did not need to go out of my way to try to express cheerlessness and extreme loneliness The letter never got sent but was found stuffed in his smock That morning as usual he walked out into the wheat fields with his easel brushes tubes of color and folding stool perhaps hoping to reach his destination before the gang of local boys and girls were up and able to tease him and throw tomatoes Le Crau a wide plain of ripe grain fields of citron yellow tan and ochre spread out beneath the bright Provencal sun It s safe to assume he heard the cicadas singing loudly the swiping swishes of the farmers scythes already cutting through the rich wheat stalks the gusts of wind whispering through the olive branches Driven and filled with energy for months he had been quickly with an assurance that overcame and perhaps even came from his doubts and struggles putting his own dramatic visions on canvas after canvas But today he did not go into the fields to paint or perhaps in the beginning he did perhaps in the morning that was his intention No one will ever know He said he brought the revolver to frighten off the crows Possibly that was his original intention when he included it with his lunch of bread and milk In the end it s probably not relevant except for the endless attempts to analyze him to dig into his complex psyche at once brilliant and yet impelled to self destruction The Ravoux family were sitting on the terrace of their caf when he returned a bit concerned because he was late but not overly so When he finally appeared his walk was more uneven than usual and he held his hand over his stomach Monsieur Vincent Mrs Ravoux said we were worried we are glad to see you come Has anything bad happened No but I he left his reply unfinished as he passed inside Mr Ravoux followed him upstairs where he found him sitting on his bed facing the wall I wanted to kill myself This book is a critical examination of Vincent van Gogh that offers insights into his life his religious beliefs his relationships with women and of course his paintings It includes discussions of his letters and responds to many of the previous works about him dispelling some of the myths that have no foundation and pointing out how many of the claims made about him and many of the popular beliefs that have grown up around him are at best guesswork It explores psychological neurological theological philosophical aesthetic and historical paradigms for comprehending his enigmatic and enticing personality Australian Dictionary of Dates and Men of the Time Sir John Henniker Heaton,1879 The Looking-Glass William March,2015-02-28 The last novel in William March s Pearl County series The Looking Glass is considered March s masterpiece and most enduring work of fiction Central Criminal Court. Central Criminal Court,1837 Level One Jack Denali,2004-12-01 Level One is a frightening fictional future possibility Level One examines the potential self destruction of taking matters into your own hands in times of war and the corruption of power Level One questions presuppositions of anarchy and the burden of command What happens when the associated responsibilities of a commander are eclipsed by personal gain and deep rooted vendetta psychology How does one measure the greater good geopolitically in order to make the correct decisions Unlike Jack Denali s last book Novus Ordo Seclorum which uncovered the essence of personal relationships Level One digs deep into group behavioral psychology The protagonist a former sniper frustrated by being leashed by the government and unable to stop terrorists without cutting reams of red tape finds that with a little cash and the cooperation of other like minded soldiers who are willing to aid his cause and thereby circumvent any bureaucracy that in effect they can have an impact on global terrorism As he recycles war profits gained from the investment of his inheritance he soon has his own army his own command Level One magnifies the infrastructure of empire building in an action adventure glimpse of the potential future of our world Until the End of Time Mbali Dlamini,2019-10-18 The book tells a story of a girl who was in love but she ended up losing everything Her family was complicated She lost her parents in the game of love but she never gave up on herself
