Ties That Bind Ties That Bind:

Ties That Bind, Ties That Break Lensey Namioka, 2000-11-14 Third Sister in the Tao family Ailin has watched her two older sisters go through the painful process of having their feet bound In China in 1911 all the women of good families follow this ancient tradition But Ailin loves to run away from her governess and play games with her male cousins Knowing she will never run again once her feet are bound Ailin rebels and refuses to follow this torturous tradition As a result however the family of her intended husband breaks their marriage agreement And as she enters adolescence Ailin finds that her family is no longer willing to support her Chinese society leaves few options for a single woman of good family but with a bold conviction and an indomitable spirit Ailin is determined to forge her own destiny Her story is a tribute to all those women whose courage created new options for the generations who came after them Ties That Bind, Ties That Break Lensey

Namioka, 1999 Ailin lives in China in 1911 and everyone in her family wants her to have her feet bound but she refuses Did she make the right choice Concreteness and Specificity in Clinical Psychology Luciano L'Abate, 2015-04-10 This provocative volume updates L'Abate's signature ideas focusing in particular on the concepts of concreteness and specificity as basic tenets of evaluation and therapy Noting society's growing familiarity with technology current concerns about treatment accessibility and widespread interest in wellness promotion he argues for remote writing exercises targeted to specific client issues and monitored by the clinician instead of relying on traditional talk based therapy This attention to concreteness and specificity in baseline evaluation post treatment evaluation and follow up the author asserts is central to making treatment replicable less subject to impasses or missteps and more professional with the potential of changing how therapy is conducted as well as how clinicians are trained and practice The book's framework includes rationales models empirical data and examples of prescriptive remote writing exercises Featured in the coverage Online interventions here to stay and to grow Verifiability in clinical psychology practices Present status and future perspectives for personality and family assessment Practice without theory combining theory with practice Toward a unifying framework of human relationships PIPES Programmed Interactive Practice Exercise and Prescriptions Concreteness and Specificity in Clinical Psychology will bring a new level of discussion and debate among clinical psychology practitioners and practicing psychotherapists in private practice and the public sector The Ties that Bind Susannah Kerr Foster, 1986 Reform of the Socialist System in Central and Eastern Europe Martin J. Bull, Mike Ingham, 2016-07-27 This book analyzes the reform of the socialist system in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union Uniquely it adopts a multi disciplinary perspective which includes authors from both Western Europe and the former Communist world The volume contains analyses of the prospects for civil society economic reform and privatisation theories of economic transition and the role of the state political change and the persistence of former Communist parties the prospects for democracy in the former Soviet Union and gender aspects of labour market reform Confessions of a Beginning Theologian Elouise Renich

Fraser,1998-03-11 Elouise Renich Fraser describes her personal journey to become a theologian confronting the past befriending the Bible developing theological imagination and finding an authentic voice Are We Making a Difference?

Stacey L. Connaughton,Jasmine R. Linabary,2023-08-29 As the world experiences heightened levels of violent conflict and polarization understanding what peacebuilding efforts are effective becomes all the more pressing This groundbreaking edited volume brings together a diverse global group of practitioners researchers and peacebuilders to grapple with urgent questions and challenges related to defining and assessing peacebuilding effectiveness Sections of the book engage in critical reflection on what peacebuilding effectiveness is and who gets to decide provide practical examples and case studies of the successes and failures of assessing peacebuilding work and support innovative strategies and tools to move the field forward Chapters reflect a variety of perspectives on peacebuilding effectiveness and methods quantitative qualitative and participatory to evaluate peacebuilding efforts with particular attention to approaches that center those local to the peacebuilding process Practitioners and policymakers alike will find useful arguments and approaches for evaluating peacebuilding activities and making the case for funding such efforts This book aims to catalyze conversation and action among peacebuilding practitioners academics donors and those directly affected by peacebuilding efforts about how we define and measure effectiveness

Widower Scott Campbell,Phyllis Silverman,2017-07-05 In Widower When Men are Left Alone a journalist and a social worker explore the grief process as men experience it The book contains the oral histories of twenty men ranging in age from 30 to 94 who have lost their wives to a range of causes including cancer alcohol murder and suicide Taken together the stories guide the reader through the journey of widowhood from the raw despair of the early weeks to the resolved perspective thirteen years later offered by the only true authority on the subject the men who have survived it

Networked Urbanism Talja Blokland,2016-04-22 Despite considerable interest in social capital amongst urban policy makers and academics alike there is currently little direct focus on its urban dimensions In this volume leading urban researchers from the Netherlands the UK the USA Australia Italy and France explore the nature of social networks and the significance of voluntary associations for contemporary urban life Networked Urbanism recognizes that there is currently a sense of crisis in the cohesion of the city which has led to public attempts to encourage networking and the fostering of social capital However the contributors collectively demonstrate how new kinds of networked urbanism associated with ghettoization suburbanization and segregation have broken from the kind of textured urban communities that existed in the past This has generated new forms of exclusionary social capital which fail to significantly resolve the problems of poor residents whilst strengthening the position of the advantaged Grounded in theoretical reflection and empirical research Networked Urbanism will be of interest to scholars and students of sociology geography and urban studies as well as to policy makers
