Transitional Justice in Post-Communist Romania Lavinia Stan, 2013 This is the first volume to overview the complex Romanian transitional justice effort detail the political negotiations that have led to the adoption and implementation of relevant legislation and assess these processes in terms of their timing sequencing and impact on democratization

Justice, Memory and Redress in Romania Lavinia Stan, Lucian Turcescu, 2017-01-06 Are there any lessons Romania can teach transitional justice scholars and practitioners This book argues that important insights emerge when analyzing a country with a moderate record of coming to terms with its communist past Taking a broad definition of transitional justice as their starting point contributors provide fresh assessments of the history commission court trials public identifications of former communist perpetrators commemorations and unofficial artistic projects that seek to address and redress the legacies of communist human rights violations Theoretical and practical questions regarding the continuity of state agencies the sequencing of initiatives their advantages and limitations the reasons why some reckoning programs are enacted and others are not and these measures efficacy in promoting truth and justice are answered throughout the volume Contributors include seasoned scholars from Romania Canada the United States and the United Kingdom and current and former leaders of key Romanian transitional justice institutions

Churches, Memory and Justice in Post-Communism Lucian Turcescu, Lavinia Stan, 2021-08-24 This book is the first to systematically examine the connection between religion and transitional justice in post communism There are four main goals motivating this book 1 to explain how civil society groups such as religious denominations contribute to transitional justice efforts to address and redress past dictatorial repression 2 to ascertain the impact of state led reckoning programs on religious communities and their members 3 to renew the focus on the factors that determine the adoption or rejection of efforts to reckon with past human rights abuses in post communism and 4 to examine the limitations of enacting specific transitional justice methods programs and practices in post communist Central and Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union countries whose democratization has differed in terms of its nature and pace Various churches and their relationship with the communist states are covered in the following countries Germany Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Romania Albania Bulgaria Estonia Latvia Lithuania Russia and Belarus

East Central Europe since 1989 Sabrina P. Ramet, Lavinia Stan, 2024-12-12 This groundbreaking treatment of post communist developments in East Central Europe examines politics economics media religious institutions transitional justice gender inequality and literature highlighting the overt functions latent functions and side effects associated with each sphere Communism in East Central Europe had cracks from the beginning as uprisings in East Germany in 1953 and Hungary in 1956 demonstrated But with the establishment of the Independent Trade Union Solidarity in Poland in the Summer of 1980 communism went into steady decline and between

1988 and 1991 crumbled What followed has been an unsteady transition to various forms of often corrupt pluralism with democracy doing best in the Czech Republic with the exception of the years 2017 2021 and Slovenia and worst in Hungary Albania Serbia and Bosnia Herzegovina Drawing on the functionalist theory of Robert K Merton the authors examine what policymakers communist and post communist were or are trying to accomplish the intended and unintended results of these policies and the side effects they have produced This volume will be of interest not only to specialists in East Central Europe but also to graduate and undergraduate students members of the diplomatic corps and general readers Central and East European Politics Zsuzsa Csergo,Daina S. Eglitis,Paula M. Pickering,2021-06-22 Now in a fully revised and updated edition this essential text provides a comprehensive introduction to Central and Eastern Europe including the Baltics and Ukraine Broad but nuanced it offers a reader friendly overview of the globally and regionally significant changes and challenges the region faces Divided into two parts the book first presents thematic chapters on key issues including nationalism and challenges to democratic institutions and practices the contentious politics of memory debates over demography and migration in a region with a shrinking population and Russian efforts to retain regional influence through hard and soft power The case study chapters that follow highlight key political developments after communism as well as providing a strong foundation for readers on regional history and the political and economic experiences of the communist years Each covers the foundational topics of political history political competition economic development social problems relationships with European institutions and threats to good governance For students and specialists alike this book will be an invaluable resource on this dynamic region of Europe Central and East European Politics Sharon L. Wolchik,Jane Leftwich Curry,2018-03-29 Now in a fully updated edition this essential text explores the other half of Europe the new and future members of the EU along with the problems and potential they bring to the region and to the world stage Clear and comprehensive it offers an authoritative analysis of Central and Eastern Europe the Baltics and Ukraine Transitional Justice in Aparadigmatic Contexts Tine Destrooper,Line Engbo Gissel,Kerstin Bree Carlson,2023-03-23 This book explores the practical and theoretical opportunities as well as the challenges raised by the expansion of transitional justice into new and aparadigmatic cases The book defines transitional justice as the pursuit of accountability recognition and or disruption and applies an actor centric analysis focusing on justice actors intentions of and responses to transitional justice It offers a typology of different transitional justice contexts ranging from societies experiencing ongoing conflict to consolidated democracies and includes chapters from all types of aparadigmatic contexts This covers transitional justice in states with contested political authority shared political authority and consolidated political authority The transitional justice initiatives explored by the wide range of contributors are those of Afghanistan Belgium France Greenland Denmark Libya Syria Turkey Kurdistan UK Iraq US and Yemen Through these aparadigmatic case studies the book develops a new framework that appropriate to its expanding reach allows us to understand the practice of transitional justice in a more context sensitive bottom up and actor oriented way which leaves room for the complexity and messiness of interventions on the ground The book will appeal to scholars and practitioners in the broad field of transitional justice as represented in law criminology politics conflict studies and human rights The Introduction Chapter 8 and the Concluding Remarks of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Religion and Politics in Post-Socialist Central and Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, 2014-01-31 Since the crash of communism in Central and Southeastern Europe in 1989 almost everything in the region has changed from politics to economics to popular culture to religion There have been new challenges to confront and new dilemmas This volume examines the political engagement of religious associations in the post socialist countries of Central and Southeastern Europe with a focus on disputes about property restitution revelations about the collaboration of clergy with the communist era secret police intolerance and controversies about the inclusion of religious instruction in the schools Each of the countries in the region is analyzed with research grounded in on site interviews as well as extensive use of literature in local and Western languages

Repression, Resistance and Collaboration in Stalinist Romania 1944-1964 Monica Ciobanu, 2020-10-14 This book examines how the process of remembering Stalinist repression in Romania has shifted from individual family and group representations of lived and witnessed experiences characteristic of the 1990s to more recent and state sponsored expressions of historical remembrance through their incorporation in official commemorations propaganda sites and restorative and compensatory measures Based on fieldwork dealing with Stalinist repression and memorialization together with archival research on the secret police Securitate it adopts an interdisciplinary approach to reveal the resurfacing of particular themes As such it draws on concepts from sociology political science and legal studies related to memory justice redress identity accountability and reconciliation A study of competing narratives concerning the meaning of the past as part of a struggle over the legitimacy of the post communist state

Repression Resistance and Collaboration in Stalinist Romania 1944 1964 combines memory studies with a transitional justice approach that will appeal to scholars of sociology heritage and memory studies politics and law

Churches, Memory and Justice in Post-Communism Lucian Turcescu, Lavinia Stan, 2021 This book is the first to systematically examine the connection between religion and transitional justice in post communism There are four main goals motivating this book 1 to explain how civil society groups such as religious denominations contribute to transitional justice efforts to address and redress past dictatorial repression 2 to ascertain the impact of state led reckoning programs on religious communities and their members 3 to renew the focus on the factors that determine the adoption or rejection of efforts to reckon with past human rights abuses in post communism and 4 to examine the limitations of enacting specific transitional justice methods programs and practices in post communist Central and Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union countries whose democratization has differed in terms of its nature and pace Various churches and their relationship with the communist states are covered in the following countries Germany Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Romania Albania Bulgaria Estonia Latvia Lithuania Russia and Belarus Lavinia Stan is Jules Leger Research Chair in Political Science and Coordinator of the Public Policy and Governance Program at St Francis Xavier University Canada A comparative politics specialist she has done work and published mainly on transitional justice as well as religion and politics with a focus on post communist settings Some of her most recent publications include co edited with Cynthia Horne Transitional Justice and the Former Soviet Union Reviewing the Past Looking toward the Future 2019 and co edited with Nadya Nedelsky Post Communist Transitional Justice Lessons from Twenty Five Years of Experience 2015 Lucian Turcescu is Professor Graduate Program Director and past Chair 2011 2016 of the Department of Theological Studies at Concordia University Montreal Canada He has done research published and taught in several areas including early Christianity religion and politics and ecumenism Some of his recent publications include co edited with L Stan Justice Memory and Redress in Romania 2017 co authored with L Stan Church State and Democracy in Expanding Europe 2011 The Normative Environment of European Integration Józef Niżnik, 2008

Between the Memory and Post-Memory of Communism in Romania Monica Ciobanu, Mihaela Șerban, 2025-05-23 The first of its kind this book traces the construction of post memory in post communist Romania Focusing on the processes gaps agents and contradictions of post memory it examines a range of topics across a variety of disciplines addressing questions of museums and musealization law and memory political trials and retrospective justice and post memory in a digital context while also considering marginalized and forgotten voices such as those of the Roma population and abandoned children Moving away from a focus on the institutional mechanisms of transitional justice or officially sanctioned historical narratives Between the Memory and Post Memory of Communism in Romania brings together some of the leading voices in the field of memory studies in Romania to adopt a more pluralistic and diverse approach to the communist past It will therefore appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology museum studies and history with interests in the communist period in Eastern Europe

Romania Confronts its Communist Past Vladimir Tismaneanu, Marius Stan, 2018-05-17 Reckoning with mass crimes perpetrated by an ideologically driven regime entails engaging in a thorough going exploration of its utopian foundations In the case of Romania such an analysis requires an interpretation of the role of personality in the construction of a uniquely grotesque and unrepentant form of neo Stalinist despotism Of all the revolutions of 1989 the only violent one took place in Romania Confronting its communist past therefore involves addressing the abuses committed by the communist regime up to its very last day its failure to engage in Round Table type agreements with democratic representatives and the repression during the first post communist years a direct legacy of the old regime This book shows how moral justice can contribute to a restoration of truth and a climate of trust in politics in the absence of which any democratic polity remains exposed to authoritarian attack Revolution, Democratic Transition and Disillusionment Anca Pusca, 2008 This book develops a fresh and challenging perspective on the transition from communism to capitalism Drawing on a wide and diverse range of material and texts it argues that transition and democratization studies should turn their attention towards processes of illusion formation and disillusionment as key to understanding the shift from one ideological framework to another The author provides alternative approaches to otherwise classical sites of examination of social change such as revolutions and the emergence of civil society and proposes a number of new possible sites by analyzing the politics of self reflection the element of shock inherent in any transition and the role of visual narratives in negotiating change The chapters are inspired by unique interviews and discussions with the leaders of the Timisoara Revolution the Group of Social Dialogue the first civil society organization in post communist Romania the leading author of the Presidential Report Analysing the Communist Dictatorship in Romania and an innovative group of photographers tracing the Romanian transition through images

Transilvania ,2014 Post-Communist Transitional Justice Lavinia Stan,Nadya Nedelsky,2015-02-26 Taking stock of the twenty fifth anniversary of the collapse of the communist regimes of Central and Eastern Europe this volume explores how these societies have grappled with the serious human rights violations of past regimes It focuses on the most important factors that have shaped the nature speed and sequence of transitional justice programs in the period spanning the revolutions that brought about the collapse of the communist dictatorships and the consolidation of new democratic regimes Contributors explain why leaders made certain choices discuss the challenges they faced and explore the role of under studied actors and grassroots strategies Written by recognized experts with an unparalleled grasp of the region s communist and post communist reality this volume addresses far reaching reckoning redress and retribution policy choices It is an engaging carefully crafted volume which covers a wide variety of cases and discusses key transitional justice theories using both qualitative and quantitative research methods Revista Română de Știință Politică ,2006 Post-Communist Romania at Twenty-Five Lavinia Stan,Diane Vancea,2015-06-24 2014 marked the 25th anniversary of the collapse of communist regimes in Eastern Europe The events of 1989 are widely seen as having ushered in new all encompassing reforms in almost all areas of life In few other places were reforms more contested and divisive than in Romania a country that suffered greatly under the sultanistic cum totalitarian dictatorship of Nicolae Ceausescu faced the region s only bloody anti communist revolt and as such had the longest to travel on the road from communism to democracy We now have a generation s worth of experience with these wrenching reforms that have deeply affected Romania s political institutions and political culture and ultimately allowed it to become a member of the coveted European Union club This volume gathers key lessons for democratic theory and practice from Romania s first twenty five years of post communist transformation Written by leading experts in the field of Romanian Studies the chapters focus on the most important factors that have shaped the country s political transformation during the first 25 years of post communism Quaderni storici ,2008
