Mandel, 2009 New carefully focused essays providing a thorough examination of Hemingway's groundbreaking non-fictional work Published in 1932 Death in the Afternoon reveals its author at the height of his intellectual and stylistic powers By that time Hemingway had already won critical and popular acclaim for his short stories and novels of the late twenties A mature and self-confident artist he now risked his career by switching from fiction to nonfiction from American characters to Spanish bullfighters from exotic and romantic settings to the tough world of the Spanish bullring a world that might seem frightening and even repellant to those who do not understand it Hemingway's nonfiction has been denied the attention that his novels and short stories have enjoyed a state of affairs this Companion seeks to remedy breaking new ground by applying theoretical and critical approaches to a work of nonfiction It does so in original essays that offer a thorough balanced examination of a complex boundary-breaking and hitherto neglected text The volume is broken into sections dealing with the composition reception and sources of Death in the Afternoon cultural translation cultural criticism semiotics and paratextual matters and the issues of art authorship audience and the literary legacy of Death in the Afternoon The contributors to the volume four men and seven women lay to rest the stereotype of Hemingway as a macho writer whom women do not read and their nationalities British Spanish American and Israeli indicate that Death in the Afternoon even as it focuses on a particular national art discusses matters of universal concern Contributors Miriam B. Nothing Abstract Tom Quirk, 2001 Written by one of the leading scholars in the field Nothing Abstract is a collection of essays gathered over the past twenty years all of which in some fashion have to do with a genetic approach to literary study In previous books the author has traced the compositional histories of certain literary works the course of individual careers and the genesis of literary movements In this book Tom Quirk resists the direction taken by contemporary theory in favor of an approach to literature through source and influence study the evolution of a writer s achievement the establishment of biographical or other contexts and the transition from one literary era to another Studies in Short Fiction ,1985 Anti-Heimat Cinema Ofer Ashkenazi,2020-09-08 Anti Heimat Cinema The Jewish Invention of the German Landscape studies an overlooked yet fundamental element of German popular culture in the twentieth century In tracing Jewish filmmakers contemplations of Heimat a provincial German landscape associated with belonging and authenticity it analyzes their distinctive contribution to the German identity discourse between 1918 and 1968 In its emphasis on rootedness and homogeneity Heimat seemed to challenge the validity and significance of Jewish emancipation Several acculturation seeking Jewish artists and intellectuals however endeavored to conceive a notion of Heimat that would rather substantiate their belonging This book considers Jewish filmmakers contribution to this endeavor It shows how they devised the landscapes of the German Homeland as Jews namely as acculturated outsiders within Through appropriation of generic Heimat imagery the films discussed in the book integrate criticism of national chauvinism into German mainstream culture from World War One to the Cold War Consequently these Jewish filmmakers anticipated the anti Heimat film of the ensuing decades and functioned as an uncredited inspiration for the critical New German Cinema
