Arthur Scott Bailey,2021-02-10 Far up on the side of Blue Mountain lived Cuffy Bear with his father and mother and his little sisterSilkie Mr Bear s house was quite the finest for many miles around It was what people call a cave being made entirely of stone and so there was no danger of its ever catching fire and since it wasbuilt straight into the side of the mountain the roof was so very very thick that Cuffy s father neverhad to worry for fear a tree would fall upon his house and hurt his family No matter how hard thewind blew Mr Bear was never afraid of that Little Cuffy was not a bad bear at heart But often when he was playing with Silkie his sister hewould lose his temper and cuff her on the head and make her cry Then his father or his motherwould cuff him Somehow he never could learn not to strike out when he became angry That waswhy he was called Cuffy It happened sometimes that a day or two would pass without Cuffy scuffing his sister And Mr Bear and Mrs Bear would begin to think that at last Cuffy had beencured of his bad habit I do believe the child is growing better mannered Mrs Bear would say to her husband as theywatched their son and daughter playing upon the floor And then just as likely as not the first thingthey knew Cuffy would give Silkie a good hard box on the ear or a slap right on the end of hernose But for a long time every winter Cuffy was never naughty You might think that that was just beforeChristmas But no it was not then All winter long Cuffy was just as good as any little bear couldbe He was good because he was asleep You see when cold weather came Mr and Mrs Bear andtheir children stayed in their cozy house which was snug and warm and slept and slept and slept forweeks and weeks until spring came

The Tale of Cuffy Bear Arthur Scott Bailey,2021-01-17 For a few minutes Cuffy stood in the doorway and blinked and blinked He rubbed his eyes for thebright sunlight hurt them But soon he and Silkie were frisking and tumbling about in the front yard After a little while Cuffy remembered that there was an old tree over in the pine woods just thefinest tree to climb that anybody could want Let s go over to the old tree and play Cuffy said But Mother told us not to go far away Silkie reminded him Oh I don t care Cuffy said Besides we ll be back before she knows it But Silkie would not go with him So naughty Cuffy started off alone for the pine woods He foundthe old tree It seemed smaller than he expected The reason for that was because Cuffy himself hadgrown tall during the months that he had spent in sleep He climbed the tree to the very top and as he looked down over the snow he saw something movinga little way off

Whatever it was it was much smaller than Cuffy himself so he was not afraid Andhe scrambled down to the ground and ran as fast as he could go to the place where he saw the smallthing moving Cuffy wanted to see what it was He was always like that Cuffy found a little animal covered with stiff sharp quills and he knew that it was a porcupine Andall at once Cuffy felt very hungry He remembered that his father had sometimes brought homeporcupine meat and yes Cuffy actually smacked his lips His mother was always telling him not tosmack his lips but Cuffy forgot all about it now As Cuffy came running up Mr Porcupine rolled himself into a round ball and lay perfectly still Now Cuffy remembered that his father had often told him never to touch a porcupine because ifhe should he would get his paws stuck full of quills But now Cuffy decided that he would show hisfather that he too was clever enough to kill a porcupine So he stepped close to the little round prickly ball and gave it one good hard cuff
