

The background of the cover is a painting. It depicts a woman in a long, flowing red dress with a dark, patterned shawl or capelet over her shoulders. She is standing in a doorway, looking into a bedroom. In the bedroom, a man in a white shirt and dark trousers is sitting on the edge of a bed, looking towards the doorway. A red dress lies on the floor near the doorway. The room has wood-paneled walls and a small table with a lamp. The overall style is that of a classic oil painting.

Loison-Charles, 2022-11-17 Exploring the deeply translational and transnational nature of the writings of Vladimir Nabokov this book argues that all his work is unified by the permanent presence of three cultures and languages Russian English and French In particular Julie Loison Charles focusses on Nabokov's dual nature as both an author and a translator and the ways in which translation permeates his fictional writing from his very first Russian works to his last novels in English Although self translation has received a lot of attention in Nabokov criticism this book considers his work as an author translator drawing particular attention to his often underappreciated and underestimated but no less crucial third language French Looking at Nabokov's encounters with pseudotranslation Julie Loison Charles demonstrates the influence this had on his practice as both a translator and a writer arguing that this experience was crucial to his ability to create bridges between the literary traditions of Europe Russia and America The book also triangulates his practice and theory of translation for Onegin with those of Chateaubriand and Venuti to illuminate Nabokov's transnational vision of literature and his ethics of translation before presenting a robust case for reconsidering his collaborative translations in French as mediated self translations

The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee,1972 Poétique de l'intime Sandra Cheilan,2015 C'est au cœur d'une crise de la représentation et de la transparence intérieures provoquée par les découvertes scientifiques sur le psychisme que Proust Woolf et Pessoa fabriquent une poétique de l'intime. Néanmoins dans des zones géographiques complémentaires dont Paris représente le centre d'influence les œuvres de ces trois auteurs constituent les jalons d'un parcours littéraire qui va de l'invention proustienne du roman intime la constitution intranquille de l'intime fiction chez Pessoa en passant par les pratiques de écriture féminine et politique de la Recherche qui nourrissent la fiction woolfienne. Invention appropriation d'un passement tels sont les moments de la micro histoire de ce qui s'apparente une tendance du roman dans les premières décennies du XXe siècle construire un espace soit un espace fictionnel de représentation de l'intime. Du dialogisme de la notion au dialogue avec la tradition des genres autobiographiques et avec les discours psychologiques de l'oblique de la parole intérieure la découverte d'une polyphonie mentale il s'agit de retracer les zones de dissension d'altérité d'hybridité et de tranche de l'intime. En insistant sur le dualisme de la notion la dialectique de l'intimité et de l'altérité constitue le fil directeur de l'ouvrage. Sandra Cheilan s'attache à cerner une poétique au sens étymologique de fabriquer et au sens esthétique de dispositifs mis en place par les auteurs pour représenter la diversité de la vie intime. Conscientes qui mettent en jeu la dialectique du corps et de la pensée de soi et de l'autre du dedans et du dehors le roman revalorise l'infra ordinaire ce qui se joue en dedans du romanesque et du notable jusqu'aux limites de la représentation et du dicible.
