Time And The Other How Anthropology Makes Its Object:

Time and the Other Johannes Fabian, 2014-04-15 Time and the Other is a classic work that critically reexamined the relationship between anthropologists and their subjects and reoriented the approach literary critics philosophers and historians took to the study of humankind Johannes Fabian challenges the assumption that anthropologists live in the here and now that their subjects live in the there and then and that the other exists in a time not contemporary with our own He also pinpoints the emergence transformation and differentiation of a variety of uses of time in the history of anthropology that set specific parameters between power and inequality In this edition a new postscript by the author revisits popular conceptions of the other and the attempt to produce and represent knowledge of other s Colonial Fantasies Meyda Yegenoglu, 1998-04-30 In this 1998 book Meyda Yegenoglu investigates the intersection between post colonial and feminist criticism focusing on the Western fascination with the veiled women of the Orient She examines the veil as a site of fantasy and of nationalist ideologies and discourses of gender identity analyzing travel literature anthropological and literary texts to reveal the hegemonic colonial identity of the desire to penetrate the veiled surface of otherness Representations of cultural difference and sexual difference are shown to be inextricably linked and the figure of the Oriental woman to have functioned as the veiled interior of Western identity The Bloomsbury Handbook of Literary and Cultural Theory Jeffrey R. Di

Leo, 2018-11-15 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Literary and Cultural Theory is the most comprehensive available survey of the state of theory in the 21st century With chapters written by the world s leading scholars in their field this book explores the latest thinking in traditional schools such as feminist Marxist historicist psychoanalytic and postcolonial criticism and new areas of research in ecocriticism biopolitics affect studies posthumanism materialism and many other fields In addition the book includes a substantial A to Z compendium of key words and important thinkers in contemporary theory making this an essential resource for scholars of literary and cultural theory at all levels Time and radical politics in France

Alexandra Paulin-Booth, 2023-05-09 This book investigates how people have thought about and experienced time and how their ideas about time have shaped their political views and actions Using French thinkers and activists of the radical left and right between the Dreyfus Affair and the First World War as a case study it argues that time provides an important means of exploring how concepts such as nationalism revolution and social change were understood at the turn of the century Attending to different experiences of time the speed at which it was perceived to move the extent to which the future was near and graspable the ways in which the past was seen to impinge on the present opens up exciting new possibilities for analysing politics ideologies and worldviews Not What The Bus Promised Tamara Hervey, Ivanka Antova, Mark L Flear, Matthew Wood, 2023-10-05 What does the UK s exit from the EU mean for health and the NHS This book explains the legal and practical implications of Brexit on the NHS its staffing especially on the island of Ireland medicines medical devices and equipment and biomedical research It considers the UK s post Brexit trade agreements and what they mean for health and discusses the effects of the COVID 19 pandemic on post Brexit health law To put the legal analysis in context the book draws on over 400 conversations the authors had with people in the north of England and Northern Ireland interviews with over 40 health policy stakeholders details of a film about their research made with ShoutOut UK the authors work with Parliaments and governments across the UK and their collaborations with key actors like the NHS Confederation the British Medical Association and Cancer Research UK The book shows that the language people use to talk about hoped for legitimate post Brexit health governance suggests a great deal of faith in law and legal process among ordinary people but the opposite from insider elites Not What The Bus Promised puts the authors knowledge and experiences centre frame rather than claiming to express objective reality It will be of interest to any reader who cares about the NHS and wants to understand its present and future

Globalization and Popular Music in South Korea Michael Fuhr, 2015-06-12 This book offers an in depth study of the globalization of contemporary South Korean idol pop music or K Pop visiting K Pop and its multiple intersections with political economic and cultural formations and transformations It provides detailed insights into the transformative process in and around the field of Korean pop music since the 1990s which paved the way for the recent international rise of K Pop and the Korean Wave Fuhr examines the conditions and effects of transnational flows asymmetrical power relations and the role of the imaginary other in K Pop production and consumption relating them to the specific aesthetic dimensions and material conditions of K Pop stars songs and videos Further the book reveals how K Pop is deployed for strategies of national identity construction in connection with Korean cultural politics with transnational music production circuits and with the transnational mobility of immigrant pop idols The volume argues that K Pop is a highly productive cultural arena in which South Korea s globalizing and nationalizing forces and imaginations coincide intermingle and counteract with each other and in which the tension between both of these poles is played out musically visually and discursively This book examines a vibrant example of contemporary popular music from the non Anglophone world and provides deeper insight into the structure of popular music and the dynamics of cultural globalization through a combined set of ethnographic musicological and cultural analysis Widening the regional scope of Western dominated popular music studies and enhancing new areas of ethnomusicology anthropology and cultural studies this book will also be of interest to those studying East Asian popular culture music globalization and popular music

Breaking up Time Chris Lorenz, Berber Bevernage, 2013-06-19 Thirteen expert historians and philosophers address basic questions on historical time and on the distinctions between past present and future Their contributions are organised around four themes the relation between time and modernity the issue of ruptures in time and the influence of catastrophic events such as revolutions and wars on temporal distinctions the philosophical analysis of historical time and temporal distinctions and the construction of time outside Europe through processes of colonialism imperialism and globalisation

Global Heritage Assemblages Christoph Rausch, 2016-11-25 UNESCO aims to tackle Africa s under representation on its World Heritage List by inscribing instances of nineteenth and twentieth century modern architecture and urban planning there But what is one to make of the utopias of progress and development for which these buildings and sites stand After all concern for modern heritage invariably and paradoxically it seems has to reckon with those utopias as problematic futures of the past a circumstance complicating intentions to preserve a recent culture of modernization on the African continent This book a new title in Routledge's Studies in Culture and Development series introduces the concept of global heritage assemblages to analyse that problem Based on extensive anthropological fieldwork it describes how various governmental intergovernmental and non governmental actors engage with colonial and post colonial built heritage found in Eritrea Tanzania Niger and the Republic of the Congo Rausch argues that the global heritage assemblages emerging from those examples produce problematizations of the modern which ultimately indicate a contemporary need to rescue modernity from its dominant conception as an all encompassing epochal and spatial culture

The Erotic Margin Irvin C. Schick, 2020-05-05 Gender and sexuality have long held an important place in western attitudes towards the people and regions of the world from the titillating accounts of harem life in the Middle East to terrifying captivity narratives of North America The Erotic Margin is a first attempt to pull together the large disparate and often contradictory literature and view it as a corpus Schick argues that such images served to construct spatial difference and thereby helped Europe represent its own place in the world during an age of rapid geographical expansion Informed by the recent literature on human geography as well as feminist and postcolonial theory The Erotic Margin focuses on erotica and sexual anthropology as well as travel literature in which from the eighteenth century on both traveler and destination were portrayed in unmistakably gendered and sexualized terms Reviewing examples ranging from the New World to India the Near East to black Africa and the South sea islands to the Barbary Coast the book reflects on why foreign women were variously portrayed as alluring or threatening foreign men as effeminate weaklings or dangerous rapists and foreign lands as sexual idylls or hearts of darkness
