The State Past Present Future Keyconcepts:

The State Bob Jessop, 2015-12-29 Debates about the role and nature of the state are at the heart of modern politics. However, the state itself remains notoriously difficult to define and the term is subject to a range of different interpretations. In this book, distinguished state theorist Bob Jessop provides a critical introduction to the state as both a concept and a reality. He lucidly guides readers through all the major accounts of the state and examines competing efforts to relate the state to other features of social organization. Essential themes in the analysis of the state are explored in full, including state formation, periodization, the re-scaling of the state and the state's future. Throughout, Jessop clearly defines key terms from hegemony and coercion to government and governance. He also analyses what we mean when we speak about normal and exceptional states and states that are failed or rogue. Combining an accessible style with expert sensitivity to the complexities of the state, this short introduction will be core reading for students and scholars of politics and sociology as well as anyone interested in the changing role of the state in contemporary societies.

100 Key Concepts in Environmental Psychology Dorothee Marchand, Karine Weiss, Enric Pol, 2023-06-27 This accessible book defines 100 key concepts, ideas and processes in Environmental Psychology to provide an introductory reference work that brings together research and theory in a bite-size format. With contributions from leading figures within Environmental Psychology, each concept is clearly defined and explained within the context of issues around the environment, sustainability, climate change, nature and architecture. This book considers the involvement of psychological, physiological and social processes to understand the mechanisms that explain and contribute to the evolution of behavior and attitudes that relate to our relationship with the environment. Concepts covered include biodiversity, eco-anxiety, place identity, sustainable behaviour, climate justice and environmental attitudes. By integrating ideas from different disciplinary orientations in the field of Environmental Psychology, this book allows for a better understanding of the processes related to the individual-environment relationship as well as the applications that they allow for in various fields of intervention. This is essential reading for students and researchers in Environmental Psychology, Sustainability Studies, Architecture and Built Environment Studies and related fields.

Politics: Key Concepts in Philosophy Iain MacKenzie, 2009-05-24 The extent and nature of rights, the sources of state power, the promises and pitfalls of democracy, how to achieve a just distribution of social goods, the claims of culture and gender on our identity: these are just some of the issues to have been addressed by political philosophers throughout history. Politics: Key Concepts in Philosophy offers a thorough and stimulating account of political philosophy. The text is structured thematically in order to convey the vibrancy of debates within the discipline. Through these debates, the text addresses the ideas of major thinkers including Plato, Hobbes, Locke, Rousseau, Marx, Foucault, Rawls, Kymlicka, Okin and Butler, and it begins and ends with discussions about the nature of political philosophy itself. This is an invaluable aid to study one that goes beyond simple definitions and summaries: readers new to this discipline will encounter a lively text full of clear signposts for the journey into political philosophy      Research in Science Education — Past, Present, and Future Helga Behrendt, Helmut Dahncke, Reinders Duit, Wolfgang Gräber, Michael Komorek, Angela Kross, Priit Reiska, 2005-12-27 This truly international volume includes a selection of contributions to the Second Conference of the European Science Education Research Association Kiel Sept 1999 It provides a state of the art examination of science education research in Europe discusses views and visions of science education research deals with research on scientific literacy on students and teachers conceptions on conceptual change and on instructional media and lab work      Race, Time, and Utopia William M. Paris, 2024 Racial injustice at its core is the domination of time Utopia has been one response to this domination The racially dominated are not free to define what counts as progress they are not free from the accumulation of past injustices and most importantly they are not free from the arbitrary organization of work in capitalist labor markets Racially unjust societies are forms of life where the justifications for how to organize time around life labor and leisure are out of the hands of the dominated In Race Time and Utopia William Paris provides a theoretical account of utopia as the critical analysis of the sources of time domination and the struggle to create emancipatory forms of life Rather than focusing on inclusion and equality before the law as found in liberal theories of racial injustice Paris analyses the neglected utopian tradition of justice in black political thought that insists justice can only be secured through the transformation of society as a whole This transformation is nothing less than the democratic transformation of how organize and narrate our shared time Bringing into conversation the work W E B Du Bois Martin Delany Marcus Garvey Frantz Fanon and James Boggs with the critical theory of Karl Marx Ernst Bloch Rahel Jaeggi and Rainer Forst Paris reconstructs a social theory and normative account of forms of life as the struggle over how time will be organized asking Can there be freedom without a new order of time      Culture Wars: Past, Present, Future Bojan Žalec, Stjepan Štivić , Culture wars have decisively marked our past and are increasingly shaping our present and future The book covers events in Slovenia and Central Europe and temporally it touches on the period of the second half of the 19th century to the onset of the Second World War However the book s contributions extend beyond these limits addressing the present era and looking towards the future both of which are significantly shaped by modern algorithms and artificial intelligence technologies Another key emphasis is placed on religious aspects The broader relevance of the monograph lies in its integral and multidisciplinary scientific investigation of ideologies social doctrines and cultural currents all embedded in specific contexts that have played a decisive role on a global scale      Key Concepts in Philosophy Paddy McQueen, 2010-07-14 An accessible account of philosophical concepts theories and key thinkers with an emphasis on recent developments in the field Containing over 300 entries the terms are ordered alphabetically and cross referenced for ease of use Suggestions for further reading follow the explanations encouraging further reflection and independent learning

Fattah,1997-10-13 Written by an internationally renowned authority in the field the founder of the highly regarded School of Criminology at Simon Fraser University the book draws heavily on research done on three Continents North America Europe and Australia to trace the discipline s historical evolution its current problems disappointing achievements and promising trends It concludes with a prospective look at the future of criminology and criminology of the future Although the perspective is critical the author s critique is constructive and he expresses a healthy optimism about the discipline s future and offers several guidelines as to how current deficiencies could be remedied and present gaps could be addressed African-Asian Relations: Past, Present, Future LIT Verlag,2023-03-15 Is the impression of a new dynamism in African Asian relations empirically correct Is it a process that will once be accepted as one of the fundamental transformations of World Society in the 21st century This volume addresses these questions in 14 chapters from a look back to 2000 years of African Asian contacts and exchange to the analysis of the origins of this new inter regional dynamism On the Asian side the focus is on China which has with the Forum on China African Cooperation FOCAC the Belt and Road Initiative with numerous infrastructure projects development assistance resource deals and the support for the African Union in Africa drawn most attention but also recent initiatives by India and South Korea are described On the African side the recent developments in Burkina Faso C te d Ivoire Ethiopia Angola Guinea Tanzania Ghana Zimbabwe and South Africa are analyzed in detail with a special focus on the various impacts of the recent and ongoing projects and initiatives and the conditions under which they exert developmental or detrimental economic Do we witness the repetition of past mistakes of development policies at higher level or is this time everything different Patrick Ziltener is an Associate Professor at the University of Zurich Switzerland Christian Suter is Professor of Sociology at the University of Neuch tel and President of the World Society Foundation Zurich Switzerland Concept of Time R. Teichmann,1995-09-13 The Concept of Time deals with tense and tenselessness periods and instants the measurement of time time change and causation The author attempts to show how considerations in the philosophy of logic and language are needed to settle many of the issues here For example the debate about tenselessness turns out to hinge largely on whether a genuinely tense free language is conceivable and the possibility of time without change is grounded in what makes duration statements have the sense they do     Basic Concepts in the Methodology of the Social Sciences Johann Mouton,H. C. Marais,1988 This book consists of three major sections In the first which includes chapters 1 to 7 the basic concepts of the methodology of the social sciences are discussed In the second chapters 8 and 9 the most important concepts of part one are integrated in discussions on the writing of research proposals and research reports The third section appendices consists of three case studies in which the most important methodological principles which were discussed in the preceding sections are illustrated extra legal considerations Additionally the ever narrowing scope of the juridical idea of sovereignty functioned as a boundary mechanism instrumental in colonising Africa and other regions While international law claims universal liberalism today the current system based on sovereign nation states represents not social inclusion but fierce and dangerous exclusion The central thesis of this book is that the development of legal sovereignty was rather than part of the modernist progress narrative a historically contingent evolutionary regression While other social systems such as economics and science became globalised politics and law counterintuitively became more territorialised It is argued that the nation state today is not only anachronistic but is dangerously ill equipped for facing international problems such as the climate crisis or global pandemics Finally it also leaves African states and many other formerly colonised territories at a particular disadvantage by regulating their political practices into a predefined mould
