Davies,2019-12-06 A collection of papers in English by one of the foremost historians of the social and economic structure of medieval rural communities who here examines local societies in rural northern Spain and Portugal in the early middle ages Principal themes are scribal practice and the analysis of charter texts gift sale and wealth justice and judicial procedures Always with a concern for personal relationships and interactions for mobility for decision making and for practice a sense of land and landscape runs throughout The Spanish and Portuguese experience has seemed irrelevant to the great debates of early medieval European history that occupy historians But Spain and Portugal shared the late Roman heritage which influenced much of western Europe in the early middle ages and by the tenth century records and practice in Christian Iberia still shared features with the Carolingian world This book offers a substantial corpus of Iberian evidence to set beside Frankish Italian English and Scandinavian material and thereby makes it possible for northern Iberia to play a part in these great debates of medieval European history CS1084

White,2025-10-15 Celebrates the 100th publication of the Shropshire Archaeological and Historical Society showcasing new research on the county s history and archaeology Shropshire as one of the contributors to this volume notes is simultaneously remote and well connected which also means it is often but wrongly overlooked and underestimated This volume of collected papers newly commissioned and bringing entirely new research into play was brought together to commemorate the issuing of the 100th volume of the Shropshire Archaeological and Historical Society s Transactions It offers snapshots of Shropshire s past from the earliest prehistory to the end of the twentieth century As befits the Society it offers both archaeological and historic perspectives and demonstrates the importance of the county in the wider context of the United Kingdom While not attempting to be comprehensive in its contents it nonetheless offers insights into how the county came into being and the forces that shaped it not the least of which is its extraordinarily diverse geology The volume offers too a perspective of those historically researching Shropshire s past often women who gained their foothold either through teaching on or participating in adult education This is certainly the first attempt to offer a comprehensive overview of Shropshire in over 50 years and what it seeks to achieve in its scope has not been attempted before The Society s aim is both to showcase the research going on in the county but also to parade its riches there is much more to learn about Shropshire and it is hoped this book will encourage others to take up its challenges and continue to allow the understanding of the county to flourish The contributors to this volume almost all have long standing connections to Shropshire and some are also proud Salopians Most are based in the county and continue their long term research there while one holds a significant role in the protection of Shropshire s heritage The Cumulative Book Index ,1928 A world list of books in the English language World History as the History of Foundations, 3000 BCE to 1500 CE Michael Borgolte,2019-10-29 In World History as the History of Foundations 3000 BCE to 1500 CE Michael Borgolte investigates the origins and development of foundations from Antiquity to the end of the Middle Ages In his survey foundations emerge not as mere legal institutions but rather as total social phenomena which touch upon manifold aspects including politics the economy art and religion of the cultures in which they emerged Cross cultural in its approach and the result of decades of research this work represents by far the most comprehensive account of the history of foundations that has hitherto been published CD-ROMs in Print ,2002 A Comprehensive Survey of Rock Art in Upper Tibet: Volume II John Vincent Bellezza,2023-11-30 Focusing on the central and western parts of the region this is the second of five volumes that comprehensively document rock art in Upper Tibet It examines a panoply of graphic evidence found on stone surfaces supplying an unprecedented view of the long term development of culture and religion on a large swathe of the Tibetan Plateau The Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1869 Civil Justice in Renaissance Scotland Andrew Mark Godfrey,2009-04-07 This book offers a fundamental reassessment of the origins of a central court in Scotland It examines the early judicial role of Parliament the development of the Session in the fifteenth century as a judicial sitting of the King s Council and its reconstitution as the College of Justice in 1532 Drawing on new archival research into jurisdictional change litigation and dispute settlement the book breaks with established interpretations and argues for the overriding significance of the foundation of the College of Justice as a supreme central court administering civil justice This signalled a fundamental transformation in the medieval legal order of Scotland reflecting a European pattern in which new courts of justice developed out of the jurisdiction of royal councils Publishers' circular and booksellers' record ,1869 The Publishers' Circular Sampson Low,1869
