Two Traditions One Space Orthodox Christians And Muslims In Dialogue:

Two Traditions, One Space George C. Papademetriou, 2011 Christian-Muslim Dialogue Heidi Hirvonen, 2012-11-09

Lebanon is a significant region of encounter between Muslims and Christians in the Middle East. This book examines how Christian-Muslim dialogue is envisioned by four present-day Lebanese thinkers: Great Ayatollah Muhammad Husayn Fadlallah and Doctor Mahmoud Ayoub from the Shiite tradition and Metropolitan Georges Khodr and Doctor Father Mouchir Basile Aoun from the Eastern Christian Antiochian tradition. The study seeks to bring the four thinkers into dialogue on a number of topics including doctrinal themes, ethical principles, and the issue of political power sharing in Lebanon. All four thinkers make several suggestions for facilitating mutual understanding and transcending old debates. The concept of God and the principle of neighbourly love seem to have particular potential as fruitful bases for further dialogue.

Islam and Other Religions Irfan Omar, 2013-09-13

This collection of essays assesses various dimensions of dialogue between Islam and other religions, especially Christianity. This book celebrates the work of Professor Mahmoud Ayoub and reflects the themes that are central in his scholarship, spanning over the last three decades and which are more relevant than ever at the inauguration of the twenty-first century. The themes reflected are the Qur'an and hadith, theology and philosophy, and Islam's interaction with other religions. Ayoub needs no introduction to those familiar with and engaged in inter-religious dialogue in general and Muslim-Christian-Jewish dialogue in particular. He is a well-known Muslim scholar and historian of religion, currently director of the Islamic studies program in the department of religion at Temple University in Philadelphia. His broad area of interest is, of course, Islamic studies, but he has also exerted considerable scholarly efforts in comparative religion. As evidenced from Dr. Ayoub's works, he moves with ease between philosophy and mysticism, scripture and tradition, and between Islam and other religions. As a Muslim, Ayoub has provided a model of being religious which combines openness to others without compromising rigorous historical scholarship. Contributors to this volume include some of his close friends and colleagues as well as former students, both Muslim and Christian. This book was previously published as a special issue of Islam and Christian-Muslim Relations.

Orthodox Christians and Islam in the Postmodern Age Andrew Sharp, 2012-06-27

The patristic, ecclesiological, and liturgical revival in the Orthodox Church has had a profound impact on world Orthodoxy and the ecumenical movement. Orthodox leaders have also contributed to the movement's efforts in inter-religious dialogue, especially with Muslims. Yet this book is the first comprehensive attempt to assess an Orthodox position on Islam. It explains why, despite being neighbors for centuries, relations between Orthodox Christians and Muslims have become increasingly complex as internal and external forces challenge their ability to understand each other and live in peace. It demonstrates how a growing number of Orthodox scholars and leaders have reframed the discussion on Islam while endorsing and participating in dialogue with Muslims. It shows how a positive relationship with Muslims and Islam, in a general sense, is an essential aspect of Orthodox Christians' historical, past, present, identity, and future aspirations.

The Christian Encounter with

Muhammad Charles Tieszen, 2020-11-12 This book offers a fresh appraisal of Muhammad that considers the widest possible history of the ways in which Christians have assessed his prophethood To medieval Christian communities Muhammad the leader of a religious and political community that grew quickly and with relative success was an enigma Did God really send him as a prophet with a revelation Was the political success of the community he founded a divine validation Or were he and his followers inspired by something evil Despite their attempts modern Christians continued to be puzzled by Muhammad The Qur'an provided a framework for understanding and honouring Jesus was it possible for Christians to reciprocate with regard to Muhammad This book applies the same analysis to both medieval and modern assessments of Muhammad in order to demonstrate the continuities and disparities present in literature from the two eras Orthodoxy in Arabic Terms

Najib George Awad, 2015-04-24 This volume presents Theodore Abu Qurrah's apologetic Christian theology in dialogue with Islam It explores the question of whether in his attempt to convey orthodoxy in Arabic to the Muslim reader Abu Qurrah diverged from creedal doctrinal Christian theology and compromised its core content A comprehensive study of the theology of Abu Qurrah and its relation to Islamic and pre-Islamic orthodox Melkite thought has not yet been pursued in modern scholarship Awad addresses this gap in scholarship by offering a thorough analytic hermeneutics of Abu Qurrah's apologetic thought with specific attention to his theological thought on the Trinity and Christology This study takes scholarship beyond attempts at editing and translating Abu Qurrah's texts and offers scholars students and lay readers in the fields of Arabic Christianity Byzantine theology Christian Muslim dialogues and historical theology an unprecedented scientific study of Abu Qurrah's theological mind The Protestant Reformation and World Christianity Dale T. Irvin, 2017

The sixteenth century Reformation in all its forms and expressions sought nothing less than the transformation of the Christian faith Five hundred years later in today's context of world Christianity the transformation continues In this volume editor Dale Irvin draws together a variety of international Christian perspectives that open up new understandings of the Reformation In six chapters contributors offer general discussions and case studies of the effects of the Protestant Reformation on global communities from the sixteenth century to the present Together these essays encourage a reading and interpretation of the Reformation that will aid in the further transformation of Christianity today CONTENTS Introduction 1 Jews and Muslims in Europe Exorcising Prejudice against the Other Charles Amjad Ali 2 Spaniards in the Americas Las Casas among the Reformers Joel Morales Cruz 3 Women from Then to Now A Commitment to Mutuality and Literacy Rebecca A Giselsbrecht 4 The Global South The Synod of Dort on Baptizing the Ethnics David D Daniels 5 The Protestant Reformations in Asia A Blessing or a Curse Peter C Phan 6 The Modern Era Contemporary Challenges in Light of the Reformation Vladimir Latinovic The Faiths of Others Thomas Albert Howard, 2021-01-01 The first intellectual history of interreligious dialogue a relatively new and significant dimension of human religiosity In recent decades organizations committed to interreligious or interfaith dialogue have proliferated both in the Western and non-Western worlds Why How so And what exactly is interreligious dialogue These are the touchstone questions of this book the first major history of interreligious dialogue in the modern age Thomas Albert Howard narrates and analyzes several key turning points in the history of interfaith dialogue before examining in the conclusion the contemporary landscape While many have theorized about and practiced interreligious dialogue few have attended carefully to its past connecting its emergence and spread with broader developments in modern history Interreligious dialogue grasped in light of careful critical attention to its past holds promise for helping people of diverse faith backgrounds to foster cooperation and knowledge of one another while contributing insight into contemporary global religious pluralism Eastern Christianity in the Modern Middle East Anthony O'Mahony, Emma Loosley, 2009-12-16 The Middle East is the birthplace of Christianity and the home to a number of Eastern Churches with millions of followers This book provides a comprehensive survey of the various denominations in the modern Middle East and will be of interest to a wide variety of scholars and students studying theology history and politics Christian-Muslim Relations. A Bibliographical History Volume 15 Thematic Essays (600-1600) ,2020-04-28 Christian Muslim Relations Volume 15 Thematic Essays 600 1600 is a further volume in a general history of relations between the two faiths from the 7th century to the early 20th century The chapters within it illustrate the range complexity and dynamics of interaction between the two faiths during the first thousand years of encounter All chapters primarily draw upon entries found in volumes 1 7 of Christian Muslim Relations They explore tropes of perception image and judgement that each religious community held in respect to the other through these centuries and discuss issues and topics that occupied Christians and Muslims in their interaction The first millennium sets the scene for the modern era and our understandings of contemporary relations and issues Contributors are Mark Beaumont Clinton Bennett David Bertaina Ulisse Ceceni David Bryan Cook Martha Frederiks Ay e z Sandra Keating James Harry Morris Nicholas Morton Gordon Nickel Juan Pedro Monferrer Sala Tom Papademetriou Gabriel Said Reynolds Christian Sahner Mark N Swanson Mourad Takawi Luke Yarbrough The Oxford Handbook of Deification Paul L. Gavrilyuk,2024 This handbook offers a comprehensive and varied study of deification within Christian theology Forty six leading experts in the field examine points of convergence and difference on the constitutive elements of deification across different writers thinkers and traditions Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World Charles Tieszen,2016-02-28 One of the most common religious practices among medieval Eastern Christian communities was their devotion to venerating crosses and crucifixes Yet many of these communities existed in predominantly Islamic contexts where the practice was subject to much criticism and often resulted in accusations of idolatry How did Christians respond to these allegations Why did they advocate the preservation of a practice that was often met with confusion or even contempt To shed light onto these questions Charles Tieszen looks at every known apologetic or polemical text written between the eighth and fourteenth centuries to include a relevant discussion With sources taken from across the Mediterranean basin Egypt Syria and Palestine the result is the first in depth look at a key theological debate which lay at the heart of these communities religious identities

By considering the perspectives of both Muslim and Christian authors Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World also raises important questions concerning cross cultural debate and exchange and the development of Christianity and Islam in the medieval period This is an important book that will shine much needed light onto Christian Muslim relations the nature of inter faith debates and the wider issues facing the communities living across the Middle East during the medieval period

Biddington, 2020-09-21 Multifaith spaces reflect the diversity of the modern world and enable a connection between individuals from different religious backgrounds These spaces also highlight the complex and sensitive areas of political and social debates regarding the emergence of densely urbanised populations They hold the potential to encourage connection and dialogue between members of different communities promoting empathy community and shared activity for the betterment of society This book explores the history development design and practicalities of multifaith spaces from the early shared religious buildings that had to cater for two or more faiths to the shared multifaith spaces of modern secular locations such as universities airports and hospitals Terry Biddington looks at the architectural theological social legal and practical complexities that arise from the development and use of such spaces The book also draws together research to enable further development of multifaith spaces Exegetical Crossroads Georges Tamer, Regina Grundmann, Assaad Elias

Kattan, Karl Pinggéra, 2017-12-18 The art of interpreting Holy Scriptures flourished throughout the culturally heterogeneous pre modern Orient among Jews Christians and Muslims Different ways of interpretation developed within each religion not without considering the others How were the interactions and how productive were they for the further development of these traditions Have there been blurred spaces of scholarly activity that transcended sectarian borders What was the role played by mutual influences in profiling the own tradition against the others These and other related questions are critically treated in the present volume

Belief, Behavior, and Health Sandra D. Lane, 2024-10-03 This book uniquely examines across cultures the health benefits and detriments of religious beliefs with important implications for individual wellbeing and human survival Belief Behavior and Health takes the reader through journeys of the author's research in the Middle East Africa and the urban United States where she focused on the unequal health and survival of women globally and vulnerable groups in the United States Almost every health problem especially those experienced by the poor and disadvantaged arose from or was made worse by the conditions in the environment in which people lived Lane's detailed studies of beliefs about Judaism Christianity and Islam led to the author's deep observations on how religious belief and practice as well as discrimination due to religious prejudice can be a major influence on health both positively and negatively In this book Lane shows how religious precepts and cultural influences on religious behavior function as social determinants of health An accessible and compelling read this book will appeal to students and scholars of public health anthropology and sociology and those interested in the influence of religion on health outcomes Dante and Byzantium E. a rapid calculation method for predicting roll deformation of six - Dec 13 2022

sep 15 2018 therefore a rapid calculation method for predicting roll deformation of a six high rolling mill was proposed which employed the finite difference method to calculate the roll deflection and used a polynomial to describe the nonlinear relationship between roll flattening and roll contact pressure calculating power parameters of rolling mill proquest - Apr 17 2023

1 introduction rolling mills for the production of steel wire are classified according to the number of mill stand rolls which form the geometry of the deformation zone accordingly these can be categorised by the type of roll groove and the roll transmission path

open access proceedings journal of physics conference series - Sep 10 2022

analysis of loading modes of rolling mill electrical drives is a time consuming task associated with numerous mathematical calculations specialized software significantly facilitates calculations calculate rolling power flat rolling analysis consider rolling of a flat plate in a 2 high flat rolling analysis friction plays a critical role in enabling rolling $\mu \tan \alpha$ cannot roll without friction for rolling to occur reversal of frictional forces at neutral plane nn flat rolling analysis stresses on slab in entry zone ϕ load calculation of the most loaded rolling element for a - Jun 07 2022

oct 3 2020 this paper presents a new model for calculation of load for the most loaded rolling element in a rolling bearing with internal radial clearance the calculation is based on a so called load factor by multiplying this factor by the value of the external radial load the load transferred by the most loaded rolling element of the bearing is obtained

pdf method of load calculation of electrical drives of rolling - May 18 2023

may 1 2018 an improved calculation method for rolling pressure and load torque of electrical drive engine is suggested further this method considers peculiar strain of product in high deformation zones

rolling iit bombay - Sep 22 2023

method of load calculation of electrical drives of rolling mills - Feb 15 2023

may 1 2018 an improved calculation method for rolling pressure and load torque of electrical drive engine is suggested further this method considers peculiar strain of product in high deformation zones and its accelerated motion in reverse mode improved analytical dependences for rolling pressure and load torque of electrical drive are reviewed

the calculation of rolling force innoval technology - May 06 2022

mar 26 2020 yield stress strain hardening factor x strain rate hardening factor x thermal softening factor in the rolling of aluminium it is strain hardening which typically dominates at low temperatures on the other hand strain rate and temperature are more important in hot rolling
