The Studio Reader On The Space Of Artists:

The Studio Reader Mary Jane Jacob,Michelle Grabner,2010-06-15 The image of a tortured genius working in near isolation has long dominated our conceptions of the artist's studio. Examples abound: think Jackson Pollock dripping resin on a cicada carcass in his shed in the Hamptons. But times have changed ever since Andy Warhol declared his art space a factory; artists have begun to envision themselves as the leaders of production teams and their sense of what it means to be in the studio has altered just as dramatically as their practices. The Studio Reader pulls back the curtain from the art world to reveal the real activities behind artistic production. What does it mean to be in the studio? What is the space of the studio in the artist's practice? How do studios help artists envision their agency and beyond that their own lives? This forward-thinking anthology features an all-star array of contributors ranging from Svetlana Alpers, Bruce Nauman and Robert Storr to Daniel Buren, Carolee Schneemann and Buzz Spector, each of whom locates the studio both spatially and conceptually at the center of an art world that careens across institutions, markets and disciplines. A companion for anyone engaged with the spectacular sites of art at its making, The Studio Reader reconsiders this crucial space as an actual way of being that illuminates our understanding of both artists and the world they inhabit. The Studio Reader

Inside the Artist's Studio Joe Fig,2015-10-06 What was your earliest childhood artwork that received recognition? When did you first consider yourself a professional artist? How has your studio's location influenced your work? How do you choose titles? Do you have a favorite color? Joe Fig asked a wide range of celebrated artists these and many other questions during the illuminating studio visits documented in Inside the Artist's Studio, the follow-up to his acclaimed 2009 book Inside the Painter's Studio. In this remarkable collection, twenty-four painters, video and mixed media artists, sculptors and photographers reveal highly idiosyncratic production tools and techniques, as well as quotidian habits and strategies for getting work done: the music they listen to, the hours they keep and the relationships with gallerists and curators, friends, family and fellow artists that sustain them outside the studio. Studio Studies Ignacio Fariás,Alex Wilkie,2015-10-14 Consider the vast array of things around you: from the building you are in, the lights illuminating the interior, the computational devices mediating your life, the music in the background, even the crockery, furniture and glassware you are in the presence of. Common to all these objects is that their concrete visual and technological forms were invariably conceived, modelled, finished and tested in sites characterised as studios. Remarkably, the studio remains a peculiar lacuna in our understanding of how cultural artefacts are brought into being and how creativity operates as a located practice. Studio Studies is an agenda-setting volume that presents a set of empirical case studies that explore and examine the studio as a key setting for aesthetic and material production. As such, Studio Studies responds to three contemporary concerns in social and cultural thought: first, how to account for the situated nature of creative and cultural production; second, the challenge of reimagining creativity as a socio-materially distributed practice rather than the cognitive privilege of the individual and finally to unravel the parallels contrasts and interconnections between studios and other sites of cultural aesthetic and technoscientific production notably laboratories By enquiring into the operations topologies and displacements that shape and format studios this volume aims to demarcate a novel and important object of analysis for empirical social and cultural research as well to develop new conceptual repertoires to unpack the multiple ways studio processes shape our everyday lives

Body, Space, and Place in Collective and Collaborative Drawing Helen Gørrill, Jill Journeaux, Sara Reed, 2020-01-15 Building on the success of the first volume in this series of research on collective and collaborative drawing this book's key themes are linked through the concepts of body space and place The location of the body in art has always been central but the exploration of it here in relation to place and space uncovers a wide range of exciting and different contexts relationships and materials Space is examined through the practice and theorisation of drawing through the ongoing artistic practices of the authors and the writings of Berger and Derrida in relation to making viewing and understanding the drawing process Place is examined through unique approaches to considering drawing through multiple consecutive and site specific places through place as a changing and temporal site and through the idea of the non place The contributors in this volume include academics artists dancers researchers designers and architects from across the globe

François Boucher and the Art of Collecting in Eighteenth-Century France Jessica Priebe, 2021-11-29 While earlier studies have focused predominantly on artist François Boucher's artistic style and identity this book presents the first full length interdisciplinary study of Boucher's prolific collection of around 13 500 objects including paintings sculpture prints drawings porcelain shells minerals and other imported curios It discusses the types of objects he collected the networks through which he acquired them and their spectacular display in his custom designed studio at the Louvre where he lived and worked for nearly two decades This book explores the role his collection played in the development of his art his studio his friendships and the burgeoning market for luxury goods in mid eighteenth century France In doing so it sheds new light on the relationship between Boucher's artistic and collecting practices which attracted both praise and criticism from period observers The book will appeal to scholars working in art history museum studies and French history

Geographies of Making, Craft and Creativity Laura Price, Harriet Hawkins, 2018-03-22 This book brings together cutting edge research from leading international scholars to explore the geographies of making and craft It traces the geographies of making practices from the body to the workshop and studio to the wider socio cultural economic political institutional and historical contexts In doing so it considers how these geographies of making are in and of themselves part of the making of geographies As such contributions examine how making bodies and their intersections with matter come to shape subjects create communities evolve knowledge and make worlds This book offers a forum to consider future directions for the field of geographies of making craft and creativity It will be of great interest to creative and cultural geographers as well as those studying the arts culture and sociology

Associazione Italiana di Anglistica Book Prize 2024 The Art Gallery on Stage is the first book to consider the representation of the art gallery on the contemporary British stage and to discuss how playwrights have begun to regard it as inspiration location focus or theme in an ever more intense game of cross fertilization The study analyzes the impact on dramatic form and theatrical presentation of what has been a paradigmatic shift in the way art galleries and museums display their collections and how these are perceived establishing a hitherto unexplored connection between modes of exhibiting and modes of representation It traces a trajectory from plays that were initially performed in traditional theatres in accordance with a naturalistic play structure to plays that favour of a radical reconfiguration of visual representation Indeed since the beginning of the new millennium playwrights and theatre makers have increasingly experimented with new dramatic forms and site specific venues while forging collaborations with art makers and curators The book focuses on plays from the 1980s onwards such as Howard Barker's Scenes from an Execution Nick Dear's The Art of Success Alan Bennett's A Question of Attribution Timberlake Wertenbaker's Three Birds Alighting on a Field and The Line David Edgar's Pentecost Martin Crimp's Attempt on Her Life Rebecca Lenkiewicz's Shoreditch Madonna and The Painter David Leddy's Long Live the Little Knife and Tim Crouch's My Arm An Oak Tree and England and considers the vital contribution to the field made by set designers Ultimately through this study we come to understand how modern drama can offer a set of interpretative tools to enhance our understanding of the mechanisms underlying the social construction of art and furthermore the potential of theatre and the gallery space to question our fundamental cultural assumptions and values

The Artist at Home Imogen Racz, Jill Journeaux, 2024-01-11 Artists have worked from home for many reasons including care duties financial or political constraints or availability and proximity to others From the home studios of Charles and Ray Eames to the different photographic representations of Robert Rauschenberg's studio this book explores the home as a distinct site of artistic practice and the traditions and developments of the home studio as concept and space throughout the 20th and into the 21st century Using examples from across Europe and the Anglophone world between the mid 20th century and the present each chapter considers the different circumstances for working at home the impact on the creative lives of the artists their identities as artists and on the work itself and how sometimes these were projected and promoted through photographs and the media Key themes include the gendered and performative aspects of women practising at home collaborative studio communities of the 1970s 90s including the appropriation of abandoned spaces in East London and the effects of Covid on artistic practices and family life within the spaces of home The book comprises full length chapters by artists architects art and design historians each of whom bring different perspectives to the issues interwoven with short interviews with artists to enrich and broaden the debates At a time when individual relationships to home environments have been radically altered The Artist at Home considers why some artists in previous decades either needed to or chose to work from home producing work of vitality and integrity Tracing this long tradition into the present the book will provide a deeper understanding of how the home studio has affected the practices and identity of artists working in different countries and in different circumstances from the mid 20th century to the present

The Politics of Expertise in Cultural Labour Karen Patel, 2020-03-16 What is expertise In the arts or cultural work the experts in this area are commonly regarded to be art critics dealers or intermediaries Why are they considered experts What about the expertise of the artists or cultural workers themselves The Politics of Expertise in Cultural Labour provides a much needed account of the concept of expertise in cultural work providing new insights into the individual experiences of cultural workers and the role of social media in their creative practice and development of expertise It also explores the potential reasons for inequalities in the sector which centre not only on protected characteristics such as class gender and race but increasingly the digital divide Drawing on interviews with cultural workers and an innovative social media analysis this book highlights the characteristics of aesthetic expertise in production the practical skills cultural workers hone and deploy over years of training and creative practice This is a new take on aesthetic expertise which is traditionally associated with those involved in the judgement of culture such as critics dealers and intermediaries The book highlights how social media platforms both enable and constrain the development of practical aesthetic expertise and the platforms role in the mediation of the cultural object online Finally Patel interrogates the power dimensions of expertise focusing primarily on gender Drawing on the work of Pierre Bourdieu it explores how opportunities to develop aesthetic expertise and the ability to use social media platforms to signal that expertise are not available to everyone In this sense The Politics of Expertise in Cultural Labour adds new perspectives to the growing body of work on inequalities in the creative and cultural industries as well as scholarship on social media and creative work The book concludes with the argument that the term expertise needs to be problematised and reclaimed by those who are not equally represented in the cultural industries using gender as a case in point

Pamuk's Istanbul Pallavi Narayan, 2022-04-28 This book reconstructs Istanbul through the prism of Orhan Pamuk s fiction It navigates the multiple selves and layers of Istanbul to present how the city has shaped the writings of Pamuk and has in turn been shaped by it Through everyday objects and architecture it shows how Pamuk transforms the city into a living museum where different objects converse along with characters to present a rich tapestry across space and time Further the monograph explores the formation of communal and literary identity within and around nation building narratives informed by capitalism and modernization The book also examines how Pamuk uses the postmodern city to move beyond its postmodern confines and utilizes the theories and universes of Bakhtin Benjamin and Foucault to open up his fiction and radically challenge the idea of the novel The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of literature literary theory museum studies architecture and cultural studies and especially appeal to readers of Orhan Pamuk

Art World City Joanna Grabski,2017-07-10 Insightful should be on the bookshelf of anyone interested in contemporary art on the continent of Africa its politics its display its economics African Arts Art World City focuses on contemporary art and artists in the city of Dakar a famously thriving art metropolis in the West African nation of Senegal Joanna Grabski illuminates how artists earn their livelihoods from the city s resources possibilities and connections She examines how and why they produce and exhibit their work and how they make an art scene and transact with art world mediators such as curators journalists critics art lovers and collectors from near and far Grabski shows that Dakar based artists participate in a platform that has a global reach They extend Dakar s creative economy and the city s urban vibe into an art world city In her fine grained analysis Joanna Grabski demonstrates the ways that the urban environment and the sites of art production exhibition and sale imbricate one another to constitute Dakar as an Art World City Mary Jo Arnoldi Curator Anthropology National Museum of Natural History Smithsonian A valuable addition to the anthropology of cities and of art worlds It stretches and revises the notion of art world to include multiple scales and illustrates how the city enables simultaneous engagement for artists with local national Pan African and global discourses and platforms City Society A beautiful book The photographs most of which are by the author are stunning College Art Association Reviews Concepts of Value in

European Material Culture, 1500-1900 Bert De Munck,Dries Lyna,2016-03-09 In contemporary society it would seem self evident that people allow the market to determine the values of products and services For everything from a loaf of bread to a work of art to a simple haircut value is expressed in monetary terms and seen as determined primarily by the objective interplay between supply and demand Yet this price mechanism is itself embedded in conventions and frames of reference which differed according to time place and product type Moreover the dominance of the conventions of utility maximising and calculative homo economicus is a relatively new phenomenon and one which directly correlates to the steady advent of capitalism in early modern Europe This volume brings together scholars with expertise in a variety of related fields including economic history the history of consumption and material culture art history and the history of collecting to explore changing concepts of value from the early modern period to the nineteenth century and present a new view on the advent of modern economic practices Jointly they fundamentally challenge traditional historical narratives about the rise of our contemporary market economy and consumer society Play Among Books Miro Roman,Alice _ch3n81,2021-12-06 How does coding change the way we think about architecture This question opens up an important research perspective In this book Miro Roman and his AI Alice_ch3n81 develop a playful scenario in which they propose coding as the new literacy of information They convey knowledge in the form of a project model that links the fields of architecture and information through two interwoven narrative strands in an infinite flow of real books Focusing on the intersection of information technology and architectural formulation the authors create an evolving intellectual reflection on digital architecture and computer science

Inside the Studio Matthias Pasdzierny, Gero Cacciatore, 2025-05-14 When you think of techno and electronic dance music you first think of clubs and festivals ecstatic dancers and enraptured DJs But in which spaces is this music actually created Artists studios and writing rooms of authors and composers have long been the focus of public attention and research The studios of DJs and electronic music producers however have so far remained largely hidden They can be found in darkened basements abandoned factories garages and backyards in magnificently converted lofts formerly squatted houses shared flats or teenage bedrooms Some exude the aura of monastic hermitages in others production and party seem to merge into one another still others look like rubbish dumps for electronic waste Inside the Studio presents an inventory of this rich creative landscape in Berlin and Cairo By interweaving photo documentation and interviews the volume allows intimate insights into the hidden worlds of music production and becomes a surprising and touching portrait of one of the most exciting creative sectors of our time The project is based on a research project of the Arab German Young Academy of Sciences and Humanities AGYA and was created in collaboration with Ricardo Villalobos Cinthie Frank Wiedemann Modeselektor Marcel Dettmann Gudrun Gut Westbam Dr Motte Sarah Farina Perera Elsewhere Robert Henke Roman Fl gel 3Phaz Postdrone Alva Noto Carsten Nicolai and many others Gero Cacciatore 1974 in Torino studied photography in Milan and worked as an assistant for Giovanni Gastel He is a freelance photographer particularly in the fields of corporate photography for fashion brands still life travel reportage and photography of urban spaces He lives in Moneglia Genoa Matthias Pasdzierny 1976 in Gttingen is a musicologist from Berlin University of the Arts Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities His main research topics are music and migration critical edition of tape music after 1945 history of techno and electronic dance music

Paris and the Art of Transposition Angie Chau, 2023-12-11 A brief stay in France was for many Chinese workers and Chinese Communist Party leaders a vital stepping stone for their careers during the cultural and political push to modernize China after World War I For the Chinese students who went abroad specifically to study Western art and literature these trips meant something else entirely Set against the backdrop of interwar Paris Paris and the Art of Transposition uncovers previously marginalized archives to reveal the artistic strategies employed by Chinese artists and writers in the early twentieth century transnational imaginary and to explain why Paris played such a central role in the global reception of modern Chinese literature and art While previous studies of Chinese modernism have focused on how Western modernist aesthetics were adapted or translated to the Chinese context Angie Chau does the opposite by turning to

Paris in the Chinese imaginary and discussing the literary and visual artwork of five artists who moved between France and China the painter Chang Yu the poet Li Jinfa the art critic Fu Lei the painter Pan Yuliang and the writer Xu Xu Chau draws the idea of transposition from music theory where it refers to shifting music from one key or clef to another or to adapting a song originally composed for one instrument to be played by another Transposing transposition to the study of art and literature Chau uses the term to describe a fluid and strategic art practice that depends on the tension between foreign and familiar new and old celebrating both novelty and recognition a process that occurs when a text gets placed into a fresh context
