The Triumph and Trade of Egyptian Objects in Rome Stephanie Pearson, 2021-04-06 From gleaming hardstone statues to bright frescoes the unexpected and often spectacular Egyptian objects discovered in Roman Italy have long presented an interpretive challenge How they shaped and were shaped by religion politics and identity formation has now been well researched But one crucial function of these objects remains to be explored their role as precious goods in a collector's economy The Romans imported and recreated Egyptian goods in the most opulent materials available gold gems expensive wood ivory luxurious textiles and displayed them like true treasures This is due in part to the way Romans encountered these items as argued in this book first as dazzling spolia from the war against Cleopatra then as costly wares exchanged over the expanding Roman trade routes In this respect Romans treated Egyptian art surprisingly similarly to Greek art By examining the concrete mechanisms through which Egyptian objects were acquired and displayed in Rome this

The use of antidepressants has increased by 400% since 1988 and at least one out of every three Americans is dissatisfied with life. Despite those sobering statistics, we are not doing enough to teach children how to become emotionally literate. Our education is incomplete. There are multiple curriculums in the school systems for math, science, language arts, social studies, however, not one complete curriculum for emotional literacy. We are failing to carry out one of our main duties: preparing the next generation to enjoy a life filled with joy and purpose. Beatriz Martinez Pealver, a psychotherapist with more than twenty-five years of experience, seeks to fix that problem with this fluid curriculum that helps students, educators, and parents live a life without limits. Learn how to develop thought patterns that lead to triumph. Challenge erroneous thoughts given to them by parents, teachers, and society. See failure as an integral part of success. Substitute negative thoughts with empowering affirmations. Become a problem solver. Individual experience silences to create a life worth living. Get the practical guidance and strategies you need to help students overcome challenges and inspire them to create the phenomenal life they are meant to have. Endorsement by the CEO of Susan Jeffers LLC: It was my wife's, Susan Jeffers, Ph.D. dream to create a book for children and adolescents based on the teaching in her landmark self-help book Feel the Fear and Do It Anyway. Inspired by Susan's work, Beatriz has developed a curriculum that I believe will be required teaching in all schools. Her concise curriculum will help the future generations of our children to be free of anxieties. Challenge erroneous thoughts given to them by parents, teachers, and society. Develop plans to reach their individual success by becoming self-reliant individuals and learn to tap into their unlimited creative potential and much more. The steps taught on this curriculum will help any student become the successful and extraordinary people they deserve to be. Mark Shelmerdine, CEO, Susan Jeffers LLC.
