Reconstructing

'Education' through Mindful Attention Oren Ergas,2017-01-21 This book reconstructs the idea and practice of education Rather than conceiving of education as a process we undergo in which our minds are shaped by a social vision Oren Ergas turns this notion of education on its head arguing instead that we ourselves construct education The multitude of problems with formal education and schooling such as violence inequality and low achievements are then seen as reflections of problems of the mind meaning that close study of the mind is necessary if these problems are to be successfully tackled Through philosophy neuroscience and psychology this book proposes a new perspective on educational theory practice and research It will be of great interest to students and teachers scholars of education and educational policy makers The Digital Mind Arlindo Oliveira,2017-03-17 The Red Queen s race The exponential nature of technology From Maxwell to the Internet The universal machine The quest for intelligent machines Cells bodies and brains Biology meets computation How the brain works Understanding the brain Brains minds and machines Challenges and promises Speculations Values Education and Lifelong Learning David N. McVeigh,2018-01-17 In his provocative but critically acclaimed theory about the origin of introspectable mentality Julian Jaynes argued that until the late second millennium people possessed a different psychology a two chambered bicameral neurocultural arrangement in which a commanding god guided admonished and ordered about a listening mortal via voices visions and visitations Out of the cauldron of civilizational collapse and chaos an adaptive self reflexive consciousness emerged better suited to the pressures of larger more complex sociopolitical systems Though often described as boldly iconoclastic and far ahead of it time Jaynes s thinking actually resonates with a second or other psychological tradition that explores the cultural historical evolution of psyche Brian J McVeigh a student of Jaynes points out the blind spots of mainstream establishment psychology by providing empirical support for Jaynes s ideas on sociohistorical shifts in cognition He argues that from around 3500 to 1000 BCE the archaeological and historical record reveals features of hallucinatory super religiosity in every known civilization As social pressures eroded the god centered authority of bicamerality an upgraded psychology of interiorized self awareness arose during the Late Bronze Age Collapse A key explanatory component of Jaynes s theorizing was how metaphors constructed a mental landscape populated with I s and me s that replaced a declining worldview dominated by gods ancestors and spirits McVeigh statistically substantiates how linguo conceptual changes reflected psychohistorical developments because supernatural entities functioned in place of our inner selves vocabularies for psychological terms were strikingly limited in ancient languages McVeigh also demonstrates the surprising ubiquity of hearing voices in modern times contending that hallucinations are bicameral vestiges and that mental imagery a controllable semi hallucinatory experience is the successor to the divine hallucinations that once held societies together This thought provoking work will appeal to anyone interested in the transformative power of metaphors the development of mental lexicons and the adaptive role of hallucinations We Who Wrestle with God Jordan B.
