Turning Fear Into Power One Woman's Journey Confronting The War On Terror:

Turning Fear Into Power Linda Sartor, 2014-03-01 This book brings to life author Linda Sartor's peacekeeping and citizen diplomacy work from 2001 to 2012 when she traveled with several different peace and justice organizations to six war-torn countries: Israel, Palestine, Iraq, Sri Lanka, Iran, Afghanistan, and Bahrain. Her travel was a result of the torment she felt due to the USA's response to the terrorist attack of 9/11. Linda was driven to take action and protesting was not enough any more. She needed to take a stand with her body that her life as a US citizen was not any more precious than any other lives in the world. She believes the global systems of domination deliberately perpetrate a culture of fear in order to maintain power. Her stories are meant to inspire readers to follow their hearts even when fear is present with the hope of changing these systems of domination even if we do not get to witness the changes in our lifetimes. Coming Back to Life Joanna Macy, Molly Young

Brown, 2014-11-01 Coming Back to Life has helped people transform denial, despair, and grief in the face of the social and ecological challenges of our time. This new completely updated edition repositions the classic work within the context of deepening global crises and the cognitive, spiritual, and perceptual revolutions occurring all around us. Hellfire from Paradise Ranch Joseba Zulaika, 2020-03-03 In this intimate and innovative work, terror expert Joseba Zulaika examines drone warfare as manhunting carried out via satellite. Using Creech Air Force Base near Las Vegas as his center of study, he interviews drone operators as well as resisters to the war economy of the region to expose the layers of fantasy on which counterterrorism and its self-sustaining logic are grounded. Hellfire from Paradise Ranch exposes the terror and warfare of drone killings that dominate our modern military. It unveils the trauma drone operators experience in part due to their visual intimacy with their victims and explores the resistance to drone killings in the same apocalyptic Nevada desert where nuclear testing, pacifist militancy, and Shoshone tradition overlap. Stunning and absorbing, Zulaika offers a richly detailed account of how we continue to manufacture, deconstruct, and perpetuate terror. Facing Fear Anna Hampton, 2023-05-16 Developing an Anti-Fragile Faith: Violence against Christ followers is increasing globally. The lived reality for many Christians involves daily threats, risks, and persecution. When evil casts its shadow on us and we're tempted to despair, it is vital to develop anti-fragile faith and the guts to endure in hard places. Facing Fear is a practical guide for believers who long to have bold, mature courage. Cultivating this courage is necessary to endure wisely for Christ's sake. Anna Hampton integrates exegesis and psychology to explain how humans respond to fear and how the Holy Spirit enables us to make a different choice than our normal. Learning to face our fears, name them, and manage them requires learning specific steps to reduce their impact on us. This book is a pastoral and practical resource for those working to advance the gospel in the world's most dangerous places. You'll gain valuable skills to become shrewd as a serpent and stand with unshakable faith in unsafe situations. Risk can be an offering of worship. Jesus is worthy of whatever pain you go through, whatever loss you experience, and whatever fears you have. Driving Women Deborah Clarke, 2007-04-15 Over the years, cars have helped to define the experiences and self perceptions of women in complex and sometimes unexpected ways When women take the wheel family structure and public space are reconfigured and re gendered creating a context for a literary tradition in which the car has served as a substitute for an escape from and an extension of the home as well as a surrogate mother a financial safeguard and a means of self expression Driving Women examines the intersection of American fiction primarily but not exclusively by women and automobile culture Deborah Clarke argues that issues critical to twentieth century American society technology mobility domesticity and agency are repeatedly articulated through women s relationships with cars Women writers took surprisingly intense interest in car culture and its import for modern life as the car replete with material and symbolic meaning recast literal and literary female power in the automotive age Clarke draws on a wide range of literary works both canonical and popular to document women s fascination with cars from many perspectives historical psychological economic ethnic Authors discussed include Wharton Stein Faulkner O Connor Morrison Erdrich Mason Kingsolver Lopez Kadohata Smiley Senna Viramontes Allison and Silko By investigating how cars can function as female space reflect female identity and reshape female agency this engaging study opens up new angles from which to approach fiction by and about women and traces new directions in the intersection of literature technology and gender
