The Contradictions of Love Lena Gunnarsson, 2014-01-03 The Contradictions of Love Towards a feminist realist ontology of sociosexuality offers a robust and multifaceted theoretical account of how in contemporary western societies women continue to be subordinated to men through sexual love The book defends and elaborates Anna G J nasd ttir s thesis that men tend to exploit women of their love power by means of an innovative application of critical realism dialectical critical realism and the philosophy of metaReality Gunnarsson also offers a critique of the state of affairs of contemporary feminist theory The author demonstrates that the meta theoretical framework of critical realism offers the tools that can counter the poststructuralist hegemony still prevailing in feminist theory On a general level The Contradictions of Love attempts at reconciling theoretical positions which tend to appear in opposition to one another In particular it offers a way of bridging the gap between the notion of love as a locus of exploitation and that of love as a force which can conquer oppression This book is a unique and timely contribution in the field of feminist theory in that it offers the first elaborate assessment and development of J nasd ttir s important but relatively sidestepped work and in that it counters poststructuralist trends from the point of view of a robust critical realist framework that has hitherto been spectacularly absent in feminist theory although it offers solutions to metatheoretical problems at the forefront of feminist debates in the field of critical realism broadly defined in that it elaborates on crucial ontological themes of dialectical critical realism and the philosophy of metaReality via a discussion of the issues of love sexuality gender and power and finally in the field of love studies in that it offers a sophisticated account of how gender asymmetries prevail in love despite norms of gender equality and reciprocity and in that it reconciles feminist conflict oriented perspectives on love with notions of love as transcending conflict
