Rewriting Leadership with Narrative Intelligence Greg Morgan, 2019-05-22 Rewriting Leadership with Narrative Intelligence draws on a range of disciplines and scholarly traditions to build a compelling case for a new perspective on leadership seeing it as a deeply embodied intuitive skill of curating shared narratives in influence relationships

Re-configuring the Same Ole' Sad Rhetorical Student Narrative Love Song LaToya Faulk, 2009 Crip Authorship Mara Mills, Rebecca Sanchez, 2023-08 Crip Authorship Disability as Method convenes leading scholars activists and artists to explore the shaping of cultural production aesthetics and media by disability across 35 short chapters

Poetry of the Civil Rights Movements in Australia and the United States, 1960s-1980s Ameer Chasib Furaih, 2024-09-03 This book examines the poetries of two Aboriginal Australian poets namely Oodgeroo Noonuccal formerly Kath Walker 1920 1993 and Lionel Fogarty 1958 and two African American Black Arts poets namely Amiri Baraka formerly Everett LeRoi Jones 1934 2014 and Sonia Sanchez 1943 to demonstrate their role in the struggle for civil and human rights of their peoples from the 1960s The book demonstrates commonalities and differences in the strategies of these poets literary and political resistance These poet activists though ethnically diverse and geographically dispersed share comparable socio political concerns and aspirations Their activism is not a reflection of a single ideological current but a bricolage of many ideologies and perspectives They have engaged in trans Pacific political movements and transgressed the borders of any one ideological territory It is important to establish Aboriginal and African American trans Pacific communication because these poets have collaborated and engaged in global politics whether in the form of Garveyism or the transnation Their poetries are characterized by an irresistible drive towards international rhizomatic collaboration and engagement This is a transcontinental literary influence exerted by African American poets on Aboriginal poets during the 1960s and beyond

Things that Make for Peace Anthony Rees, 2020-09-30 In a world that increasingly sees religion as a source of violence this book explores resources from within religious traditions that might help build peace Drawing from the rich textual histories of Christianity and Islam the contributors mine their faith traditions for ways of thinking and ways of being that help shift perceptions about religion and actively contribute to the growth of peace in our troubled times Not content with retreat into religious exclusivism these essays are an act of sharing something held dear In sharing the thing offered no longer remains the possession of the one who offers and so these essays are an act of vulnerability and trust building In sharing precious things together in giving and receiving peace becomes not only a matter of dialogue but also shared commitments to ways of being Women and Water in Global Fiction Emma Staniland, 2023-01-27 Symbols and tropes of liquidity have long been connected to notions of the feminine and therefore with orthodox constructions of femininity and womanhood Underpinning these ideas is the vital importance of water as life force which has given it a central place in cultural vocabularies worldwide These symbolic economies in turn inform the discourses through which positive or negative associations of women with water come to bear impact on the social positioning of female gendered identities Women and Water in Global Fiction brings together an array of studies of this phenomenon as seen in writing by and about women from around the world The literature explored in this volume works to make visible decodify celebrate and challenge the cultural associations made between female gendered identities and all kinds of watery tropes as well as their consequences for key issues connected to women society and the environment The collection investigates the roots of such symbolisms examines how they inform women s place in the socio cultural orders of diverse global cultures and shows how the female authors in question use these tropes in their work as ways of re articulating female identities and their correlative roles The
