Travel Writing 1700 1830 An Anthology Oxford Worlds Classics:

Travel Writing 1700-1830 Elizabeth A. Bohls, Ian Duncan, 2005-11-10 This anthology brings together the best writing from authors such as Daniel Defoe Celia Fiennes Mungo Park and many others to provide a comprehensive selection from this emerging literary genre An introduction by Elizabeth Bohls surveys the context of early modern travel writing Travel Narratives in Translation, 1750-1830 Alison Martin, Susan Pickford, 2013-05-07 This book examines how non fictional travel accounts were rewritten reshaped and reoriented in translation between 1750 and 1850 a period that saw a sudden surge in the genre s popularity It explores how these translations played a vital role in the transmission and circulation of knowledge about foreign peoples lands and customs in the Enlightenment and Romantic periods The collection makes an important contribution to travel writing studies by looking beyond metaphors of mobility and cultural transfer to focus specifically on what happens to travelogues in translation Chapters range from discussing essential differences between the original and translated text to relations between authors and translators from intra European narratives of Grand Tour travel to scientific voyages round the world and from established male travellers and translators to their historically less visible female counterparts Drawing on European travel writing in English French German Spanish and Portuguese the book charts how travelogues were selected for translation how they were reworked to acquire new aesthetic political or gendered identities and how they sometimes acquired a radically different character and content to meet the needs and expectations of an emergent international readership The contributors address aesthetic political and gendered aspects of travel writing in translation drawing productively on other disciplines and research areas that encompass aesthetics the history of science literary geography and the history of the book Writing Abroad Peter Chilson, Joanne B. Mulcahy, 2017-10-13 Tell me all about your trip It s a request that follows travelers as they head out into the world and one of the first things they hear when they return When we leave our homes to explore the wider world we feel compelled to capture the experiences and bring the story home But for those who don t think of themselves as writers putting experiences into words can be more stressful than inspirational Writing Abroad is meant for travelers of all backgrounds and writing levels a student embarking on overseas study a retiree realizing a dream of seeing China a Peace Corps worker in Kenya All can benefit from documenting their adventures whether on paper or online Through practical advice and adaptable exercises this guide will help travelers hone their observational skills conduct research and interviews choose an appropriate literary form and incorporate photos and videos into their writing Writing about travel is more than just safeguarding memories it can transform experiences and tease out new realizations With Writing Abroad travelers will be able to deepen their understanding of other cultures and write about that new awareness in clear and vivid prose Romanticism Carmen Casaliggi, Porscha Fermanis, 2016-05-12 The Romantic period coincided with revolutionary transformations of traditional political and human rights discourses as well as witnessing rapid advances in technology and a primitivist return to nature As a broad global movement Romanticism strongly impacted on the literature and arts of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries in ways that are still being debated and negotiated today Examining the poetry fiction non fiction drama and the arts of the period this book considers Important propositions and landmark ideas in the Romantic period Key debates and critical approaches to Romantic studies New and revisionary approaches to Romantic literature and art The ways in which Romantic writing interacts with broader trends in history politics and aesthetics European and Global Romanticism The legacies of Romanticism in the twentieth and twenty first centuries Containing useful reader friendly features such as explanatory case studies chapter summaries and suggestions for further reading this clear and engaging book is an invaluable resource for anyone who intends to study and research the complexity and diversity of the Romantic period as well as the historical conditions which produced it

Explorations in the Icy North Nanna Katrine Lüders Kaalund, 2021-05-11 Science in the Arctic changed dramatically over the course of the nineteenth century when early scattered attempts in the region to gather knowledge about all aspects of the natural world transitioned to a more unified Arctic science under the First International Polar Year in 1882 The IPY brought together researchers from multiple countries with the aim of undertaking systematic and coordinated experiments and observations in the Arctic and Antarctic Harsh conditions intense isolation and acute danger inevitably impacted the making and communicating of scientific knowledge At the same time changes in ideas about what it meant to be an authoritative observer of natural phenomena were linked to tensions in imperial ambitions national identities and international collaborations of the IPY Through a focused study of travel narratives in the British Danish Canadian and American contexts Nanna Katrine Lüders Kaalund uncovers not only the transnational nature of Arctic exploration but also how the publication and reception of literature about it shaped an extreme environment its explorers and their scientific practices She reveals how far beyond the metropole in the vast area we understand today as the North American and Greenlandic Arctic explorations and the narratives that followed ultimately influenced the production of field science in the nineteenth century

Maritime Animals Kaori Nagai, 2023-08-31 This volume explores nonhuman animals involvement with human maritime activities in the age of sail as well as the myriad multispecies connections formed across different geographical locations knitted together by the long history of global ship movement Far from treating the ship as a confined space defined by the sea Maritime Animals considers the ship's connections to broader contexts and networks and covers a variety of locations from the Canadian Arctic to the Pacific Islands Each chapter focuses on the oceanic experiences of a particular species from ship vermin animals transported onboard as food and animal specimens for scientific study to livestock companion and working animals deep sea animals that find refuge in shipwrecks and terrestrial animals that hunker down on flotsam and jetsam Drawing on recent scholarship in animal studies maritime studies environmental humanities and a wide range of other perspectives and storytelling approaches Maritime Animals challenges an anthropocentric understanding of maritime history Instead this volume highlights the ways in which species through their interaction with the oceans tell stories and make histories in significant and often surprising ways In addition to the editor the contributors to this volume include Anna Boswell Nancy Cushing Lea Edgar David Haworth Donna Landry Derek Lee Nelson Jimmy Packham Laurence Publicover Killian Quigley Lynette Russell Adam Sundberg and Thom van Dooren The Male Empire Under the Female Gaze Susmita Mittapalli, Rajeshwar Mittapalli, Evolutionary Writings Charles Darwin, 2008-11-13 Man still bears in his bodily frame the indelible stamp of his lowly origin On topics ranging from intelligent design and climate change to the politics of gender and race the evolutionary writings of Charles Darwin occupy a pivotal position in contemporary public debate This volume brings together the key chapters of his most important and accessible books including the Journal of Researches on the Beagle voyage 1845 the Origin of Species 1871 and the Descent of Man along with the full text of his delightful autobiography They are accompanied by generous selections of responses from Darwin's nineteenth century readers from across the world More than anything they give a keen sense of the controversial nature of Darwin's ideas and his position within Victorian debates about man's place in nature The wide ranging introduction by James A Secord Director of the Darwin Correspondence Project explores the global impact and origins of Darwin's work and the reasons for its unparalleled significance today ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-12 American Book Publishing Record, 2006 The Book of Marvels and Travels John Mandeville, 2012-09-13 Another island in the Great Ocean has many sinful and malevolent women who have precious gems in their eyes In his Book of Marvels and Travels Sir John Mandeville describes a journey from Europe to Jerusalem and on into Asia and the many wonderful and monstrous peoples and practices in the East He tells us about the Sultan in Cairo the Great Khan in China and the mythical Christian prince Prester John There are giants and pygmies cannibals and Amazons headless humans and people with a single foot so huge it can shield them from the sun Forceful and opinionated the narrator is by turns bossy learned playful and moralizing with an endless curiosity about different cultures Written in the fourteenth century the Book is a captivating blend of fact and fantasy an extraordinary travel narrative that offers some revealing and unexpected attitudes towards other races and religions It was immensely popular and numbered among its readers Chaucer Columbus and Thomas More Anthony Bale's new translation emphasizes the book's readability and his introduction and notes bring us closer to Mandeville's medieval worldview ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date and Adventure by John Alexander Hammerton Travel and Adventure SIR SAMUEL BAKER The Albert N yanza I Explorations of the Nile Source Sir Samuel White Baker was born in London on June 8 1821 From early manhood he devoted himself to a life of adventure After a year in Mauritius he founded a colony in the mountains of Ceylon at Newera Eliya and later constructed the railway across the Dobrudsha His discovery of the Albert N yanza completed the labours of Speke and Grant and solved the mystery of the Nile Baker s administration of the Soudan was the first great effort to arrest the slave trade in the Nile Basin and also the first step towards the establishment of the British Protectorate of Uganda and Somaliland Baker died on December 30 1893 He was a voluminous writer and his books had immense popularity The Albert N yanza may be regarded as the most important of his works of travel by reason of the exploration which it records rather than on account of any exceptional literary merit Here his story is one of such thrilling interest that even a dull writer could scarce have failed to hold the attention of any reader by its straightforward narration We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir
