Transnational Migration And Human Security Transnational Migration And Human Security:

Transnational Migration and Human Security Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, 2011-06-07 The volume places the migration development security nexus in the field of transnational studies Rather than treating these three categories as self evident the essays excavate aspects of power and privilege built into their governing frameworks and conflicting rationales apparent in practices of control Bringing together diverse experiences and case studies the volume highlights the problematic nature of maintaining distinct and disconnected frameworks of governance It argues for a new approach that demonstrates the significance and usefulness of comparative ethics in conceptualising migration from a human centered and gendered perspective in order to address the multi faceted and multi dimensional nature and meanings of security

Human Security, Changing States and Global Responses Sangmin Bae, Makoto Maruyama, 2014-12-05 This book critically assesses the human security challenges faced by states focusing on how and to what extent the state is influenced by global structures and operations Having grown rapidly since the 1990s the field of human security has spawned a wide variety of academic research This research has helped to reconceptualize the notion of security both broadening and deepening it and it has created a space where unconventional and multidimensional forms of security inform international policy practices However while various issues and cases of human security have received growing academic attention and policy interest many of the existing books on human security focus primarily on non state actors This leaves a key question unanswered why do sovereign states take on leadership roles in promoting human security To answer the question of why and how national governments influence international human security policy this volume examines the domestic political factors and structures that mediate the range of policy choices Important domestic variables include the cultural match e g Does the country often favor multilateralism and promote a rule bound international society the nature of the political interests and realities that are present e g Does the country see the promotion of human security as a strategic choice and the occurrence of important historical events such as wars revolutions or natural disasters e g Does the country during the crisis help to foster a new way of managing enduring security threats Using this line of analysis the book illuminates the role of the state in handling critical human security issues and its rationale for doing so This book will be of much interest to students of human security peace studies global governance development studies and IR in general

Human Security and Human Rights under International Law Dorothy Estrada-Tanck, 2016-12-01 Human security provides one of the most important protections a person centred axis of freedom from fear from want and to live with dignity It is surprising given its centrality to the human experience that its connection with human rights has not yet been explored in a truly systematic way This important new book addresses that gap in the literature by analysing whether human security might provide the tools for an expansive and integrated interpretation of international human rights The examination takes a two part approach Firstly it evaluates convergences between human security and all human rights civil political economic social and cultural and constructs an investigative framework focused on the human security human rights synergy It then goes on to explore its practical application in the thematic cores of violence against women and undocumented migrants in the law and case law of UN European Inter American and African human rights bodies It takes both a legal and interdisciplinary approach recognising that human security and its relationship with human rights cuts across disciplinary boundaries Innovative and rigorous this is an important contribution to human rights scholarship

Migration, Gender and Social Justice Thanh-Dam Truong, Des Gasper, Jeff Handmaker, Sylvia I. Bergh, 2013-09-06 This book is the product of a collaborative effort involving partners from Africa Asia Europe and Latin America who were funded by the International Development Research Centre Programme on Women and Migration 2006 2011 The International Institute of Social Studies at Erasmus University Rotterdam spearheaded a project intended to distill and refine the research findings connecting them to broader literatures and interdisciplinary themes The book examines commonalities and differences in the operation of various structures of power gender class race ethnicity generation and their interactions within the institutional domains of intra national and especially inter national migration that produce context specific forms of social injustice Additional contributions have been included so as to cover issues of legal liminality and how the social construction of not only femininity but also masculinity affects all migrants and all women The resulting set of 19 detailed interconnected case studies makes a valuable contribution to reorienting our perceptions and values in the discussions and decision making concerning migration and to raising awareness of key issues in migrants rights All chapters were anonymously peer reviewed This book resulted from a series of projects funded by the International Development Research Centre IDRC Canada

Human Security and Migration in Europe's Southern Borders Susana Ferreira, 2018-12-13 This book examines the management of migratory flows in the Mediterranean within an international security perspective The intense migratory flows registered during the year 2015 and the tragedies in the Mediterranean Sea have tested the mechanisms of the Union s immigration and asylum policies and its ability to respond to humanitarian crises Moreover these flows of varying intensities and geographies represent a threat to the internal security of the EU and its member states By using Spain and Italy as case studies the author theorizes that the EU given its inability to adopt and implement a common policy to effectively manage migratory flows on its Southern border uses a deterrence strategy based on minimum common denominators

Human Security Lowell Martin, 2002

Human Security Benny Teh Cheng Guan, 2012-01-02 Human security is becoming increasingly pronounced in recent years due to changes in the security landscape of world politics Yet inter state relations have continued to dominate security concerns in East Asia This has unfortunately eluded the broader understanding of issues and challenges facing the peoples of East Asia Home to nations with rapid economic growth and development East Asia is at the core of what some individuals have termed as the coming Asian Century Years of economic liberalization and exposure to globalization have permitted the region to achieve high levels of interconnectedness from within and without in unprecedented ways This has certainly reduced state control and opened up spaces for cross border human activities While economic wealth have increased substantially over the years it has also brought about bigger income disparities unsustainable safety nets and a surge in social problems from health issues to migratory concerns that threaten the safety and well being of individuals Human Security Securing East Asia s Future timely examines the fundamental issues causing human insecurities and evaluates the extent of which human security plays a role at the state and regional levels Covering the different areas of threats to humans and applying case study materials this volume provides an intellectual mix of perspectives that captures the relationship between people state and region This book will be of interest to those studying traditional and non traditional security threats Asian human development and critical policy analysis

Proceedings of the International Conference on Transnational Migration in the Asia Pacific Region ,1995 Kekal abadi ,2004 Human Security and Transnational Migration Patcharawalai Wongboonsin, 2004 Asian and Pacific Migration Journal ,2007 Migration, Regional Integration and Human Security Harald Kleinschmidt,2006 This original and timely book is the first to analyze the interconnectedness of migration regional integration and the new security studies The book explores the conflict between the actions of transnational migrants and state government policy in a series of case studies

Human Insecurity in a Global World Lincoln C. Chen,Sakiko Fukuda-Parr, Ellen Seidensticker,2003 This book explores the complex challenges that globalization poses for human security many of which are already high on the agenda of the international community By adding a human security dimension to their analysis the authors provide new insight into attempts to reduce our vulnerability to the new forces unleashed by global changes

Democracy, Conflict and Human Security Judith Large,Timothy D. Sisk,2006 Tackles questions on how democracies can deliver social and economic rights include all citizens in decision making and reduce poverty This new publication is a two volume set that explores ways in which democratic practice can contribute to the management of contemporary conflicts and promote the realization of security and development objectives Volume I contains analysis and recommendations based on wide ranging research and evaluation of lessons learned from democratization processes past and ongoing Volume II presents essays and case studies by leading specialists from around the world that further develop the themes and findings presented in Volume I Democracy Conflict and Human Security argues that effective democracy building moves beyond the process of elections and technical assistance and examines how democratic practice relates to human security Governments may hold free elections but fall short in other democratic measures such as the separation of powers the freedom of the press and guarantees of human rights These two volumes are aimed at practitioners parliamentarians politicians government officials and policy makers concerned with problems such as social exclusion the quality of democracy and new forms of authoritarian regimes

Asian Studies ,2013 Forced Displacement and Human Security in the Former Soviet Union Arthur C. Helton,Natalia Voronina,2000 This book provides detailed discussion of all the relevant national and international instruments that may be invoked in cases of forced displacement It s in depth survey includes relevant laws and policies from all fifteen of the countries that emerged from the USSR as well as conventions dealing with migrants and refugees concluded by such organizations as the Council of Europe the OSCE the ILO the European Union and the Commonwealth of Independent States CIS The work of non governmental organizations in the field is also taken into account Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint Asia Pacific Security Elina Noor,Jawhar Hassan,2003

Promoting Human Security in APEC Countries ,2006 Peace and Security in the Asia-Pacific Sorpong Peou,2010-04-15

This book is about peace and security in the Asia Pacific it critically reviews various perspectives on peace and security in the region and seeks to determine whether any of them has now emerged as the winner in the struggle for hegemony If none has it may be wise for us to aim at building innovative theories based on the strengths of existing theories As shall be discussed in this introduction the study of peace and security is not only about the actual use or threat of force and the prevention of war but also about the causes consequences and control of insecurity said to be rooted in various sources of threat to humans their values their agencies and their environment as well as about possible cures Security as a concept is essentially contested and has become increasingly contestable This conceptual challenge has the advantage of opening space for debate but this book will make the case that in the end theoretical eclecticism offers the most promising perspective for the emerging policy agenda of building a regional security community during the 21st century Negotiating nation and
