My Dad's Diary - Part Two - To The Bitter End Clive Hoad, 2010-12-04 Continuing Christopher Hind s story based on his Father Cliff's diary that was written before he was born. Chris was now 70 years of age. Looking back from what would be our future 2078, Chris had discovered that his Father had been protecting his family in an underground shelter during a terrorist war with the world. Now suffering not only loss, abandonment, and new members to watch over, they struggle to even feed themselves while endeavouring to survive. It is no picnic when trouble seems to run into them around every corner. With all odds against them, just who will survive to the bitter end.

Untraceable Jake Cross, 2020-04-29. An ex-special forces officer comes out of hiding to solve his sister's murder in this tense mystery thriller. When Matt Armstrong learns that his sister has been murdered, he returns to London to find out what happened. Visiting the place where their sister's corpse was found, Matt struggles to uncover any information. But when he learns that a camera might have been used to record the killing, he becomes a man on a mission. Together with his former girlfriend, Matt chases down every scant lead, finding one dead end after another. Then an anonymous tip changes everything he thought he knew about his sister's life and how it ended. Now Matt is hunting for someone who's disappeared without a trace. But Matt knows a thing or two about disappearing.

Concept Car Year in Review Automotive Engineering International, 2013-12-13. The concept and prototype cars that are shown at major industry events feature cutting-edge technologies that the automotive industry wishes to preview. Often these technologies make an appearance in future production models. Concept Car Year in Review 2013 provides insight to the key engineering ideas that were introduced in concept and prototype cars during that year. This full-color book includes articles that were previously published and written by the award-winning editors of Automotive Engineering International about these concept cars. This book provides a preview of the technologies we could experience in our vehicles in the future. It gives the reader an inside glimpse of how new ideas for vehicles are formed and how they are implemented into the cars we drive. Published for enthusiasts who are interested in future car models and their technologies as well as practicing automotive engineers who are interested in new engineering trends such as hybrid systems, powertrain designs, automotive design, lightweighting, and materials, and new engineers who want an overview of future trends. Concept Car in Review 2013 also provides one place where readers can find information on key engineering trends over one year. Allows readers to easily find specific car models or read about all of them. Includes interviews with engineering innovators who pioneer technologies in concept cars. Features many large full-color images and an attractive magazine format.

Pub Walks in Underhill Country Nat Segnit, 2011-02-03. Pub Walks in Underhill Country by Nat Segnit is a cunning, hilarious, and heartbreaking novel that takes the form of a guide for walkers but is really a whole lot more. Start by turning right out of the main entrance of Malvern Link railway station. So begins Graham Underhill's guide to rambling in the West Midlands. But it is not many yards before Graham has gone completely off track, all but abandoning the route ahead to exult in his love for his beautiful, if headstrong, wife Sunita. Along the way, Graham treats us to his intemperate views on mountain bikers, litter, louts, landscape photographers, and the Highways Agency who are intent on building a bypass through his home. At least he has Sunita. Or does he With each walk it becomes clearer that the paths of Underhill Country lead into treacherous terrain If Vladimir Nabokov had written episodes of The Archers with a little script advice from W G Sebald then he might just have struck a note that chimed with the peculiar music of this beguiling first novel Independent A metafictional escapade has both Nabokov and Alan Partridge as its forebears Daily Telegraph Has echoes of Mike Leigh s best films and Paul Torday s smash debut Salmon Fishing in the Yemen Daily Mail Nat Segnit lives in London His journalism and stories have appeared in several national newspapers and his play Dolphin Therapy and two co written comedy series Strangers on Trains and Beautiful Dreamers were broadcast on Radio 4 Pub Walks in Underhill Country is his first novel Fool Britannia Sue
