Transition From Below Forging Trade Unionism And Workplace Change In South Africa:

Inequality Studies from the Global South David Francis, Imraan Valodia, Edward Webster, 2020-05-04 This book offers an innovative interdisciplinary approach to thinking about inequality and to understanding how inequality is produced and reproduced in the global South Without the safety net of the various Northern welfare states inequality in the global South is not merely a socio economic problem but an existential threat to the social contract that underpins the democratic state and society itself Only a response that is firmly grounded in the context of the global South can hope to address this problem This collection brings together scholars from across the globe with a particular focus on the global South to address broad thematic areas such as the conceptual and methodological challenges of measuring inequality the political economy of inequality in the global South inequality in work households and the labour market and inequalities in land spaces and cities The book concludes by suggesting alternatives for addressing inequality in the global South and around the world The pioneering ideas and theories put forward by this volume make it essential reading for students and researchers of global inequality across the fields of sociology economics law politics global studies and development studies

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past

Economic Transitions to Neoliberalism in Middle-Income Countries Alfredo Saad-Filho, Galip L. Yalman, 2009-12-04 Neoliberalism is based on the systematic use of state power to impose under the veil of non intervention a hegemonic project of recomposition of capitalist rule in most areas of social life The tensions and displacements embedded within global neoliberalism are nowhere more evident than in the middle income countries At the domestic level the neoliberal transitions have transformed significantly the material basis of social reproduction in these countries These transformations include but they are not limited to shifts in economic and social policy They also encompass the structure of property the modality of insertion of the country into the international economy and the domestic forms of exploitation and social domination The political counterpart of these processes is the limitation of the domestic political sphere through the insulation of markets and investors from social accountability and the imposition of a stronger imperative of labour control allegedly in order to secure international competitiveness These economic and political shifts have reduced the scope for universal welfare provision and led to regressive distributive shifts and higher unemployment and job insecurity in most countries They have also created an income concentrating dynamics of accumulation that has proven immune to Keynesian and reformist interventions This book examines these challenges and dilemmas analytically and empirically in different national contexts This edited collection offers a theoretical critique of neoliberalism and a review of the contrasting experiences of eight middle income countries Brazil China India Mexico South Africa South Korea Turkey and Venezuela The studies included are interdisciplinary ranging across economics sociology anthropology international relations political science and related social sciences The book focuses on a materialist understanding of the workings of neoliberalism as a modality of social and economic reproduction and its everyday practices of dispossession and exploitation It will therefore be of particular interest to scholars in industrial policy neoliberalism and development strategy

Labour Disrupted Andries Bezuidenhout, Janet Cherry, Nomkhosi Xulu-Gama, Mondli Hlatshwayo, Aisha Lorgat, Babalwa Magoqwana, John Mashayamombe, Mpho Mmadi, Siphelo Ngcwangu, Sandla Nomvete, Jantjie Xaba, Lucien van der Walt, Edward Webster, 2023-10 Labour Disrupted reflects on the past and the future of labour primarily in South Africa but also globally It focuses on how South Africa's lockdown during the Covid 19 pandemic further exposed key contradictions and challenges that labour movements face The contributions include a diverse range of topics currently engaged with by those actively engaged in the field of labour movement Essays by academics and activists tackle thorny issues from redefining democracy in South Africa to experiences of inclusiveness or lack thereof in workplace environments by women young people migrant workers LGBTI people and people living with disabilities The volume addresses contemporary issues related to the use of technology and the impact of the fourth industrial revolution on the youth and the working class and the challenges of skills development and restructuring in the workplace Publisher

Critical Engagement with Public Sociology Andries Bezuidenhout, Sonwabile Mnwana, Karl von Holdt, 2024-01-16 The idea of public sociology as introduced by Michael Burawoy was inspired by the sociological practice in South Africa known as critical engagement This volume explores the evolution of critical engagement before and after Burawoy's visit to South Africa in the 1990s and offers a Southern critique of his model of public sociology Involving four generations of researchers from the Global South the authors provide a multifaceted exploration of the formation of new knowledge through research practices of co production Tracing the historical development of critical engagement from a Global South perspective the book deftly weaves a bridge between the debates on public sociology and decolonial frameworks

Transition from Below Karl Von Holdt, 2003 Drawing on interviews of workers and unionists of the Highveld Steel company traces the transition from the apartheid regime to post colonialism and democracy Focuses on social movement unionism popular alliances and ungovernability in the community and the workplace

The ISA Handbook in Contemporary Sociology Ann Denis, Devorah Kalekin-Fishman, 2009-07-01 This International Sociological Association

Handbook presents and tracks the transformation of the societies and social relations that characterize the twenty first century The volume is organized around a conceptualization of three processes that are fundamental to the analyses of micro meso and macro social relations Conflict Competition and Cooperation Case studies discuss and contextualize debates within an international overview of relevant literature incorporating material about North America Latin America Europe Africa and Asia South African Journal of Labour Relations ,2006 Beyond the Apartheid Workplace Eddie Webster,Karl Von Holdt,2005 Has the apartheid workplace changed over the past ten years of democracy in South Africa In order to answer this question the contributors of this book studied seventeen different workplaces including BMW a state hospital footwear sweatshops and the wine farming industry The editors broaden the definition of work to cover studies of the informal economy including street traders homeworkers and small rural enterprises Beyond the Apartheid Workplace shows how South Africa s triple transition towards political democracy economic liberalization and post colonial transformation has generated contradictory pressures at workplace levels A wide range of managerial strategies and union responses are identified demonstrating both continuities and discontinuities with past practices These studies reveal a growing differentiation within the world of work between stable formal sector work casualized and outsourced work and informal work where people struggle to make a living on the margins of the formal economy The majority of workplaces are marked by the persistence and reconfiguration of the apartheid legacy Deepening poverty and exclusion have been generated among great numbers of workers and their dependents South African Labour Bulletin ,2006 International Journal for the Study of Southern African Literature and Languages ,2006 Grounding Globalization Eddie Webster,Rob Lambert,Andries Beziudenhout,2008-06-30 This work examines the claim that a new labour internationalism is emerging Three distinct areas are analysed Orange in Australia Changwon in South Korea and Ezakheni in South Africa Divisions of Labor, Experiences of Class Bridget Catherine Kenny,2004 International Review of Social History ,2005 African Studies Review ,2008 Labour History Review ,2004 The Economic and Labour Relations Review ,2005 Racial Redress & Citizenship in South Africa Adam Habib,Kristina A. Bentley,2008 South Africa s democratic experiment is confronted by a central political dilemma how to advance and address historical injustices while building a single national identity This issue lies at the heart of many heated debates over issues such as economic policy affirmative action and skills shortages Government has opted for racially defined redress while many of its critics recommend class as a more appropriate organising principle The contributors to this volume challenge both perspectives As both scholars and activists and from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds the authors explore the issues within four broad themes the economy education sport and the civil service Addressing the scholarly community civil society and government each author brings unique perspectives to the question of redress that is so crucial to the future of South Africa The African Book Publishing Record ,2007 Debate ,1998
