The War on Terror Nick Solly Megoran, David W. Augsburger, 2007 How do we love our enemies in an age of war and terror This book does not offer easy answers but it gives resources for approaching them from a Christian perspective By bringing solid biblical exposition to bear on the geopolitical events of our day political geographer Nick Solly Megoran provides a balanced Christian approach to the church's witness in an age of war and terror He first addresses why war happens and what our response should be Then he explores practical aspects of being citizens of heaven and how Christians can cultivate skills of peacemaking and forgiveness With vivid illustrations and global examples of Christian courage in the face of adversity he shows how the gospel brings hope to a violent world Appendices give additional study guides on different Christian approaches to war terrorism just war theory and pacifism Market Audience Church leaders Laypeople Evangelists and missionaries Seminary students and professors Features and Benefits Solid biblical exposition on key passages related to war and peacemaking Balanced global perspective with illustrations and examples from around the world Includes pros and cons of Christian approaches to just war and pacifism Middle East Meltdown John Ankerberg, Dillon Burroughs, 2007-02-01 The news headlines from the war torn Middle East are constantly changing and though those countries are on the opposite side of the globe the events unfolding there have a powerful effect on America But the complexity of all that's happening makes it difficult to understand what it means and how it affects us Authors John Ankerberg and Dillon Burroughs help bring clarity to the issues as they answer these important questions Why does peace continue to elude the Arab nations and Israel What part does Middle East oil have in all this Where do Iran Lebanon and Hezbollah fit into the big picture What can we expect from today's new breed of terrorists What does the United States have at stake Readers who have perceived the Middle East conflict as too complicated to understand will gain a new appreciation for how today's events fit into God's plan for the future Christian Responses to Terrorism Gordon L. Heath, David Kirwa Tarus, 2017-11-01 How should Christians respond to terrorism and terrorists in their midst Terrorism is a global problem and no society on earth faces it alone The mainly Christian society of Kenya has suffered more than most as it attempts to counter the threat of al Shabaab Some pastors have asked for permission to carry guns Many Christians support government military action while others recommend pacifist stances and strive for dialogue and reconciliation with the Muslim community In this book ten Kenyan Christian thinkers and practitioners share their experiences and insights A response section from seven others including a Kenyan Muslim scholar enrich the discussion Fundamental Christian Ethics Daniel Heimbach, 2022-11-01 In Fundamental Christian Ethics Daniel Heimbach draws from decades of research and scholarship to introduce the field of Christian ethics in a comprehensive manner while showing how it dialogues with modern day ethical topics and issues Warlike Christians in an Age of Violence Nick Megoran, 2017-10-03 How should Christians respond to war This age old question has become more pressing given Western governments recent overseas military interventions and the rise of extremist Islamist jihadism Grounded in conservative evangelical theology this book argues the historic church position that it is inadmissible for Christians to use violence or take part in war It shows how the church s propensity to support the just wars crusades rebellions or humanitarian interventions of its host nations over time has been disastrous for the reputation of the gospel Instead the church s response to war is simply to be the church by preaching the gospel and making peace in the love and power of God The book considers challenges to this argument for gospel peace What about warfare in the Old Testament and military metaphors in the New What of church history And how do we deal with tyrants like Hitler and terrorists like Islamic State Charting a path between just war theory and liberal pacifism numerous inspiring examples from the worldwide church are used to demonstrate effective and authentically Christian responses to violence The author argues that as Christians increasingly drop their unbiblical addiction to war we may be entering one of the most exciting periods of church history The War on Terrorism and the Terror of God Lee Griffith,2004 Uniquely relevant in a world shaken by recent acts of terror this title calls people of faith to the way of peace the Christian response to evil and violence Just War on Terror? Brian Wicker,2016-04-22 Following the 9 11 attacks by Al Qa ida President Bush declared war on terror In the succeeding years Western governments have struggled to find the right way to respond to the new and deadly threat posed by terrorism With the election of President Obama the rhetoric has softened and policies have been adjusted but the underlying problems and challenges remain the same Meanwhile the war on terrorism in Afghanistan has been intensified Drawing on just war teaching as developed within both Christian and Muslim traditions this book examines whether and how liberal democracies can combat the new global terrorism both effectively and justly The authors including distinguished academics from both sides of the Atlantic Christian and Muslim theologians former senior civil servants and a General deploy a wide range of experience and expertise to address one of the most difficult and pressing ethical challenges to contemporary society Geopolitics Jason Dittmer,Jo Sharp,2014-06-27 It has been increasingly impossible to think about our changing world without coming across the term geopolitics In the wake of the invasion and occupation of Iraq by the United States United Kingdom and others geopolitics has been offered as an explanation for the occupation s failure to reinvent the Iraqi state and as a blueprint for future action But what is geopolitics Drawing both on academic and political material this book introduces readers to the concept of geopolitics from the first usage of the term to its more recent reconceptualisations The concept of geopolitics is introduced through four thematic sections Imperial Geopolitics Cold War Geopolitics Geopolitics after the Cold War and Reconceptualising Geopolitics Each section includes key writings from a range of diverse and leading authors such as Said Agnew Dalby O Tuathail Gregory Barnett and Kaplan and is accompanied by a critical introduction by the editors to guide the reader through the material This Reader establishes the foundations of geopolitics while also introducing readers to the continuing significance of the concept in the 21st century This Reader provides an essential resource that exposes students to original writing The Editors provide a pathway through the material with Section Introductions to assist the readers understanding of the context of the material and impacts of the writings The readings included draw from a range of authors writing from a range of locations The Reader concludes with the latest changes in geopolitical thought incorporating feminist and other perspectives

Violence of God and the War on Terror , Using the analogy of an abusive human relationship Young traces the influence of the psychology of such behavior on the major monotheistic religions concept of God and concludes that such imagery generates violence in the name of God in the contemporary world including in the war on terror Explores these theological themes in terms of U S imperialistic policies the Israeli Palestinian conflict and Jihadist ideology

Evangelical Christian Responses to Islam Richard McCallum,2024-02-08 Do Christians and Muslims worship the same God Who was Muhammad How does the Israeli Palestinian conflict affect Christian Muslim relations This is a book about Evangelical Christians and how they are answering challenging questions about Islam Drawing on over 300 texts published by Evangelicals in the first two decades of the twenty first century this book explores what the Evangelical micro public sphere has to say about key issues in Christian Muslim relations today From the books they write the blogs they post and the videos they make it is clear that Evangelical Christians profoundly disagree with one another when discussing Islam Answers to the questions range from seeing Muslims as the enemy posing an existential threat to Christians through to welcoming them as good neighbours or even as close cousins

Sit on Our Hands, or Stand on Our Feet? Roger Philip Abbott,2013-01-07 The aim of Sit on Our Hands or Stand on Our Feet is not to present a theology that explains disasters In fact there is no such theology Nor is this work primarily for those who are responded to it is not part of the theological grab bag that Christian responders carry with them to use for the benefit of casualties It is more a part of the Christian s engaged practical theological apprenticeship prior to and during a response This book represents the role of the practical theologian who empowers the church community s legitimation and contribution in disaster response and who encourages individual Christians whose calling into particularly relevant professions whose natural skills and or professional training could find them placed in a major incident responding status paid or voluntary doing their work as unto the Lord It is a serious must read for any Christians who have hearts heavy with compassion but who are not sure what to do or why when disaster strikes

The final section includes three chapters on the topic of strategic means of evangelization found useful in specific Asian urban Buddhist contexts.

The Real War on Terror Derek K. J. Kobilus, Jonathan Priebe, 2007-06-15. Do you ever find yourself confused about the war and violence that pervade our post 9/11 world? On the one hand, the Bible and Christ speak of loving enemies and self-sacrifice. On the other hand, the world around us teaches and most Christians seem to simply accept that violence is necessary in a world wrecked with sin. Are Christians a people of peace? Does that peace have to be won through war? Should we fight for our convictions? Or die for them? Jonathan and Derek invite you to come along with them as they explore the biblical teachings on war and violence and attempt to construct a solidly biblical and uniquely Christian view of war and violence. Global Powers of Horror Francois Debrix, 2016-12-19 Global Powers of Horror examines contemporary regimes of horror into horror's intricacies and into their deployment on and through human bodies and body parts To track horror's work what horror decomposes and perhaps recomposes Debrix goes beyond the idea of the integrality and integrity of the human body and it brings the focus on parts pieces or fragments of bodies and lives Looking at horror's production of bodily fragments both against and beyond humanity the book is also about horror's own attempt at re-forming or re-creating matter from the perspective of post-human non-human and inhuman fragmentation Through several contemporary instances of dismantling of human bodies and pulverization of body parts this book makes several interrelated theoretical contributions It works with contemporary post-geo-political figures of horror faces of concentration camp dwellers body parts of victims of terror attacks the outcome of suicide bombings graphic reports of beheadings re-compositions of melted and mingled remnants of non-human and human matter after 9/11 to challenge regimes of terror and security that seek to forcefully and ideologically reaffirm a biopolitics and thanatopolitics of human life in order to anchor today's often devastating deployments of the metaphysics of substance Critically enabling one to see how security and terror form a geo-political continuum of violent mobilization utilization and often destruction of human and non-human bodies and lives this book will be of interest to graduates and scholars of bio-politics international relations and security studies

Blood and Mercy Clayton R. Hall Jr., DMIN., 2025-08-02 Blood and Mercy explores what the Bible truly teaches about life justice and the taking of life From Genesis through Revelation Dr Hall examines difficult questions such as self-defense vengeance capital punishment and war showing how God defines the boundaries of justice He challenges modern assumptions and calls

Christians to live in a way consistent with the cross where justice is tempered with mercy Barnes Noble He argues that God's own standards not human opinions determine when and how force is justified and that believers must align themselves with His revealed will rather than cultural trends The book is as much about moral conviction as it is about biblical fidelity it seeks to equip readers to think biblically about life and death issues The Anarchist Roots of Geography Simon

Springer, 2016-08-01 The Anarchist Roots of Geography sets the stage for a radical politics of possibility and freedom through a discussion of the insurrectionary geographies that suffuse our daily experiences By embracing anarchist geographies as kaleidoscopic spatialities that allow for nonhierarchical connections between autonomous entities Simon Springer configures a new political imagination Experimentation in and through space is the story of humanity's place on the planet and the stasis and control that now supersede ongoing organizing experiments are an affront to our survival Singular ontological modes that favor one particular way of doing things disavow geography by failing to understand the spatial as a mutable assemblage intimately bound to temporality Even worse such stagnant ideas often align to the parochial interests of an elite minority and thereby threaten to be our collective undoing What is needed is the development of new relationships with our world and crucially with each other By infusing our geographies with anarchism we unleash a spirit of rebellion that foregoes a politics of waiting for change to come at the behest of elected leaders and instead engages new possibilities of mutual aid through direct action now We can no longer accept the decaying archaic geographies of hierarchy that chain us to statism capitalism gender domination racial oppression and imperialism We must reorient geographical thinking towards anarchist horizons of possibility Geography must become beautiful wherein the entirety of its embrace is aligned to emancipation
