Melissa N. Mallon, 2017-10-27 The budget constrained rapidly evolving climate of higher education and academic libraries makes it a necessity for academic librarians and administrators to communicate the value of their library to the university This book explains how to execute this critical task Authored by a library director and director of library liason and instructional services who formerly served as a faculty member a librarian and a professional development instructor The Pivotal Role of Academic Librarians in Digital Learning establishes the library s role in supporting student learning in an increasingly digital environment by exploring theoretical foundations and sharing concrete examples The chapters focus on strategies and methods for demonstrating the academic library s value through strategic campus partnerships creation of learning objects such as video tutorials research instruction designed to facilitate student collaboration and participation in assessment of learning on campus All of the topics addressed within a broad range of subject matter fall within the scope of learning in the digital age with particular emphasis on utilizing online learning environments including social media to teach students critical thinking and research skills as well as to position the academic library as an integral part of the modern learning environment This book is a must read for academic librarians in instructional roles teaching faculty academic library administrators and managers who need to communicate the value of the library in relation to student learning and academic administrators who are obligated to demonstrate the important role of libraries in academic excellence Higher

Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty-First Century Peter Hernon, Robert E. Dugan, Candy Schwartz, 2013-05-09 This book discusses recent trends in outcomes assessment examines how state governments are reshaping the national discussion with higher education and explains how libraries must respond to these changes Higher Education Outcomes Assessment for the Twenty first Century focuses on recent developments in outcomes assessment especially from the perspectives of the federal government and state governments as well as foundations concerned about the state of higher education The authors identify the significant changes that these stakeholders call for information that academic librarians and anyone following outcomes assessment need to be aware of and interpret the discussions to identify implications for libraries Building upon the foundation of knowledge presented in the previous two Libraries Unlimited Outcomes Assessment in Higher Education titles this book provides readers with up to date coverage of topics such as the emerging metrics used to define student and institutional success the increased importance of accountability and the need to compare and assess the performance of programs and institutions rather than individual courses and the shift in prioritizing student outcomes over student learning outcomes The authors also spotlight the critical need for libraries to fit their role within the national discussion and suggest ways in which library managers and directors can play a role in redirecting the discussion to their benefit Designing Information Literacy Instruction Joan R. Kaplowitz, 2014-05-01 Designing

Information Literacy Instruction The Teaching Tripod Approach provides a working knowledge of how instructional design ID applies to information literacy instruction ILI Its how to do it approach is directed at instruction librarians in all library settings and deals with both face to face and online ID issues No matter where an instruction librarian works whom they are teaching or what delivery mode they will be using the ID process remains the same Start with the user and the user s needs Identify the instructional problem s Develop outcomes that address these problem s Use outcomes to drive both the learning activities included and the assessments used to measure the attainment of the success of the instructional endeavor This book will help instruction librarians create instruction for all types of environments and in all modes of delivery It includes exercises and worksheets to help the reader work through the instructional design process Based on Kaplowitz s innovative Teaching Tripod model it will help instructional librarians clearly define the crucial links between outcomes activities and assessment
