstated In the theology and spirituality of Henry Corbin the mystical heart of this tradition is to be found in the creative active imagination the alchemy of spiritual development is best understood as a story of the soul's search for the Lost Speech Cheetham eloquently demonstrates Corbin's view that the living interpretation of texts whether divine or human or indeed of the world itself seen as the Text of Creation is the primary task of spiritual life In his first three books on Corbin Cheetham explores different aspects of Corbin's work but has saved for this book his final analysis of what Corbin meant by the Arabic term ta wil perhaps the most important concept in his entire oeuvre Any consideration of how Corbin's ideas were adapted by others has to begin with a clear idea of what Corbin himself intended writes Cheetham his own intellectual and spiritual cosmos is already highly complex and eclectic and a knowledge of his particular philosophical project is crucial for understanding the range and implications of his work Cheetham lays out the implications of ta wil as well as the use of language as integral part of any artistic or spiritual practice with the view that the creative imagination is a fundamentally linguistic phenomenon for the Abrahamic religions and as Corbin tells us prayer is the supreme form of creative imagination

Daimonic Imagination Patrick Curry, William Rowlandson, 2013-07-16 From the artistic genius to the tarot reader a sense of communication with another order of reality is commonly affirmed this other may be termed god angel spirit muse daimon or alien or it may be seen as an aspect of the human imagination or the unconscious in a psychological sense This volume of essays celebrates the daimonic presence in a diversity of manifestations presenting new insights into inspired creativity and human beings relationship with mysterious and numinous dimensions of reality In art and literature many visual and poetic forms have been given to the daimonic intelligence and in the realm of new age practices encounters with spirit beings are facilitated through an increasing variety of methods including shamanism hypnotherapy mediumship and psychedelics The contributors to this book are not concerned with proving or disproving the existence of such beings Rather they paint a broad canvas with many colours evoking the daimon through the perspectives of history literature encounter and
