Writing African History Writing African History:

Writing African History John Edward Philips, 2006 A comprehensive evaluation of how to read African history Writing African History is an essential work for anyone who wants to write or even seriously read African history It will replace Daniel McCall's classic Africa in Time Perspective as the introduction to African history for the next generation and as a reference for professional historians interested readers and anyone who wants to understand how African history is written Africa in Time Perspective was written in the 1960s when African history was a new field of research This new book reflects the development of African history since then It opens with a comprehensive introduction by Daniel McCall followed by a chapter by the editor explaining what African history is and is not in the context of historical theory and the development of historical narrative the humanities and social sciences The first half of the book focuses on sources of historical data while the second half examines different perspectives on history The editor's final chapter explains how to combine various sorts of evidence into a coherent account of African history Writing African History will become the most important guide to African history for the 21st century Contributors Bala Achi Isaac Olawale Albert Diedre L Badjo Dorothea Bedigian Barbara M Cooper Henry John Drewal Christopher Ehret Toyin Falola David Henige Joseph E Holloway John Hunwick S O Y Keita William G Martin Daniel McCall Susan Keech McIntosh Donatien Dibwe Dia Mwembu Kathleen Sheldon John Thornton and Masao Yoshida John Edwards Philips is professor of international society Hirosaki University and author of Spurious Arabic Hausa and Colonial Nigeria Madison University of Wisconsin African Studies Center 2000 Writing Independent

History Caroline Neale, 1985-06-19 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa's current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent's history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi-faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground-breaking study of Africa's past The Multi-disciplinary Approach to African History Nkparom C. Ejituwu, 1998 Explorations in African History Veit Arlt, Stephannie Bishop, Pascal Schmid, 2015-07-01 This collection of essays documents the growth of African history as a discipline at the University of Basel since 2001 It thus pays tribute to fourteen years of research and teaching by Patrick Harries at the Department of History and the Centre for African Studies Basel The Festschrift covers a broad range of topics from mine labour to missionary endeavour and the production of knowledge reflecting some of his core research interests The contributions engage with Patrick Harries oeuvre with reference to the authors own scholarship or vice versa Some directly address his publications while others take his teaching correspondence remarks or intellectual life more broadly as a point of reference They all pay tribute to a brilliant and inspiring scholar a great teacher and a kind person The Production of History and Culture in Africa Revisited Viera Pawliková-Vilhanová, 2014-10-20 The study traces the history of the writing of African history since the 1950s when African history became radically redefined and reassessed and African historical studies started to move beyond the limitations of the previous historical scholarship It attempts to reflect some of the difficulties specific to the study of African history to assess some of the developments and issues regarding the constitution of African history as a field of academic specialisation in Africa and outside the continent to consider the traditions of African history writing and the theoretical and ideological debates about past present and future challenges African historical studies have been facing concentrating mainly on historical research and writing in some regions of sub Saharan Africa Anglophone and Francophone

African History between Ghana and Switzerland E. Sasu Kwame Sewordor, Anne Beutter, 2025-03-17 This collection of essays documents the formative decades of African history across two countries by following the career of the British historian cum archivist Paul Jenkins born 1938 in Sutherland from West Africa to Central Europe It retraces his academic path from Ghana to Switzerland while engaging his curiosities in contributions to and impact on the development of African history since the 1960s The volume reflects on Paul s academic services throughout the 1960s and 1970s mainly at the University of Ghana 1965 1972 and subsequently at the Basel Mission Archive and University of Basel 1972 2003 in Switzerland as key sites where he established himself as a teacher and promoter of African history These episodes led to lasting bonds of intellectual friendships between Paul and an array of inter national and generational scholars of Africa several of whom are contributing to this volume Significantly too the volume highlights the importance of resources Paul curated during the early 1970s notably his Abstracts of the Basel Mission s Gold Coast Correspondences through which he increased access to the rich collections of the Basel Mission Archive for scholars of Africa Altogether the essays celebrate engage interrogate and push beyond Paul s numerous past publications and ongoing academic work The Oxford History of Historical Writing Stuart Macintyre, Juan Manguerra, Attila Pók, 2011-10-27 Volume 4 of The Oxford History of Historical Writing offers essays by leading scholars on the writing of history globally from 1800 to 1945 Divided into four parts it first covers the rise consolidation and crisis of European historical thought and the professionalization and institutionalization of history The chapters in Part II analyze how historical scholarship connected to various European national traditions Part III considers the historical writing of Europe s Offspring the United States Canada South Africa Australia New Zealand Mexico Brazil and Spanish South America The concluding part is devoted to histories of non European cultural traditions China

Getz, 2018-03-15 A Primer for Teaching African History is a guide for college and high school teachers who are teaching African history for the first time for experienced teachers who want to reinvigorate their courses for those who are training future teachers to prepare their own syllabi and for teachers who want to incorporate

African history into their world history courses Trevor R Getz offers design principles aimed at facilitating a classroom experience that will help students navigate new knowledge historical skills ethical development and worldviews He foregrounds the importance of acknowledging and addressing student preconceptions about Africa challenging chronological approaches to history exploring identity and geography as ways to access historical African perspectives and investigating the potential to engage in questions of ethics that studying African history provides In his discussions of setting goals pedagogy assessment and syllabus design Getz draws readers into the process of thinking consciously and strategically about designing courses on African history that will challenge students to think critically about Africa and the discipline of history

Approaching African History Michael Brett, 2013 Africa is a huge continent as large as the more habitable areas of Europe and Asia put together This book takes as its subject the last 10 000 years of African history and traces the way in which human society on the continent has evolved from communities of hunters and gatherers to the complex populations of today The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today A History of African Motherhood Rhiannon Stephens, 2015-08-06 This history of African motherhood over the longue dur e demonstrates that it was ideologically and practically central to social economic cultural and political life

The book explores how people in the North Nyanzan societies of Uganda used an ideology of motherhood to shape their communities More than biology motherhood created essential social and political connections that cut across patrilineal and cultural linguistic divides The importance of motherhood as an ideology and a social institution meant that in chiefdoms and kingdoms queen mothers were powerful officials who legitimated the power of kings This was the case in Buganda the many kingdoms of Busoga and the polities of Bugwere By taking a long term perspective from c 700 to 1900 CE and using an interdisciplinary approach drawing on historical linguistics comparative ethnography and oral traditions and literature as well as archival sources this book shows the durability mutability and complexity of ideologies of motherhood in this region

Encyclopedia of African History 3-Volume Set KEVIN SHILLINGTON., 2005 African Philosophy for the Twenty-First Century Jean Godefroy Bidima, Laura Hengehold, 2021-11-26 In Africa the twenty first century began with new challenges surrounding and regarding philosophical discourses Questions of economic and political liberation the displacement of populations and the process of urbanization present ongoing challenges linked to problems such as endemic diseases and famine the restructure of the traditional family gender and the position of women the transmission of culture from past to future generations Changes in labor relations resulting from introduction of financial speculation cutting edge technologies and differential access to digital and older cultural forms have placed real demands on Africans and Africanists working in philosophy This volume explores the ways in which African philosophies express transitional acts those acts by which thought interacts with history as it is being made and by which it assures its own renewal in proposing provisional solutions to historical problems A transitional act combines both the audacity of confrontation and the novelty of creation prudence in the face of risks and anticipation in the face of the unexpected Influential and emerging thinkers from both sides of the Atlantic consider this dual activity in the realm of criticism and imagination public spaces in Africa and the relationship between historical politics and historical poetics Emergent Masculinities Ndubueze L. Mbah, 2019-10-29 In Emergent Masculinities Ndubueze L. Mbah argues that the Bight of Biafra region's Atlanticization or the interaction between regional processes and Atlantic forces such as the slave trade colonialism and Christianization between 1750 and 1920 transformed gender into the primary mode of social differentiation in the region He incorporates over 250 oral narratives of men and women across a range of social roles and professions with material culture practices performance traditions slave ship data colonial records and more to reveal how Africans channeled the socioeconomic forces of the Atlantic world through their local ideologies and practices The gendered struggles over the means of social reproduction conditioned the Bight of Biafra region's participation in Atlantic systems of production and exchange and defined the demography of the region's forced diaspora By looking at male and female constructions of masculinity and sexuality as major indexes of social change Emergent Masculinities transforms our understanding of the role of gender in precolonial Africa and fills a major gap in our knowledge of a broader set of theoretical and comparative issues linked to the slave trade and the African diaspora

Nigeria, Nationalism, and Writing History Toyin Falola, Saheed Aderinto, 2010 The second half of the 20th century saw the publication of massive amounts of literature on Nigeria by Nigerian and non Nigerian historians This volume reflects on that literature focusing on those works by Nigerians in the context of the rise and the decline of African nationalist historiography

The Complex Interplay between Power, Politics, and African Agency Serges Djoyou Kamga, 2024-11-15 The Complex Interplay between Power Politics and African Agency The Philosophy of Toyin Falola by Serges Djoyou Kamga examines the impact of colonialism by using Toyin Falola's philosophy as a framework It delves into the evolution of African political culture under colonial rule This book offers a unique perspective on the intricate dynamics of African society providing a deeper understanding of how power and politics have shaped African culture Kamga emphasizes the complex interplay between these elements and highlights the significance of African voices in determining their own destiny Using Falola's works this book analyzes and critiques the influence of Europe and establishes the ongoing unequal relationship between ex colonized African countries and their imperialist colonizers This book is highly recommended for scholars of African studies political science and anyone interested in African history and culture Issues in Historiography Oladipo O. Olubomehin, 2001 This work is for African students and students of African history offering a local perspective on the study of history It considers biography as history objectivity oral non literate societies and history archaeology ideological issues in African historiography and writing Nigerian history A whole section is given to a discussion of the challenges facing the twenty first century Nigerian historian These are identified as how to overcome the slump in the study of history and crisis in identity and relevance after the peak and progress of the late seventies how to improve the status of history at secondary and tertiary levels and more generally how to encourage the wider participation of Nigerian historians in international research networks The contributors are mainly professors and lecturers at the University of Lagos and Ogun State University
