Re-Visioning African Pentecostal-Charismatic Ecclesiology in the Public Sphere Christian Tsekpoe, Lord Elorm Donkor, 2024-09-05 Despite the current impressive numerical growth of Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity in Africa there remain some concerns about the extent to which the church is making the desired impact in the public space As the church grows numerically the African continent is ironically plagued with many regrettable stories of corruption bad governance sexual abuse gender discrimination and perversion environmental degradation robbery economic crisis leading to poverty and hunger wars and other social vices This paradoxical increase in vices alongside the demographic growth of the Christian population on the continent has caused many to question the social impact of African Christianity

Re Visioning African Pentecostal Charismatic

Ecclesiology in the Public Sphere is a response to these observations The contributors to this volume who are made up of seasoned academics theological educators and missiologists and mission practitioners have engaged the subject from multidisciplinary perspectives highlighting significant contributions of African Pentecostalism while pointing out critical areas for urgent attention The volume is intended to stimulate conversations around the church s mandate of influencing the public sphere as an agent of social transformation
