Twentieth Century Ecuadorian Narrative New Readings In The Context Of The Americas:

Twentieth-century Ecuadorian Narrative K. J. A. Wishnia, 1999 It examines works by several of Ecuador's most important writers in terms of the interrelations of history and myth of realism and magic or marvelous realism and the problems of using orality and dialogism to actively undermine authoritative discourse BOOK JACKET Encyclopedia of Twentieth-Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature, 1900-2003 Daniel Balderston, Mike Gonzalez, 2004 The Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Latin American and Caribbean Literature 1900 2003 draws together entries on all aspects of literature including authors critics major works magazines genres schools and movements in these regions from the beginning of the twentieth century to the present day With more than 200 entries written by a team of international contributors this Encyclopedia successfully covers the popular to the esoteric The Encyclopedia is an invaluable reference resource for those studying Latin American and or Caribbean literature as well

The Poetics of Plants in Spanish American Literature Lesley Wylie, 2020-12-08 The Poetics of Plants in Spanish American Literature examines the defining role of plants in cultural expression across Latin America particularly in literature From the colonial georgic to Pablo Neruda's Canto general Lesley Wylie's close study of botanical imagery demonstrates the fundamental role of the natural world and the relationship between people and plants in the region Plants are also central to literary forms originating in the Americas such as the New World Baroque described by Alejo Carpentier as nacido de rboles The book establishes how vegetal imaginaries are key to Spanish American attempts to renovate European forms and traditions as well as to the reconfiguration of the relationship between humans and nonhumans Such a reconfiguration which persistently draws on indigenous animist ontologies to blur the boundaries between people and plants anticipates much contemporary ecological thinking about our responsibility towards nonhuman nature and shows how environmental thinking by way of plants has a long history in Latin American literature

Adalberto Ortiz Marvin A. Lewis, 2014-02-14 Pablo Adalberto Ortiz Qui ones 1914 2002 was one of the most gifted writers in Ecuador and all of Latin America Yet outside of Ecuador and amongst Afro Hispanic literature scholars in the United States little critical attention has been given to this pioneer whose multi genre contributions spanned decades In his writings Ortiz explores some of the defining social issues in the Americas since the African and European encounters with the New World including the notion of race He articulates a complex process of affirming the ethnic while not denying the national Consequently miscegenation a biological process as well as acculturation are motifs in his writings which explore the essence of what it means to be Ecuadorian Ortiz does not dwell upon the so called race question the issue that causes such anxiety and hostility overtly and covertly in the United States Rather he explores in depth ethnicity class and caste in his earlier writings and evolves into an international writer while maintaining a strong black awareness Adalberto Ortiz's transcendence of victimization to a broader view of the world is indicative of the title of Marvin A Lewis analysis from margin to center and reflective of the approach taken by many Afro Hispanic writers

The dialectical nature of Ortiz's writings makes his work particularly interesting and rewarding as revealed in Adalberto Ortiz From Margin to Center. In this book Lewis examines the form and content relationships between works published during different literary periods and movements. Emphasis is placed on Ortiz's transition from the local to the international in each genre and the theoretical approach is eclectic depending upon the exigencies of the texts. Ecocriticism, post colonialism, post modernism and other methodologies addressing the environment, place, displacement, identity and historiographic metafiction are fundamental to the Lewis readings of Ortiz's prose and poetry.

Circular Narratives in Modern European Literature Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez, 2022-06-16 Breaking with linearity the ruling narrative model in the Jewish Christian tradition since the ancient world, many 20th century European writers adopted circular narrative forms. Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez shows this trend was not a unified nor conscious movement but rather a series of works arising sporadically in different countries at different times using a variety of circular structures to express similar concerns and ideas about the world. This study also shows how the renewed understanding of narrative form leading to this circular trend was anticipated by Nietzsche's critiques of truth, knowledge, language and metaphysics and especially by his related discussions of nihilism and the eternal recurrence. Starting with an analysis of the theory and genealogy of linear narrative, the author charts the emergence of Nietzsche's idea of eternal return before then turning to the history of the circular narrative trend. This history is explored from its inception in the works of August Strindberg, Gertrude Stein and Azorín through its development in the interwar years by writers such as Raymond Queneau and Vladimir Nabokov to its full flowering in the work of authors James Joyce or Samuel Beckett among others and its later employment by post war writers including Alain Robbe-Grillet, Italo Calvino and Maurice Blanchot. Through a series of close readings, the book aims to highlight the various ways in which narrative circularity serves to break with an essentially teleological and theological thinking. Finally, Toribio Vazquez concludes by proposing a new typology of non-linear narratives which builds on the work of recent narratologists.

Ascent to Glory Álvaro Santana-Acuña, 2020-08-11 Gabriel García Márquez's novel One Hundred Years of Solitude seemed destined for obscurity upon its publication in 1967. The little-known author, small publisher, magical style and setting in a remote Caribbean village were hardly the usual ingredients for success in the literary marketplace. Yet today it ranks among the best-selling books of all time. Translated into dozens of languages, it continues to enter the lives of new readers around the world. How did One Hundred Years of Solitude achieve this unlikely success? And what does its trajectory tell us about how a work of art becomes a classic? Ascent to Glory is a groundbreaking study of One Hundred Years of Solitude from the moment García Márquez first had the idea for the novel to its global consecration. Using new documents from the author's archives, Ivano Santana-Acuña shows how García Márquez wrote the novel going beyond the many legends that surround it. He unveils the literary ideas and networks that made possible the book's creation and initial success. Santana-Acuña then follows this novel's path in more than seventy countries on five continents and explains how thousands of people and organizations have helped it to become a global classic Shedding new light on the novel s imagination production and reception Ascent to Glory is an eye opening book for cultural sociologists and literary historians as well as for fans of Garc a M rquez and One Hundred Years of Solitude Latin American Women Writers: An Encyclopedia María Claudia André,Eva Paulino
