Through And Through Toledo Stories Second Edition Arab American Writing:

Through and Through Joseph Geha, 2009-09-16 Treasured in the Arab American literary community Through and Through is a collection of ten broadly interrelated stories originally published in 1990 One of the first books of modern Arab American fiction Geha's stories offer a warm inspired portrait of an extended Arab family in a Lebanese and Syrian community in Toledo Ohio spanning the decades between the 1930s and the present In a series of vignettes Geha follows three generations of an Arab American family as they create a new community and way of life struggling to keep their Arab roots vital while adapting their culture to new conditions In Holy Toledo Nadia a tomboy in her dungarees watches American women come into her town to shop Although she calls them silly she wished that she were one of them returning with them into that huge strangeness America luring her despite the threat it seemed to hold of loss and vicious sickness Portraying both the anguish and the humor of negotiating between the old world and the new these stories offer a passionate unvarnished glimpse into the lives of an immigrant community Dictionary of Midwestern Literature, Volume Two Philip A. Greasley, 2016-08-08 The Midwest has produced a robust literary heritage Its authors have won half of the nation's Nobel Prizes for Literature plus a significant number of Pulitzer Prizes This volume explores the rich racial ethnic and cultural diversity of the region It also contains entries on 35 pivotal Midwestern literary works literary genres literary cultural historical and social movements state and city literatures literary journals and magazines as well as entries on science fiction film comic strips graphic novels and environmental writing Prepared by a team of scholars this second volume of the Dictionary of Midwestern Literature is a comprehensive resource that demonstrates the Midwest's continuing cultural vitality and the stature and distinctiveness of its literature Love Is Like Water and Other Stories Samia Serageldin, 2009-09-15 Like the author of this remarkable collection of thirteen linked stories the protagonist Nadia was born and raised in Egypt educated in England and immigrated to the United States Samia Serageldin draws her characters out with subtlety and control moving from the narrator's grandmother's garden house in Cairo to the suburbs of North Carolina yielding powerful portraits of cultural dislocation faith and multigenerational conflicts As the narratives shift in time and place they unfold through memory In The Zawiya Nadia reflects on the change in women's space from the coiffeur's salon to a religious pulpit as she revisits a childhood ritual In the title story Nadia offers a vivid sketch of her grandmother Nanou a force of nature who as an early widow single handedly raised six children and ran the household At a time when few women experienced such independence Nanou had a potent influence on the young narrator Told with compassion and clarity Serageldin's stories reveal one woman's exploration of identity finding it in both the sweeping backdrop of Egyptian history and the quotidian exchanges with friends and family The Man Who Guarded the Bomb Gregory Orfalea, 2010-04-14 A boy finds himself alone with his first love in a toboggan stalled atop the Matterhorn at Disneyland A woman bitter about her marriage to a man turned blind must decide if he lives or dies A man haunted by his role in creating the H bomb suddenly disappears in old age only to turn up at Alamagordo seeking an Indian and redemption Such characters at the crossroads of emotion and ethics confounding loss and resurrection populate this unforgettable collection of tales Loosely connected the stories chronicle the lives of the Matters a captivating tragic yet ultimately exultant Arab American family Spanning continents and a century the stories center on the balm that human relationships offer In The Chandelier a boy desperate to feed his starving family hauls a stolen chandelier over a snowy mountain in Lebanon during World War I A young Mexican nurse and her lover wind their way through eighteenth century California missions in Fabiola Against the backdrop of the September 11 attacks an Arab American man is thrown from a bus echoing past racial discriminations in Get Off the Bus With a poet's ear and a historian's keen eye for detail Orfalea offers readers beautifully crafted stories filled with flawed yet irresistible characters who are rendered with great tenderness and aching complexity Loom Therese

Chehade, 2010-11-17 As a blizzard blankets the northeast United States burying residents and shutting down airports the Zaydan family eagerly awaits the arrival of Eva a cousin visiting from Lebanon after a long separation from the family Over the course of one day while Eva is stranded in New York City Chehade's nuanced story unfolds in the reminiscences and anxieties of each family member Emilie the matriarch of this Lebanese American family lives in a world of voluntary silence Barely able to read and write in English and refusing to speak for the last several years she immerses herself in her garden and leaves elaborately cooked meals anonymously for her solitary neighbor Emilie's oldest daughter Josephine middle aged and still living with her mother and married brother struggles to gain her independence and prepare for the arrival of her cousin whose impending visit has reawakened conflicting emotions Young Marie Emilie's granddaughter is stifled by her conservative family and determined to study at Berkeley and to leave behind her immigrant identity All three are drawn to their mysterious neighbor nicknamed Loom whose loneliness and isolation mirror their own and kindle within each woman a desire to make a connection When Emilie takes off during the blizzard in the direction of Loom's house and the rest of the family follows her their act is both an escape and a reaching out Beautifully written and alive with vivid portraits Chehade's novel is both heartfelt and wise My Name on His Tongue Laila Halaby, 2012-05-22 This unique collection of poetry reaches out to readers of all kinds offering the compelling voice of a woman who grew up and lived in the United State as an Arab and an American

With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl, 2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9 11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community Arab American Literary Fictions, Cultures, and Politics S.
