Trauma-sensitive Schools Susan E. Craig, 2016 Trauma-Sensitive Schools for the Adolescent Years Susan E.

Craig, 2017-09-08 The trauma sensitive schools movement is the result of a confluence of forces that are changing how educators view students academic and social problems including the failure of zero tolerance policies to resolve issues of school safety bullying and academic failure as well as a new understanding of adolescents disruptive behavior In this follow up to her bestseller Trauma Sensitive Schools Susan Craig provides secondary school teachers and administrators with practical ideas for how to improve students achievement by implementing a trauma sensitive approach to instruction Along with clear explanations of the role that childhood adversity and trauma play in determining academic success readers will find dozens of concrete strategies to help them View poor academic and social progress through a trauma sensitive lens Create a school climate that fosters safety and resiliency in vulnerable teenagers Establish relationships with students that support their efforts to self regulate Design instruction that reflects the social nature of the brain Work with the brain s neuroplasticity to increase adolescents executive functioning Reduce teacher attrition in high risk schools by decreasing secondary traumatic stress Influence educational reforms by aligning them with current research on childhood trauma and its effects on learning Book Features Provides an overview of the effects of three types of trauma on adolescent development early childhood adversity community violence and systemic inequities Links the effects of trauma on students cognitive development to educational reform efforts Integrates research on adolescents neurodevelopment and current educational best practices Builds the capacity of education professionals to successfully manage the behavior of adolescents with symptoms of complex developmental trauma From Trauma to Resiliency Shulamit Natan Ritblatt, Audrey

Hokoda, 2022-09-28 From Trauma to Resiliency integrates research and practice of trauma informed care reviewing the neuroscience of trauma and highlighting relationship based interventions for diverse populations that have faced multiple traumas Chapters explore the experiences of oppressed groups that include survivors of abuse war poverty Indigenous youth Middle Eastern refugee mothers individuals who identify as sexual and or gender minorities SGM and children and youth involved in child welfare foster care and juvenile justice systems In each chapter contributors provide strengths based trauma informed strategies that can be used in clinical settings school based programs and in urban communities where food insecurity limited access to health services and community violence are prevalent Professionals and students in counseling social work psychology child welfare education and other programs will come away from the book with culturally affirming trauma informed interventions and models of care that promote well being and resilience

Existential Crises in Educational Administration and Leadership Eugenie A. Samier, 2022-06-30 This book examines the theoretical foundations relevant to existential issues in educational leadership and management taking inspiration from Munch's painting The Scream The book considers internationally relevant topics such as the growth of neoliberalism globalisation cultural shifts forced migration and the digitalisation of the socio cultural sphere and uniquely positions these crises as existential threats rather than simply political cultural or social The volume explores this complex set of dimensions in existential experience and outlines the implications for research and teaching in educational leadership By exemplifying the narrative and introspective nature of existential research the book addresses major aspects of the field including the impact such threats have on organisational studies policy administrative structures and practices and leadership This timely collection on existential issues in administration and leadership will appeal to academics scholars researchers practitioners and policy makers It will also be of great interest for students in teacher education programmes and graduate courses in educational administration and leadership organisation studies and educational ethics for broad international use

Building Trauma-sensitive Schools Jen Alexander, 2019 Building Trauma Sensitive Schools is a practical accessible guide to building learning environments that ensure safety develop regulation skills and grow caring relationships for all students including those who have experienced trauma
