Lunsford, 2011-08-15 Anyone who laments the demise of print text would find a sympathetic listener in Andrea A Lunsford Anyone who bemoans the lack of respect for blogs graphic novels and other new media would find her no less understanding Lunsford is at home in both camps because she sees beyond writing's ever changing forms to the constancy of its power to make space for human agency or to radically limit such agency Lunsford is a celebrated scholar of rhetoric and composition and many undergraduates taking courses in those subjects have used her textbooks Here she helps us see that writing is not just a mode of communication persuasion and expression but a web of meanings and practices that shape our lives Lunsford tells how she gained a new respect for our digital culture's three v's: vocal, visual, verbal while helping design and teach a course in multimedia writing On the importance of having a linguistically pluralistic society Lunsford draws links between such varied topics as the English Only movement, language extinction, Ebonics and the text messaging shorthand 133t Lunsford has seen how words, writing and language enforce unfair power relationships in the academy Most classroom settings she writes are authority based and stress individualism, ranking, hierarchy and therefore we have belatedly come to understand exclusion Concerned about the paucity still of tenured women and minority faculty she urges schools to revisit admission and retention practices These are tough and divisive problems Lunsford acknowledges Yet if we can see that writing has the power to help prolong or solve them that writing matters then we have a common ground

Reinventing Writing Vicki Davis, 2014-05-23 In this much anticipated book from acclaimed blogger Vicki Davis Cool Cat Teacher you'll learn the key shifts in writing instruction necessary to move students forward in today's world Vicki describes how the elements of traditional writing are being reinvented with cloud based tools Instead of paper, note taking, filing cabinets, word processors and group reports we now have tools like ePaper, eBooks, social bookmarking, cloud syncing, infographics and more Vicki shows you how to select the right tool, set it up quickly and prevent common mistakes She also helps you teach digital citizenship and offers exciting ways to build writing communities where students love to learn Special Features Essential questions at the start of each chapter to get you thinking about the big ideas A chapter on each of the nine essential cloud based tools: ePaper and eBooks, digital notebooks, social bookmarking, cloud syncing, cloud writing apps, blogging and microblogging, wikis and website builders, online graphic organizers and mind maps and cartoons and infographics A wide variety of practical ways to use each tool in the classroom Alignments to the Common Core State Standards in writing Level Up Learning a special section at the end of each chapter to help you review, reflect on and apply what you've learned Writing tips to help you make the best use of the tools and avoid common pitfalls A glossary of key terms discussed in the book Useful appendices including reproducible material for your classroom No matter what grade level you teach or how much tech experience you have you will benefit from Vicki's compelling and practical ideas As she emphasizes throughout this essential book teaching with cloud based tools has never been easier, more convenient or more important than right now
