The Way Out A True Story Of Ruin And Survival:

The Way Out Craig Leland Childs, 2004 The naturalist author of The Secret Knowledge of Water recounts his two week journey through the canyons of the American Southwest alongside his friend Dirk an adventure during which they survived life threatening natural elements 25 000 first printing

The Way Out Craig Childs, 2007-09-03 The gritty and riveting story of naturalist Craig Childs s epic journey through the desert canyons of the American Southwest The Oregonian Are you prepared for a perilous journey into the wild This taut intensely dramatic narrative immerses us in a labyrinth of canyons in the American Southwest where virtually nothing is alive barely any vegetation few signs of wildlife and scant traces of any human precursors and where we pay witness as two men confront not just immutable forces of nature but the limits of their own sanity As a chronicle of adventure as an emotionally charged human drama as a confessional memoir The Way Out is a transcendent book a work destined to earn a lasting place in the literature of extremes

The Landscape of Home Jeff Lee, John Calderazzo, SueEllen Campbell, David Waag, 2006 An anthology of some of the most evocative writing focusing on our vast natural heritage along with pieces that address pressing land issues facing the West This collection not only paints a vivid portrait of life in the Rocky Mountains it also presents some of the finest nonfiction writing to be found in America today This is a perfect selection that is bound to sink reader s roots deeper in the landscape of home

Wretched Refuge Jessica Datema, Diane Krumrey, 2010-02-19 Recent literary expressions of the immigrant experience reveal the postmodern narrative obsession with the immigrant as cultural and political outlier Wretched Refuge Immigrants and Itinerants in the Postmodern asks us to reimagine this preoccupation with what Junot Diaz calls the actual flows of third world bodies as part of a larger more pertinent motif of the postmodern itinerant As a figure of cultural becoming the itinerant stands for displacement and dispersion exceeding the confines of physical location political subjectivity and relation to the natural world Thus Wretched Refuge seeks to map the cosmopolitan positionalities of an immigrant or exilic experience the itinerant the migrant and other foreign bodies The essays in Wretched Refuge consider fiction memoir and pop culture genres that reconceive time space and the shifting situatedness of the subject within nature politics and culture The book weaves together modern and postmodern visions of itinerancy in the writings of Cormac McCarthy Bob Dylan Junot Diaz Edwidge Danticat Jeffrey Eugenides Jhumpa Lahiri Roberto Bola o Paul Bowles and Bill McKibben among others Throughout these radically different narratives the trace of the itinerant suggests a cosmopolitan response to localized anxieties about global hegemony Backpacking with the Saints Belden C. Lane, 2014-11-03 Carrying only basic camping equipment and a collection of the world s great spiritual writings Belden C Lane embarks on solitary spiritual treks through the Ozarks and across the American Southwest For companions he has only such teachers as Rumi John of the Cross Hildegard of Bingen Dag Hammarskj ld and Thomas Merton and as he walks he engages their writings with the natural wonders he encounters Bell Mountain Wilderness with S ren Kierkegaard Moonshine Hollow with Thich Nhat Hanh demonstrating how being alone in the wild opens a rare view onto one's interior landscape and how the saints' writings reveal the divine in nature. The discipline of backpacking Lane shows is a metaphor for a spiritual journey. Just as the wilderness offered revelations to the early Desert Christians, backpacking hones crucial spiritual skills: paying attention, traveling light, practicing silence, and exercising wonder. Lane engages the practice not only with a wide range of spiritual writings—Celtic, Catholic, Protestant, Buddhist, Hindu, and Sufi Muslim—but with the fascination of other lovers of the backcountry from John Muir and Ed Abbey to Bill Plotkin and Cheryl Strayed. In this intimate and down-to-earth narrative, backpacking is shown to be a spiritual practice that allows the discovery of God amidst the beauty and unexpected terrors of nature. Adoration, Lane suggests, is the most appropriate human response to what we cannot explain but have nonetheless learned to love. An enchanting narrative for Christians of all denominations, Backpacking with the Saints is an inspiring exploration of how solitude, simplicity, and mindfulness are illuminated and encouraged by the discipline of backcountry wandering and of how the wilderness itself becomes a way of knowing an ecology of the soul. Condé Nast's Traveler, 2005 American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Out of the Ruins
