Honours 2015
Application Form for Students from Outside UCT

Please Note: Space is limited and admission is not guaranteed. You must only apply to the University for admission (by 30th September, 2014). You should also apply for NRF and other bursaries for which you qualify. Return your completed form plus motivation letter to our Admin Officer: Mrs Salanga Valley Salanga.Valley@uct.ac.za.

- Honours starts two weeks before the normal start of lectures, ie that is on the 28th January 2015.
- Have a look at our Honours Modules for this year (realising that next year will be different): www.cs.uct.ac.za/honours/
- There are three versions of honours and outside students do 'CSC4015W' (the essential difference is that the other courses are for students who have completed their undergraduate training at UCT and leads to a BSc accredited qualification). The content of the courses is exactly the same.

Chojnacka,Piotr Pawel Wieczorek,Grzegorz Schroeder,Izabela Michalak,2018-07-09 This book is a compendium of knowledge on the useful properties of algae in the context of application as a useful component of innovative natural products It presents all aspects of industrial applications of macroalgae biomass derived from the natural environment Despite many interesting characteristics algae are still regarded as undervalued raw material therefore present in the following chapters are not only environmental benefits arising from the development of excessive algal biomass but also the distribution and biology of algae in natural conditions in reservoirs methods of obtaining extracts from biomass of algae for industrial purposes Furthermore it also includes topics such as the use of biomass and algae extracts for the industrial purposes in animal breeding and for agricultural purposes as well as the economic aspects of algae biomass harvesting for industrial purposes The book is intended for a wide audience interested in new methods of obtaining the biomass from the natural environment for industrial purposes and the manufacture of products based on bioactive substances obtained from the environment Power Shift? Political Leadership and Social Media David Taras,Richard Davis,2019-12-09 Power Shift

Political Leadership and Social Media examines how political leaders have adapted to the challenges of social media including Facebook Instagram Twitter and memes among other means of persuasion Established political leaders now use social media to grab headlines respond to opponents fundraise contact voters directly and organize their election campaigns Leaders of protest movements have used social media to organize and galvanize grassroots support and to popularize new narratives narratives that challenge and sometimes overturn conventional thinking Yet each social media platform provides different affordances and different attributes and each is used differently by political leaders In this book leading international experts provide an unprecedented look at the role of social media in leadership today Through a series of case studies dealing with topics ranging from Emmanuel Macron and Donald Trump s use of Twitter to Justin Trudeau s use of selfies and Instagram to how feminist leaders mobilize against stereotypes and injustices the authors argue that many leaders have found additional avenues to communicate with the public and use power This raises the question of whether this is causing a power shift in the relationship between leaders and followers Together the chapters in this book suggest new rules of engagement that leaders ignore at their peril The lack of systematic theoretically informed and empirically supported analyses makes Power Shift Political Leadership and Social Media an indispensable read for students and scholars wishing to gain new understanding on what social media means for leadership ICEL 2018 13th International Conference on e-Learning Professor Eunice Ivala,2018-07-05

Decolonial Enactments in Community Psychology Shose Kessi,Shahnaaz Suffla,Mohamed Seedat,2021-11-30 This edited volume in the Community Psychology Book Series emphasizes applications of community psychology for disrupting dominant and hegemonic power relations The book explores domains of work that are located within critical community psychology as well as work that is conventionally not self defined as community psychology but which draws on and contributes to the foundations and enactments of critical and liberatory community psychology Specifically the book advances conceptions and praxes for community psychology grounded within a decolonial framework The volume heeds the call for a generation of approaches to community psychology that link local struggles to broader questions of power identity and knowledge production bringing together examples of praxes from different contexts as a political project of highlighting indigenous struggles toward self determination Collectively the chapters in this book embody a decolonial agenda for community psychology that foregrounds social justice the lives and knowledges of the marginalized and oppressed epistemic disobedience and transdisciplinarity and decolonial aesthetics The book is divided into two parts Part I Conceptions of Engagement for Community Psychology delves into the conceptual framework for a decolonial community psychology and Part II Modes of Enactments and Praxes for Community Psychology builds on these theoretical advancements through examples of praxis in different contexts The audience for the book includes scholars researchers practitioners activists and students located within community psychology specifically as well as disciplines within the health and social sciences and arts and humanities more broadly

Register,2018-04-01 Reconceiving Religious Conflict Wendy Mayer,Chris L. de Wet,2018-01-17 Reconceiving Religious Conflict deconstructs instances of religious conflict within the formative centuries of Christianity the first six centuries CE It explores the theoretical foundations of religious conflict the dynamics of religious conflict within the context of persecution and martyrdom the social and moral intersections that undergird the phenomenon of religious conflict and the relationship between religious conflict and religious identity It is unique in that it does not solely focus on religious violence as it is physically manifested but on religious conflict and tolerance looking too at dynamics of religious discourse and practice that often precede and accompany overt religious violence 2017 CFR Annual Print Title 21 Food and Drugs Parts 600 to 799 Office of The Federal Register,2017-04-01 Lore of Nutrition Tim Noakes,2017-11-01 In December 2010 Professor Tim Noakes was introduced to a way of eating that was contrary to everything he had been taught and was accepted as conventional nutrition wisdom Having observed the benefits of the low carb high fat lifestyle first hand and after thorough and intensive research Noakes enthusiastically revealed his findings to the South African public in 2012 The backlash from his colleagues in the medical establishment was as swift as it was brutal and culminated in a misconduct inquiry launched by the Health Professions Council of South Africa The subsequent hearing lasted well over a year but Noakes ultimately triumphed being found not guilty of unprofessional conduct in April 2017 In Lore of Nutrition he explains the science behind the low carb high fat Banting diet and why he champions this lifestyle despite the constant persecution and efforts to silence him He also discusses at length what he has come to see as a medical and scientific code of silence that discourages anyone in the profession from speaking out against the current dietary guidelines Leading food health and medical journalist Marika Sboros who attended every day of the HPCSA hearing provides the fascinating backstory to the inquiry which often reads like a spy novel Lore of Nutrition is an eye opener and a must read for anyone who cares about their health

Law, Obligation, Community Daniel Matthews, Scott Veitch, 2018-06-27 Against an ever expanding and diversifying rights talk this book re opens the question of obligation from not only legal but also ethical sociological and political perspectives Its premise is that obligation has a primacy ahead of rights because rights attach to practices and modes of being that are already saturated with obligations Obligations thus lie at the core not just of law but of community Yet the distinctive meanings range and situations of obligation have tended to remain under theorised in legal scholarship In response this book examines the sense in which we are multiply bound beings to law and legal institutions as much as we are to place community memory and the various social institutions that give shape to collective life Sharing this set of concerns each of the international group of scholars contributing to this volume traces the specificity of the binding force of obligations their techniques and modes of expression as well as their centrally important role in giving form to lawful relations Together they provide an innovative and challenging contribution to legal scholarship one that will also be of relevance to those working in politics philosophy and social theory
