The New Diversity of Family Life in Europe Banu Çitlak, Sebastian Kurtenbach, Megan Lueneburg, Meglena Zlatkova, 2017-04-03 The authors focus on families who organize their lives in transnational social spaces within and at the outer borders of Europe to offer a new perspective on transnational family life and to advance the knowledge on borders drawn by social inequality discrimination and political exclusion They also discuss social mobility as inheriting different life worlds while crossing borders The research on the socialization of children raised in different societies provides a better understanding of the new generations in Europe from the beginning of the XXI c The variety of methods presented in this book is also a contribution to link Western and Eastern European perspectives as well as sociology and anthropology in order to capture a wider spectrum of social reality Migration, Transnationalism and Development in South-East Europe and the Black Sea Region Russell King, Maja Povrzanović Frykman, Julie Vullnetari, 2018-04-19 The Southeast Europe and Black Sea region presents fertile terrain for examining recent international migration trends The contributions to this book cover a range of examples from Ukraine and Moldova in the north to Greece and Albania in the south By intersecting the three key concepts of migration transnationalism and development they offer new insights based on original empirical research A wide range of types of migration can be observed in this region large scale emigration in many countries recent mass immigration in the case of Greece return migration internal migration internal and external forced migration irregular migration brain drain etc These migratory phenomena occur within the context of EU migration policies and EU accession for some countries Yet within this shifting migration landscape of migrant stocks and flows the fundamental economic geography of different wealth levels and work opportunities is what drives most migration now as in the past This book was previously published as a special issue of Southeast European and Black Sea Studies Privileged Migrants Across the Globe Diotima Chatteraj, 2025-08-29 Chatteraj and contributors explore the concept of privileged migration in the context of globalization shedding light on the experiences of a demographic often overshadowed in migration discourse The book delves into the rising mobility of various groups including students skilled professionals and lifestyle migrants Despite their education and resources these individuals encounter hurdles such as loss of status and their pursuit of integration into the host society By highlighting the complexities of achieving privileged social interaction with the host population the text emphasizes the fluid and relative nature of privilege It provides a nuanced exploration of the experiences of privileged migrants their strategies for integration and the challenges they face in navigating between insider and outsider dynamics in their respective host nations Rich in empirical evidence and practical insights this is a valuable resource for academics researchers and students of migration as well as policymakers and practitioners engaged with migrant issues East Asian Law Lucie Cheng, Arthur

Rosett, Margaret Woo, 2003-09-02 This work explores the tension in East Asia between the trend towards a convergence of legal practices in the direction of a universal model and a reassertion of local cultural practices The trend towards convergence arises in part from globalisation from rule of law programs promulgated by institutions such as the International Monetary Fund and the Asian Development Bank and from widespread migration in the region whilst the opposing trend arises in part from moves to resist such globalisation This book explores a wide range of issues related to this key problem covering China in particular where resolving differences in conceptions about the rule of law is a key issue as China begins to integrate itself into the World Trade Organisation regime

Rethinking Migration and Return in Southeastern Europe

Eda Gemi, Anna Triandafyllidou, 2021-05-27 This book provides an important new analytical framework for making sense of return remigration and circular mobility conceptualising them as different phases of a wider migration process Using an in depth case study of Albania and its two main destination countries Italy and Greece the book demonstrates that instead of being viewed as a linear path between origin and destination migration should be seen as a segmented or cyclical pattern that may involve several localities and more than two countries Characterised by important previous historical social economic and political linkages geographical proximity but also high migration volatility and sustained flows in either directions Albanian migration to Italy and Greece offers an optimal case study for analysing complex return reintegration and mobility processes While interesting as a unique regional migration system the lessons learned cast light on important migration and mobility dynamics that are relevant for labour migration in Europe also from other important migrant origin countries in the EU s neighbourhood such as for instance Morocco or the Ukraine This rich theoretical and empirical study will be of interest to researchers within European Studies and Migration Studies as well as providing a useful contribution to policy debates on how to govern return migration reintegration and circular migration The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/e/9780429344343> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
