Transculturation The Cultural Factor In Translation And Other Communication Tasks:

Transculturation Robert Daniel Shaw, 1988 Christian Inculturation in India Paul M. Collins, 2007 Drawing together international and Indian sources and new research on the ground in South India this book presents a unique examination of the inculturation of Christian Worship in India Paul Collins examines the imperatives underlying the processes of inculturation the dynamic relationship between the Christian message and cultures and then explores the outcomes of those processes in terms of architecture liturgy and ritual and the critique offered of these outcomes especially by Dalit theologians This book highlights how the Indian context has informed global discussions and how the decisions of World Council of Churches Vatican II and Lambeth Conferences have impacted upon the Indian context Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Daniel R. Shaw, Charles E. Van Engen, 2003-08-04 Communicating God's Word in a Complex World reaches out to the growing number of missionaries pastors Bible translators and teachers mission and theological educators and students dealing with communicating the gospel This is increasingly difficult in today's pluralist and global contexts What was God's message and how has spreading that message changed through the generations The answer to that question requires a hermeneutical process that seeks to understand the biblical text and the context in which it was originally presented R Daniel Shaw and Charles Van Engen say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Thus Gospel communication is impacted by the way humans know God This in turn is informed by contexts Communicating God's Word in a Complex World draws lessons from the biblical authors themselves as a guide for how best to present God's message

The Holy Spirit and Mission Dynamics C. Douglas McConnell, 1997-09-15 The Holy Spirit and Mission Dynamics What role does the Holy Spirit play in church growth and missions This question has stimulated much conversation among theologians and missiologists Without reflecting on the matter practitioners are ill equipped to engage in spiritual warfare or discern the hand of God from counterfeit works of human strategy The ten chapters in The Holy Spirit and Mission Dynamics attempt to reflect on the most critical and controversial aspects of the debate The contributors draw from numerous specialties including philosophy hermeneutics historiography and theology Part one provides a biblical theological perspective that helps readers assess phenomena observed in both history and contemporary mission practice Part two gives multiple historical accounts of the Holy Spirit's ministry in various mission contexts Finally the five chapters in part three examine several contemporary concerns raised by Peter Wagner and four respondents This book prepares readers to reflect on their experience in light of theology and exegesis Ultimately they will better understand the Holy Spirit's ministry in diverse missions contexts The Word Among Us Dean S. Gilliland, 2002-01-24 Guiding Light Kevin George Hovey, 2019-04-18 Rev Dr Alan Tippett was arguably one of the leading missiologists of the twentieth century Through his prolific pen poignant observations and powerful insights he significantly influenced mission research and activity in the period of the 1960s to 1980s This was particularly facilitated through his research writing and teaching at the Institute of Church Growth Fuller Theological Seminary School of World Mission and his inaugural editorship of the American Society of Missiology's journal Missiology: An International Review Yet for those who did not know Tippet's material well the very specific nature of his research and writing limited the influence of his insights For example without already knowing the pertinent content why would a missionary to Thailand think of reading Tippet's Solomon Islands Christianity However according to Doug Priest editor of a number of Tippet's posthumous publications this volume has done what even Tippet himself did not do and that is to capture the key features of his missiology in one volume So Guiding Light functions as an in depth overview of The Essential Alan Tippet I can attest that the nature of Tippet's material continued to inform and inspire me throughout the eleven years of the research and writing of this study

Semantics, World View and Bible

Translation Gerrit van Steenberg, 2006-03-01 This study draws a number of disciplines together from a Bible translation perspective It offers a thorough semantic analysis of selected Hebrew lexical items referring to negative moral behaviour in the book of Isaiah and discusses the implications of the analysis for Hebrew lexicography The book first offers a critical appraisal of componential analysis of meaning followed by a number of proposals to improve this analytical tool in order to bring it in line with modern insights from cognitive linguistics

Negotiating History and Culture Karsten Fitz, 2001 Native American cultures have always succeeded to varying degrees in negotiating a balance between their tribal cultural heritage and the dominant culture In the present study the meeting between these cultures is not interpreted as a clash but as a cultural encounter in a contact zone The concept of transculturation serves as a theoretical model to analyze how history and culture are fictionally constructed in contemporary American Indian literature Developing a dynamic dialogic and reciprocal relationship between their native worldviews and literary techniques on the one hand and those of the larger society on the other the writers examined in this study Anna Lee Walters Diane Glancy James Welch Linda Hogan Thomas King and Gerald Vizenor stress the processual nature of culture These writers demonstrate that transculturation functions as a major strategy of survival for Native Americans in the past and in the present
