Transformative Phenomenology Changing Ourselves Lifeworlds And Professional Practice:

Transformative Phenomenology David Allan Rehorick, 2006-05-11 Transformative Phenomenology captures the influence of phenomenology and hermeneutics on non university based scholar practitioners who completed their doctoral education in later life thus blending their workplace experiences with their intellectual interests Contributions from seasoned university based scholars expands our understanding of phenomenological inquiry in fresh ways The concept of transformative phenomenology springs from the long term teaching and research experiences of David Rehorick and Valerie Bentz the book s co editors

Transformative Phenomenology David Allan Rehorick, Valerie Malhotra Bentz, 2009-07 Transformative Phenomenology captures the influence of phenomenology and hermeneutics on non university based scholar practitioners who completed their doctoral education in later life thus blending their workplace experiences with their intellectual interests Contributions from seasoned university based scholars also expand our understanding of phenomenological inquiry in fresh ways The concept of transformative phenomenology springs from the long term teaching and research experiences of David Allan Rehorick and Valerie Malhotra Bentz the book s co editors Book jacket

Deathworlds to Lifeworlds Valerie Malhotra Bentz, James Marlatt, 2021-08-02 Deathworlds are places on planet earth that can no longer sustain life These are increasing rapidly We experience remnants of Deathworlds within our Lifeworlds for example traumatic echoes of war genocide oppression Many practices and policies directly or indirectly are Deathworld Making They undermine Lifeworlds contributing to community decline illnesses climate change and species extinction This book highlights the ways in which writing about and sharing meaningful experiences may lead to social and environmental justice practices decreasing Deathworld Making Phenomenology is a method which reveals the connection between personal suffering and the suffering of the planet earth and all its creatures Sharing can lead to collaborative relationships among strangers for social and environmental justice across barriers of culture politics and language Deathworlds into Lifeworlds wakes people up to how current economic and social forces are destroying life and communities on our planet as I have mapped in my work The chapters by scholars around the world in this powerful book testify to the pervasive consequences of the proliferation of Deathworld making and ways that collaboration across cultures can help move us forward Saskia Sassen is the Robert S Lynd Professor of Sociology at Columbia University and a Member of its Committee on Global Thought Recognizing the inseparability of experience consciousness environment and problematics in rebalancing life systems this book offers solutions from around the world Four Arrows aka Don Trent Jacobs author of Sitting Bull s Words for A World in Crises et al This unique book brings together 78 participants from 11 countries to reveal the ways in which phenomenology the study of consciousness and phenomena can lead to profound personal and social transformation Such transformation is especially powerful when Deathworlds physical or cultural places that no longer sustain life are transformed into lifeworlds through collaborative sharing even when or perhaps especially when the sharing is among strangers across different cultures

The contributors share a truly wide range of human experiences from the death of a child to ecological destruction in offering ways to affirm life in the face of what may seem to be hopeless death affirming challenges Richard P Appelbaum Ph D is Distinguished Research Professor Emeritus and former MacArthur Foundation Chair in Global and International Studies and Sociology at the University of California Santa Barbara He is also a founding Professor at Fielding Graduate University where he heads the doctoral concentration in Sustainability Leadership Deathworlds is a love letter for the planet our home By documenting places that no longer sustain life the authors collectively pull back the curtain on these places rendering them meaningful by connecting what ails us with what ails the world Katrina S Rogers Ph D conservation activist and author Deathworlds to Lifeworlds represents collaboration among Fielding Graduate University the University of od Poland and the University of the Virgin Islands Students and faculty from these universities participated in seminars on transformative phenomenology and developed rich phenomenologically based narratives of their experiences or others These phenomenological protocol narratives creatively modify and integrate with everyday experience the conceptual frameworks of Husserl Schutz Heidegger Habermas and others The diverse protocol authors demonstrate how phenomenological reflection is transformative first by revealing how Deathworlds which lead to physical mental social or ecological decline imperil invaluable lifeworlds Deathworlds appear on lifeworld fringes such as extra urban trash landfills where unnoticed impoverished workers labor to the destruction of their own health Poignant protocol narratives highlight the plight and noble struggle of homeless people the mother of a dying 19 year old son persons inclined to suicide overwhelmed first responders alcoholics who through inspiration achieve sobriety unravelled We Relationships those suffering from and overcoming addiction or misogynist stereotypes or excessive pressures veterans distraught after combat a military mother those in liminal situations and oppressed indigenous peoples who still make available their liberating spirituality Transformative phenomenology exemplifies that generous responsiveness to the ethical summons to solidarity to which Levinas s Other invites us Michael Barber Ph D Professor of Philosophy St Louis University He has authored seven books and more than 80 articles in the general area of phenomenology and the social world He is editor of Sch tzian Research an annual interdisciplinary journal This book helps us notice the Deathworlds that surround us and advocates for their de naturalization Its central claim is that the ten virtues of the transformative phenomenologist allow us to do so by changing ourselves and the worlds we live in In this light the book is an outstanding presentation of the international movement known as transformative phenomenology It makes groundbreaking contributions to a tradition in which some of the authors are considered the main referents Also it offers an innovative understanding of Alfred Schutz s philosophy of the Lifeworld and a fruitful application of Van Manen s method of written protocols Carlos Belvedere Ph D Professor Faculty of Social Sciences University of Buenos Aires Moving beyond the social phenomenology carved out by Alfred Sch tz this impressive volume of action based experiential research displays the efficacy of applying phenomenological protocols to explore Deathworlds the tacit side of the foundational conception of Lifeworlds Over twenty one chapters plus an epilogue readers are transported by the train of Transformative Phenomenology created during what s been called the Silver Age of Phenomenology 1996 present at the Fielding Graduate University An international amalgam of students and faculty from universities in Poland the United States the Virgin Islands Canada and socio cultural locations throughout the world harnessed their collective energy to advance the practical call of phenomenology as a pathway to meaning making through rich descriptions of lived experience Topics include dwelling with strangers dealing with trash walking with the homeless death of a young person overcoming colonialism precognition environmental destruction and so much more The research collection enhances what counts as phenomenological inquiry while remaining respectful of Edmund Husserl s philosophical roots David Rehorick PhD Professor Emeritus of Sociology University of New Brunswick Canada Professor Emeritus Fielding Graduate University U S A Vancouver British Columbia Mindful Inquiry in Social Research Valerie Malhotra Bentz,James Marlatt,Jeremy J. Shapiro,Luann Drolc Fortune,2025-04-29 The first edition of this classic text introduced researchers and students to a broad range of approaches that are grounded philosophically and are relevant to real contexts This new edition reflects developments in social research and changes in the global environment The authors broaden their conception of mindfulness and show how mindful inquirers can maximize positive outcomes for participants organizations communities and themselves The first five chapters describe the application of mindful inquiry and the following nine introduce cultures of inquiry and research traditions theories methods and techniques Chapters contain activities that provide immediate engagement with learning suggested readings and lists of skills for researchers Phenomenological Inquiry ,2008 Bibliographic Index ,2009 Expressions of Phenomenological Research David Rehorick,Michael Wilson,2017-06-28 Over the past four decades phenomenology and hermeneutics have been increasingly embraced by scholars who are not strictly philosophical phenomenologists including educators health professionals and social scientists As a result different views have emerged as to what really constitutes phenomenological inquiry This edited collection aims to expand the discussion about the subject and showcases the unique way that phenomenology has been taught at the Fielding Graduate University Expressions of Phenomenological Research is the result of many years of collaboration between the editors Valerie Bentz and David Rehorick as well as the work of nine Fielding doctoral graduates that demonstrates the applicability of phenomenology and hermeneutics in both their professional practice and personal lives Handbook of Transformative Phenomenology Valerie Malhotra Bentz,James Marlatt,Carol Estrada,2021 This book offers an introduction to Phenomenology an emerging field of socio cultural research and practice that encourages positive change for practitioners at every level in modern society Put briefly Transformative Phenomenology is the study of human consciousness and ways in which an enriched awareness can help individuals achieve personal professional or organizational goals Particularly today a person s view of the world can so often be clouded or biased by preconceptions ideology grievances or deliberate distortions in the media Over time these may blind us to what should be readily apparent to the clear phenomenological eye In other words Phenomenology directs us to the fullness of our experience Scholars at Fielding Graduate University developed the practice of Transformative Phenomenology over several decades based on the foundational work of Husserl and Schutz Amazon com Classic Writings for a Phenomenology of Practice Michael van Manen, Max Van Manen, 2020-10-01 Classic Writings for a Phenomenology of Practice features examples of newly translated classic phenomenological texts that have been largely forgotten or misunderstood The writings are unique in that they speak to the practice of doing phenomenological research for the purpose of gaining insights and better understandings regarding aspects of professional practice and ordinary life phenomena and events Phenomenology does not have to be impenetrable philosophy dealing with tedious technical issues Instead phenomenology may offer relevance value and enduring allure to readers and researchers who are engaged with the quotidian life experiences and events of students patients clients friends and other individuals This phenomenological approach aims to stay as close as possible to the ordinary events of everyday life seeing the first smile of a child feeling compulsive being humorous having a conversation experiencing childhood secrecy encountering new things topics that span a manifold of life experiences In this collection of classic phenomenological writings each author is thoughtfully introduced and each text is followed by a conversational descant a reflection on the phenomenological reflection The presentation of these classic writings and their reflections aims to show us what it means to do phenomenology directly on the phenomena that we live thus asking us to be attentive to the fascinating varieties and subtleties of primal lived experiences and consciousness in all its remarkable complexities This book is relevant for scholars and students who are interested in human science research and the origins and practices of the phenomenological method Phenomenology of Practice Max van Manen, 2014-03-31 Max van Manen offers an extensive exploration of phenomenological traditions and methods for the human sciences It is his first comprehensive statement of phenomenological thought and research in over a decade Phenomenology of practice refers to the meaning and practice of phenomenology in professional contexts such as psychology education and health care as well as to the practice of phenomenological methods in contexts of everyday living Van Manen presents a detailed description of key phenomenological ideas as they have evolved over the past century he then thoughtfully works through the methodological issues of phenomenological reflection empirical methods and writing that a phenomenology of practice offers to the researcher Van Manen s comprehensive work will be of great interest to all concerned with the interrelationship between being and acting in human sciences research and in everyday life

Handbook of Phenomenology and Medicine S. Kay Toombs, 2001-12-31 Some of the authors who have contributed to this volume are philosophers some are engaged in other academic disciplines and several are practicing healthcare professionals Their essays demonstrate that because phenomenology provides extraordinary insights into many of the issues that are directly addressed within the world of medicine it can be an invaluable practical tool not only for those who are interested in the philosophy of medicine but for all healthcare professionals who are actively engaged in the care of the sick
