Poet's Choice Edward Hirsch, 2006 A collection of revised and expanded writings culled from the author's popular Washington Post Book World Poet's Choice column demonstrates how poetry responds to world challenges and introduces the work of more than 130 writers

Wild Gratitude Edward Hirsch, 2013-12-11 An excerpt from the poem Wild Gratitude Tonight when I knelt down next to our cat Zooey And put my fingers into her clean cat's mouth And rubbed her swollen belly that will never know kittens And watched her wriggle onto her side pawing the air And listened to her solemn little squeals of delight I was thinking about the poet Christopher Smart Who wanted to kneel down and pray without ceasing In everyone of the splintered London streets And was locked away in the madhouse at St Luke's With his sad religious mania and his wild gratitude And his grave prayers for the other lunatics And his great love for his speckled cat Jeoffry All day today August 13 1983 I remembered how Christopher Smart blessed this same day in August 1759 For its calm bravery and ordinary good conscience

Earthly Measures Edward Hirsch, 2013-10-09 Edward Hirsch's strong arresting poems have been praised from the start of his career Of his second book Wild Gratitude Robert Penn Warren said I am convinced that the best poems here are unsurpassed in our time This his fourth collection contains his finest work From gritty apocalyptic views of the urban Midwest to brilliantly empathetic portrayals of Simone Weil and Hugo von Hofmannsthal the range of poems is at once wide and subtle In the Midwest speaks of the nightmare of abandon and decay From a Train Hofmannsthal in Greece is the poet's compelling view of a timeless landscape The Italian Muse is a meditation on Henry James in Rome Luminist Paintings at the National Gallery beautifully evokes the sense of nineteenth century American countryside There is an argument about transcendence in these poems an evocation of American spaces and European landscapes a quest for reconciliation to the earth as it is Hirsch's work as Anthony Hecht has said has not only the courage of its strong emotions but the language and form that makes and keeps them clear and true

Stranger by Night Edward Hirsch, 2022-03-01 Now in his seventies the award winning poet looks back on what was and accepts what is in a deeply moving and beautiful sequence about what sustains him Beginning with My Friends Don't Get Buried the lament of a delinquent mourner as his friends have begun to die and ending with the plaintive note to self don't write elegies anymore Edward Hirsch takes us backward through the decades in these memory poems of startling immediacy He recalls the black dress a lover wore when he couldn't yet know the tragedy of her burning spirit the radiance of an autumn day in Detroit when his students smoked outside passionately discussing Shelley the day he got off late from a railyard shift and missed an antiwar demonstration There are direct and indirect elegies to lost contemporaries like Mark Strand William Meredith and most especially his longtime compatriot Philip Levine whom he honors in several poems about daily work in the late mid century Midwest As the poet ages and begins to lose his peripheral vision the world is stranger by night but these elegant heart stirring poems shed light on a lifetime that inevitably contains both sorrow and joy

Museum Mediations Barbara K. Fisher, 2006-01-24 This interdisciplinary study participates in the ongoing critical conversation about postwar American poetry and visual culture while advancing that field into the arena of the museum Turning to contemporary poems about the visual arts that foreground and interrogate a museum setting the book demonstrates the particular importance of the museum as a cultural site that is both inspiration and provocation for poets The study uniquely bridges the dual canon in contemporary poetry and calls the lyric avant garde distinction into question by analyzing museum sponsored anthologies as well as poems by John Ashbery Richard Howard Kenneth Koch Kathleen Fraser Cole Swensen Anne Carson and others Through these case studies of poets with diverse affiliations the author shows that the boom in ekphrasis in the past 20 years is not only an aesthetic but a critical phenomenon a way that poets have come to terms with the critical dilemmas of our moment Highlighting the importance of poets peripheral vision awareness of the institutional conditions that frame encounters with art the author contend that a museum visit becomes a forum for questioning oppositions that have preoccupied literary criticism for the past 50 years homage and innovation modernism and postmodernism subjectivity and collectivity The study shows that ekphrasis becomes a strategy for negotiating these impasses a mode of political inquiry a meditation on canonization a venue for comic appraisal of institutionalization and a means of site specific feminist revision in a vital synthesis of critique perspicacity and pleasure

The Image and Influence of America in German Poetry Since 1945 Gregory Divers, 2002 Examines the image of the US in German poetry and the reception and influence of American poetry in Germany since 1945 This book focuses on the image of the US in German poetry and the reception of American poetry in Germany since 1945 Gregory Divers examines poems by major figures in 20th century German literature Benn Brecht Bachmann Jandl and Grass among others and by other poets who shaped America s postwar image in Germany Divers traces America s postwar status in Germany from the prisoner of war poems of G nter Eich to the pop poetry of Rolf Dieter Brinkmann and Peter Handke Continuing he finds that although the 1960s protest poems of Erich Fried and others reflect the tarnishing of America s image due to Vietnam 1970s travel poems by Brinkmann Kunert and Kunze confirm the resiliency of that image Finally Divers looks at poems by Hartung Delius and Kling to illustrate the new heights reached by America s image within German literary circles during the 1980s and the status of America in Germany after reunification In charting these developments in postwar German poetry Divers also shows how American influences are crucial to its understanding not only surveying postwar German reception of Whitman Eliot Pound and William Carlos Williams but also examining the influence of such figures as Charles Olson and Robert Creeley Allen Ginsberg and the Beats Frank O Hara and John Ashbery and Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath Gregory Divers is Assistant Professor of German at Saint Louis University Elastic Ekphrastic Jennifer Bosveld, 2003 Voices in the Gallery Grant Holcomb, 2001 The forty writers in this book all prominent poets and novelists were asked to select a work of art from the University of Rochester's Memorial Art Gallery and respond to it with a poem short story or essay The writers include Poet Laureates Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award winners New York State Poets and MacArthur Fellows Their works range from the gritty hour of charcoal and amber in Kate Braverman's response to Douglas Gorsline's 1942 painting Bar Scene to a delightful short story by Tom Gavin based upon Winslow Homer's magnificent painting The Artist's Studio in an Afternoon Fog A notable group of nineteenth century American landscape paintings caught the attention of a number of writers while the poet John Ashbery found the contemporary landscape painting of Jane Freilicher to be a continual joie de vivre Other contributors include Andrea Barrett National Book Award Winner for Fiction in 1996 Hayden Carruth National Book Award Winner for Poetry in 1996 Anthony Hecht Chancellor Emeritus of the Academy of American Poets and Joanna Scott recipient of the Pushcart Prize and the Lannan Literary Award With imagination and originality these writers have recreated the works of art and enable us to see anew many of the treasures in the collections of the Memorial Art Gallery Grant Holcomb is the Director of the Memorial Art Gallery of the University of Rochester Henri Matisse Catherine C. Bock Weiss, 2014-02-25 First published in 1996 The art of the extraordinary French artist Henri Matisse 1869-1954 has provided visual pleasures and intellectual challenges to its viewers for the last hundred years This is collection of gathered summarized and evaluated major literature on the artist primarily from France the United States Germany and the Scandinavian countries where major Matisse collections bear witness to early and intense interest in the artist's work The Archetypal Artist Mary Antonia Wood, 2022-03-24 In this thoughtful and revelatory book Wood explores enduring and powerful theories on art creativity and what Jung called the creative spirit in order to illuminate how artists can truly understand what it means to be a creator By bringing together insights on creativity from some of depth psychology's most iconic thinkers such as C G Jung James Hillman and Joseph Campbell as well as featuring a selection of creators who have been influenced by these ideas such as Martha Graham Mary Oliver Stanley Kunitz and Ursula K Le Guin this book explores archetypal thought and the role of the artist in society This unique approach emphasizes the foundational need to understand and work with the unconscious forces that underpin a creative calling deepening our understanding of the transformational power of creativity and the vital role of the artist in the modern world Acting as a touchstone for inquiries into the nature of creativity and of the soul this enlightening book is perfect for artists and creators of all types as well as Jungian analysts and therapists and academics interested in the arts humanities and depth psychology I Call Myself an Artist Charles Johnson, 1999 This work reaches across the colour line to examine how race gender class and individual subjectivity shaped the lives of black and white women in the 19th and 20th century American South Art & Antiques , 1994-09 How Poets See the World Willard Spiegelman, 2005-06-23 Although readers of prose fiction sometimes find descriptive passages superfluous or boring

description itself is often the most important aspect of a poem This book examines how a variety of contemporary poets use description in their work Description has been the great burden of poetry How do poets see the world How do they look at it What do they look for Is description an end in itself or a means of expressing desire Ezra Pound demanded that a poem should represent the external world as objectively and directly as possible and William Butler Yeats in his introduction to The Oxford Book of Modern Verse 1936 said that he and his generation were rebelling against inter alia irrelevant descriptions of nature in the work of their predecessors The poets in this book however who are distinct in many ways from one another all observe the external world of nature or the reflected world of art and make relevant poems out of their observations This study deals with the crisp elegant work of Charles Tomlinson the swirling baroque poetry of Amy Clampitt the metaphysical meditations of Charles Wright from a position in his backyard the weather reports and landscapes of John Ashbery and the new way of looking that Jorie Graham proposes to explore in her increasingly fragmented poems All of these poets plus others Gary Snyder Theodore Weiss Irving Feldman Richard Howard who are dealt with more briefly attend to what Wallace Stevens in a memorable phrase calls the way things look each day The ordinariness of daily reality is the beginning of the poets own idiosyncratic indeed unique visions and styles

On Love Edward Hirsch, 2008-12-18 Life has to have the plenitude of art Edward Hirsch affirms in his fifth volume of poems On Love which further establishes him as a major artist From its opening epigraph by Thomas Hardy and an initiating prayer for transformation On Love takes up the subjects of separateness and fusion autonomy and blur The initial progression of fifteen shapely and passionate lyrics including a sonnet about the poet at seven a villanelle about the loneliness of a pioneer woman on the prairie and an elegy for Amy Clampitt opens out into a sequence of meditations about love These arresting love poems are spoken by a gallery of historical figures from Denis Diderot Heinrich Heine Charles Baudelaire and Ralph Waldo Emerson to Gertrude Stein Federico Garcia Lorca Zora Neale Hurston and Colette Each anatomizes a different aspect of eros in poems uttered by a chorus of historical authorities that is also a lone lover s yearning voice Personal literary On Love offers the most formally adept and moving poetry by the author Harold Bloom hails as utterly fresh canonical and necessary
