

TREATING ADOLESCENT SEX OFFENDERS ____ IN THE COMMUNITY ____

By

CHARLENE STEEN, PH.D., J.D., M.S.W.

and

BARBARA MONNETTE, M.S.W.

This volume presents a comprehensive design for outpatient community treatment of adolescent sex offenders. The authors provide a rationale for keeping the young offender in the community and stress an interdisciplinary approach whereby criminal justice and therapy agencies work together to plan and monitor treatment. Initial intervention procedures, interview forms, and assessment tools are included to assist evaluators; and such significant therapist issues as training, emotional concerns, processing, and networking are examined.

Advances in Clinical Child Psychology Thomas H. Ollendick,Ronald J. Prinz,1997-01-31 This nineteenth volume of Advances in Clinical Child Psychology continues our tradition of examining a broad range of topics and issues that characterize the continually evolving field of clinical child psychology Over the years the series has served to identify important exciting and timely new developments in the field and to provide scholarly and in depth reviews of current thought and practices The present volume is no exception In the opening chapter Sue Campbell explores developmental pathways associated with serious behavior problems in preschool children Specifically she notes that about half of preschool children identified with aggression and problems of impulse control persist in their deviance across development The other half do not What accounts for these different developmental outcomes Campbell invokes developmental and family influences as possible sources of these differential outcomes and in doing so describes aspects of her own programmatic research program that has greatly enriched our understanding of this complex topic In a similar vein Sara Mattis and Tom Ollendick undertake a developmental analysis of panic in children and adolescents in Chapter 2 In recent years separation anxiety and or experiences in separation from attachment figures in childhood have been hypothesized as playing a critical role in the development of panic. This chapter presents relevant findings in the areas of childhood temperament and attachment in addition to experiences of separation that might predispose a child to development of panic.
