Time and Narrative, Volume 1 Paul Ricoeur, 1984 In the first two volumes of this work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing fiction and theories of literature This final volume a comprehensive reexamination and synthesis of the ideas developed in volumes 1 and 2 stands as Ricoeur s most complete and satisfying presentation of his own philosophy

Time and Narrative Paul Ricoeur, 1985 Discusses the conflict between subjective time and historical time looks at how fiction and historical writings create a model of temporal experience and considers the question of sense and reference

Time and Narrative, Volume 3 Paul Ricoeur, 2024-05-31 In the first two volumes of this work Paul Ricoeur examined the relations between time and narrative in historical writing fiction and theories of literature This final volume a comprehensive reexamination and synthesis of the ideas developed in volumes 1 and 2 stands as Ricoeur s most complete and satisfying presentation of his own philosophy Ricoeur s aim here is to explicate as fully as possible the hypothesis that has governed his inquiry namely that the effort of thinking at work in every narrative configuration is completed in a refiguration of temporal experience To this end he sets himself the central task of determining how far a poetics of narrative can be said to resolve the aporias the doubtful or problematic elements of time Chief among these aporias are the conflicts between the phenomenological sense of time that experienced or lived by the individual and the cosmological sense that described by history and physics on the one hand and the oneness or unitary nature of time on the other In conclusion Ricoeur reflects upon the inscrutability of time itself and attempts to discern the limits of his own examination of narrative discourse As in his previous works Ricoeur labors as an incomparable mediator of often estranged philosophical approaches always in a manner that compromises neither rigor nor creativity Mark Kline Taylor Christian Century In the midst of two opposing contemporary options either to flee into ever more precious readings or to retreat into ever more safe readings Ricoeur s work offers an alternative option that is critical wide ranging and conducive to new applications Mary Gerhart Journal of Religion

Reading Ricoeur David M. Kaplan, 2008-07-24 In Reading Ricoeur fourteen well known scholars interpret evaluate and criticize the works of Paul Ricoeur one of the twentieth century s most important and far reaching philosophers The contributors discuss Ricoeur s entire philosophical career from his existentialist phenomenology of the 1940s and 50s his hermeneutics and critique of structuralism in the 1960s and 70s his narrative and moral philosophy of the 1980s his political and legal philosophy of the 1990s his recent work on memory forgiveness and recognition as well as his enduring interests in religious language and the problem of evil The contributors not only explain the central concepts and structures of Ricoeur s philosophy but they also bring him into dialogue with his contemporaries including Sartre Heidegger Gadamer Habermas Rawls and Lyotard Reading Ricoeur demonstrates the central role of Paul Ricoeur in the development of twentieth century philosophy Theology After Ricoeur Dan R. Stiver,2001-01-01 Dan Stiver presents the implications of Paul Ricoeur s hermeneutical philosophy for a postmodern theology by providing a comprehensive interpretation of Ricoeur and then applying Ricoeur s hermeneutical theory to biblical interpretation and theology Stiver situates Ricoeur s contributions in the Yale Chicago debate and shows how Ricoeur s textual theory provides a real alternative to George Lindbeck on the one hand and deconstruction on the other Figural Realism Hayden White,2000-12-26 It is because historical discourse is actualized in its culturally significant form as a specific kind of writing that we may consider the relevance of literary theory to both the theory and the practice of historiography James M Mellard Northern Illinois University The Johns Hopkins Guide to Literary Theory and Criticism

Children's Biographies of African American Women Sara C. VanderHaagen,2018-11-15 A study of how rhetoric has shaped the life stories of African American role models in children s literature In Children s Biographies of African American Women Rhetoric Public Memory and Agency Sara C VanderHaagen examines how these biographies encourage young readers to think about themselves as agents in a public world Specifically VanderHaagen illustrates how these works use traditional means to serve progressive ends and thereby examines the rhetorical power of biography in shaping identity and promoting public action Drawing on scholarship in rhetoric memory studies and children s literature VanderHaagen presents rhetorical analyses of biographies of three African American women poet Phillis Wheatley activist Sojourner Truth and educator turned politician Shirley Chisholm published in the United States during the twentieth and twenty first centuries VanderHaagen begins by analyzing how biographical sketches in books for black children published during the 1920s represent Wheatley and Truth The study then shifts to books published between 1949 and 2015 VanderHaagen uses a concept adapted from philosopher Paul Ricoeur the idea of the agential spiral to chart the ways that biographies have used rhetoric to shape the life stories of Wheatley Truth and Chisholm By bringing a critical rhetorical perspective to the study of biographies for children this book advances the understanding of how lives of the past are used persuasively to shape identity and encourage action in the contemporary public world VanderHaagen contributes to the study of rhetoric and African American children s literature and refocuses the field of memory studies on children s biographies a significant but often overlooked genre through which public memories first take shape Narrating Unemployment Douglas Ezzy,2017-07-05 Drawing on the emerging field of narrative theory in sociology and psychology this book argues that an individual s response to job loss is a product of the shape of the story a person tells about their experience This in turn is a product of both individual creativity and the structuring effects of their social location Based on a qualitative study of the experience of unemployment in Australia three main types of job loss narratives are identified First romantic narratives describe job loss as a positive experience of liberation from an oppressive job leading to a gradually improving future Second tragic narratives describe job loss as undermining a person's life plan leading to a phase of depression anxiety and self deprecation Finally job loss narratives may be complicated by marital breakdown or serious illness The book breaks new ground in its use of narrative theory to account for the variations in responses to unemployment The Palgrave Handbook of Affect Studies and Textual Criticism Donald R. Wehrs, Thomas Blake, 2017-12-01 This volume provides a comprehensive account of how scholarship on affect and scholarship on texts have come to inform one another over the past few decades The result has been that explorations of how texts address elicit shape and dramatize affect have become central to contemporary work in literary film and art criticism as well as in critical theory rhetoric performance studies and aesthetics Guiding readers to the variety of topics themes interdisciplinary dialogues and sub disciplinary specialties that the study of interplay between affect and texts has either inaugurated or revitalized the handbook showcases and engages the diversity of scholarly topics approaches and projects that thinking of affect in relation to texts and related media open up or enable These include but are not limited to investigations of what attention to affect brings to established methods of studying texts in terms of period genre cultural contexts rhetoric and individual authorship
