Washed In Blood Male Sacrifice Trauma And The Cinema:

Washed in Blood Claire Sisco King, 2011-11-25 Will Smith in I Am Legend Leonardo DiCaprio in Titanic Charlton Heston in just about everything Viewers of Hollywood action films are no doubt familiar with the sacrificial victim hero the male protagonist who nobly gives up his life so that others may be saved Washed in Blood argues that such sacrificial films are especially prominent in eras when the nation and American manhood is thought to be in crisis The sacrificial victim hero continually imperiled and frequently exhibiting classic symptoms of post traumatic stress disorder thus bears the trauma of the nation Claire Sisco King offers an in depth study of three prominent cycles of Hollywood films that follow the sacrificial narrative the early to mid 1970s the mid to late 1990s and the mid to late 2000s From Vietnam era disaster movies to post 9 11 apocalyptic thrillers she examines how each film represents traumatized American masculinity and national identity What she uncovers is a cinematic tendency to position straight white men as America's most valuable citizens and its noblest victims

Carazo, 2023-05-16 This volume adds to previous historical and political studies about Gladiator with essays about the movie's relation to pop culture and contemporary discourses It not only relates Gladiator to traditional cinema aspects such as heroism music acting studio culture and visual effects but it also connects the film to sports religion and the environment expanding the ways in which the film can be evaluated by modern audiences The volume can be read by individuals or in classroom settings especially as a recommended text for students studying the ancient world in film

O'Rawe, 2014-06-18 Stars and Masculinities in Contemporary Italian Cinema is the first book to explore contemporary male stars and cinematic constructions of masculinity in Italy Uniting star analysis with a detailed consideration of the masculinities that are dominating current Italian cinema the study addresses the supposed crisis of masculinity

Abstinence Cinema Casey Ryan Kelly, 2016-03-08 From the perspective of cultural conservatives Hollywood movies are cesspools of vice exposing impressionable viewers to pernicious sexually permissive messages Offering a groundbreaking study of Hollywood films produced since 2000 Abstinence Cinema comes to a very different conclusion finding echoes of the evangelical movement's abstinence only rhetoric in everything from Easy A to Taken Casey Ryan Kelly tracks the surprising sex negative turn that Hollywood films have taken associating premarital sex with shame and degradation while romanticizing traditional nuclear families courtship rituals and gender roles As he demonstrates these movies are particularly disempowering for young women concocting plots in which the decision to refrain from sex until marriage is the young woman's primary source of agency and arbiter of moral worth Locating these regressive sexual politics not only in expected sites like the Twilight films but surprising ones like the raunchy comedies of Judd Apatow Kelly makes a compelling case that Hollywood films have taken a significant step backward in recent years Abstinence Cinema offers close readings of movies from a wide spectrum of genres and it puts these films into conversation with rhetoric that has emerged in other arenas of American culture Challenging assumptions that we are living in a more liberated era the book sounds a warning bell about the powerful cultural forces that seek to demonize sexuality and curtail female sexual agency

Heightened Genre and Women's Filmmaking in Hollywood Mary Harrod, 2021-05-24 Despite the widely publicised prejudice faced by women in Hollywood since around 1990 a significant minority of female directors have been making commercially and culturally impactful films there across the full range of genres This book explores movies by filmmakers Amy Heckerling Nora Ephron Nancy Meyers Catherine Hardwicke Sofia Coppola Kimberly Peirce Kathryn Bigelow and Greta Gerwig including many which are still critically neglected or derided seeing them as offering a new understanding of genre filmmaking That is like many other contemporary films but in a striking proportion within the smaller set of mainstream movies by women this body of work revels in a heightened genre status that allows its authors to simultaneously address intellectual cinephilic pleasures and bodily emotive ones Arguing through close analysis that these films demonstrate the inseparability of such strategies of engagement in contemporary genre cinema Heightened Genre reclaims women's mainstream filmmaking for feminism through a recalibration of genre theory itself

The Dressing Room Desirée J. Garcia, 2025-01-14 A recurrent and popular setting in American cinema the dressing room has captured the imaginations of filmmakers and audiences for over a century In The Dressing Room Backstage Lives and American Film the only book length study of the space author Desirée J Garcia explores how dressing rooms are dynamic realms in which a diverse cast of performers are made and exposed Garcia analyzes the backstage film which spans film history modes and genre to show how dressing rooms have been a useful space for filmmakers to examine the performativity of American life From the Black maid to the wife and mother to the leading man dressing rooms navigate shape and challenge society's norms The stakes are high in dressing rooms Garcia argues because they rehearse larger questions about identity and its performance negotiating who can succeed and who cannot and on what terms

Projected Fears Kendall R. Phillips, 2025-10-16 A revised and expanded edition of this popular book that traces the cultural history of the American horror film by focusing on individual films that helped to define or redefine the genre from Dracula 1931 to Get Out 2017 This book examines thirteen films that redefined the notion of cinematic horror and influenced the films that followed Dracula 1931 The Thing 1951 Psycho 1960 Night of the Living Dead 1968 The Exorcist 1973 The Texas Chainsaw Massacre 1974 Halloween 1978 The Silence of the Lambs 1991 Scream 1996 The Sixth Sense 1999 The Blair Witch Project 1999 Saw 2004 and Get Out 2017 Carefully situating each film in relation to the history of the genre and the cultural contexts in which it emerged the book explains why certain horror films create a connection with a wide audience Since the publication of the first edition in 2005 the horror genre has become even more culturally prominent and commercially successful The genre has also shown rapid development and several prominent trends have emerged in the 21st century This edition includes two additional chapters that focus on Saw 2004 and Get Out 2017 as James Wan's Saw helped to launch a highly successful franchise as well as the subgenre of torture porn while Jordan Peele's Get Out inaugurated a broader cultural conversation about the power of horror narratives to interrogate systems of ideology and oppression

New Books on Women and Feminism, 2015 Washed in Blood Claire Sisco King, 2006

Mapping the Stars: Celebrity, Metonymy, and the Networked Politics of Identity Claire Sisco King, 2023-07-26 Often dismissed as trivial or even trash celebrity culture offers a unique way of considering what it means to be human In Mapping the Stars Claire Sisco King shows how close analysis of the complex and sometimes contradictory forms of celebrity culture can challenge dominant ideas about selfhood In particular as a formation that develops across time mediums and texts celebrity is useful for demonstrating how humanness is defined by relationality contingency and even vulnerability King considers three stars with popular and controversial personas Norman Rockwell Will Smith and Kim Kardashian Working in very different contexts and with very different public images these figures nonetheless share a consistent if not conspicuous interest in celebrity as a construct Offering intertextual readings of their public images across such sites as movie posters magazines cinema and social media and deploying rhetorical theories of metonymy a linguistic device linking signifiers by shared associations King argues that these stars self reflexive attention to the processes by which celebrity is created and constrained creates opportunities for reframing public discourse about what it means to be famous and what it means to be a person
