Transnationalism And Urbanism Routledge Research In Transnationalism:

Transnationalism and Urbanism Stefan Krätke, Kathrin Wildner, Stephan Lanz, 2012 The formation of transnational urban spaces is a relevant and challenging field of interdisciplinary research which deserves much more debate in order to deepen our understanding of generating and restructuring urban spaces under conditions of contemporary globalisation processes This edited collection reflects current studies on the relation of transnationalism and urbanism Scholars from disciplines including Geography Ethnography and Urban Planning discuss theoretical approaches methodology and case studies on processes of the production of urban spaces through global economic value chains socio cultural practices and political governance strategies Cities are appropriate sites for an examination of the spatial dimension of transnationality because this is where global processes are concentrated localized transformed and materialize In this context urban space is not merely to be regarded as a setting for transnational practices but as a constituent force of transnationalism in all its manifestations

The Routledge International Handbook of Transnational Studies Margit Fauser, Xóchitl Bada, 2024-01-23 The Routledge International Handbook of Transnational Studies offers a comprehensive overview of the dynamic evolution and the most recent debates in this interdisciplinary field The collection assembles scholarship from the social sciences and the humanities that share a critical perspective extending beyond the nation state The contributions investigate sustained connections events and activities across state borders and acknowledge prevailing global power asymmetries The handbook examines the dynamics of transnational processes across seven main themes epistemological and methodological principles transnational migrant practices and family remittances mobilities and self identities social protection organizations and social movements culture religion and the arts and architecture and urban planning The contributors engage with theoretical developments and analyze empirical cases involving a wide array of critical contemporary topics such as expatriate voting first and second generation return migration state sponsored cross border marriages access to health care transnational social work global religious aesthetics transnational art corridors literary translation remittance financed architecture and transnational processes of real estate development and gentrification among others They display a series of cross cutting approaches including postcolonial theory racism and gender and a focus on agency state policies and macro structures and transnational inequalities This book features multidisciplinary scholars in transnational studies from Australia Belgium Canada Finland Germany Italy Malaysia Mexico the Philippines Poland Spain Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States This handbook will be of interest to scholars interested in global and transnational perspectives across a wide range of disciplines It will serve as a key resource for academics students and other interested audiences seeking to familiarize themselves with the study of contemporary issues that cross state borders

Handbook on Transnationalism Yeoh, Brenda S.A., Collins, Francis L., 2022-01-18 Providing a critical overview of transnationalism as a concept this Handbook looks at its growing influence in an era of high speed globalised interconnectivity It offers crucial insights on how approaches to transnationalism have altered how we think about social life from the family to the nation state whilst also challenging the predominance of methodologically nationalist analyses

Transnational Ties John Eade, Michael Peter Smith, 2011-12-31 Cities are key sites of the transnational ties that increasingly connect people places and projects across the globe They provide opportunities and constraints within which transnational actors and networks operate and nodes linking wider social formations traverse national borders This book brings together a series of richly textured ethnographic studies that suggest new ways to situate and historicize transnationalism identify new pathways to transnational urbanism and map the contours of translocal interregional and diasporic connections not previously studied The transnational ties treated in this book truly span the globe giving concrete meaning to the phrase globalization from below How have the contributors to this book conceptualized the wider context informing the conduct of their ethnographically grounded multi sited research on the relationship between cities migration and transnationalism Several interrelated contextual dimensions have been singled out as affecting the opportunities and constraints experienced by transnational migrant subjects Socio spatially in several of these chapters the political economic context now called neoliberal globalization is shown to be a key driving force creating conditions that necessitate facilitate or impede migration foster trans local economic ties and create new inter regional interdependencies e g new South South and East East transnational ties The changing historical context of both migrating groups and the cities and regions they move across are central to the study of the interplay of urban change and migrant transnationalism The historical particularities of migrant recruitment migration histories migratory narratives and changing gender and class relations all affect the character and geography of transnational migration with an impact on the social structures of community formation This is a pioneering effort in the Comparative Urban and Community Research series

Citizenship across Borders Michael Peter Smith, Matt Bakker, 2011-05-02 Michael Peter Smith and Matt Bakker spent five years carrying out ethnographic field research in multiple communities in the Mexican states of Zacatecas and Guanajuato and various cities in California particularly metropolitan Los Angeles Combining the information they gathered there with political economic and institutional analysis the five extended case studies in Citizenship across Borders offer a new way of looking at the emergent dynamics of transnational community development and electoral politics on both sides of the border Smith and Bakker highlight the continuing significance of territorial identifications and state policies particularly those of the sending state in cultivating and sustaining transnational connections and practices In so doing they contextualize and make sense of the complex interplay of identity and loyalty in the lives of transnational migrant activists In contrast to high profile warnings of the dangers to national cultures and political institutions brought about by long distance nationalism and dual citizenship Citizenship across Borders demonstrates that far from undermining loyalty and diminishing engagement in U S political life the practice of dual citizenship by Mexican migrants actually provides a sense of empowerment that fosters migrants active civic engagement in American as well as Mexican politics

Landscape Urbanism and its Discontents Andr s Duany,Emily Talen,2013-06-11 Landscape Urbanism vs the New Urbanism negotiating the relationship between cities and the natural world

Migration, Transnationalism, and Faith in Missiological Perspective Kirsteen Kim,Alexia Salvatierra,2022-04-04 Los Angeles is a global crossroads of migrating communities that presents a case study of migration transnationalism and interfaith engagement with significant implications for thinking and practice in other global hubs This book weaves together contributions from internationally recognized scholars who were brought together for the 2020 Missiology Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary They examine historical waves of migration European Protestant Asian Latino a and Muslim into Southern California and use sociological missiological and theological methods to understand the experience of migration and its effects both on those who move and those who are already there The result shows how migrants are inspired and sustained by faith and spiritual resources how migration challenges faith communities about their identity and attitudes to others how faith communities in turn impact the migration landscape through immigrant integration and public advocacy and how migration forges new transnational and global ways of being in community and innovative religious movements The contributors put forward a mission theology of migration and suggest mission practices in response to the suffering caused by forced migration and the injustices of immigration systems

Transnational Business Cultures Dr Fiona Moore,2012-10-01 This volume explores how the idea of culture is used and exploited by transnational managers to further their own ambitions and their companies strategies for expansion It thus provides a more complex picture of culture than has previously been presented in business studies in that it deals with the strategic value of culture within organizations rather than viewing it as a neutral concept and through using qualitative methodologies gives us a full picture of the lived experience of culture in a multinational corporation It also considers the impact of global corporate activity on both national and organizational cultures as well as looking specifically at the ways in which communications technology is used as a site of conflict and negotiation in business This book will be an invaluable resource for both researchers and professionals yielding important new insights into the roles of local and global cultures in the operation of transnational corporations Making

Cities Global A. K. Sandoval-Strausz, Nancy H. Kwak, 2018 Making Cities Global argues that combining urban history with a transnational approach leads to a better understanding of our increasingly interconnected world In order to achieve prosperity peace and sustainability in metropolitan areas in the present and into the future we must understand their historical origins and development Transnational Student Return Migration and Megacities in China Zhe

Wang, 2023-05-13 This book is a study of the return migration of overseas Chinese students By 2018 over 3.5 million Chinese students had returned from overseas universities to China with the megacities of Beijing Shanghai and Shenzhen representing by far their main destinations In other words when overseas students return to China many do not return to their hometown but usually land work and settle down in Beijing Shanghai and Shenzhen Their return migration is thus not only transnational but also internal urban This book adopts a multi level geographical analysis to explore this important phenomenon exploring why and how returnees choose these three cities and how they experience and interpret their everyday lives in these megacities after their return In doing so it highlights the importance of cultural logics and multiscalar thinking of transnational Chinese students return migration and illuminates how their transnational migration reproduces domestic socio spatial inequalities This book brings an important contribution to the fields of Cultural Geography Urban Geography Transnationalism Migration Studies and Citizenship Studies Media Heterotopias Hye Jean

Chung, 2018-02-22 In Media Heterotopias Hye Jean Chung challenges the widespread tendency among audiences and critics to disregard the material conditions of digital film production Drawing on interviews with directors producers special effects supervisors and other film industry workers Chung traces how the rhetorical and visual emphasis on seamlessness masks the social political and economic realities of global filmmaking and digital labor In films such as Avatar 2009 Interstellar 2014 and The Host 2006 which combine live action footage with CGI to create new hybrid environments filmmaking techniques and seamless digital effects allow the globally dispersed labor involved to go unnoticed by audiences Chung adapts Foucault's notion of heterotopic spaces to foreground this labor and to theorize cinematic space as a textured multilayered assemblage in which filmmaking occurs in transnational collaborations that depend upon the global movement of bodies resources images and commodities Acknowledging cinema's increasingly digitized and globalized workflow Chung reconnects digitally constructed and composited imagery with the reality of production spaces and laboring bodies to highlight the political social ethical and aesthetic stakes in recognizing the materiality of collaborative filmmaking The Wiley-Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies Anthony M. Orum, 2019-04-15 Provides comprehensive coverage of major topics in urban and regional studies Under the guidance of Editor in Chief Anthony Orum this definitive reference work covers central and emergent topics in the field through an examination of urban and regional conditions and variation across the world It also provides authoritative entries on the main conceptual tools used by anthropologists sociologists geographers and political scientists in the study of cities and regions Among such concepts are those of place and space geographical regions the nature of power and politics in cities urban culture and many others The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies captures the character of complex urban and regional dynamics across the globe including timely entries on Latin America Africa India and China At the same time it contains illuminating entries on some of the current concepts that seek to grasp the essence of the global world today such as those of Friedmann and Sassen on global cities It also includes discussions of recent economic writings on cities and regions such as those of Richard Florida Comprised of over 450 entries on the most important topics and from a range of theoretical perspectives Features authoritative entries on topics ranging from gender and the city to biographical profiles of figures like Frank Lloyd Wright Takes a global perspective with entries providing coverage of Latin America and Africa India and China and the US and Europe Includes biographies of central figures in urban and regional studies such as Doreen Massey Peter Hall Neil Smith and Henri Lefebvre The Wiley Blackwell Encyclopedia of Urban and Regional Studies is an indispensable reference for students and researchers in urban and regional studies urban sociology urban geography and urban anthropology

The Modern/Colonial/Capitalist World-System in the Twentieth Century Ramón Grosfoguel, Ana Margarita Cervantes-Rodríguez, 2002-07-30 An important building block for further advancing world system theory this book considers the theory from the perspectives of global processes and antisystemic movements feminist theory and the aftermath of the colonial system The volume addresses three myths tied to Eurocentric forms of thinking objectivist and universalist knowledges the decolonization of the modern world and developmentalism All three myths the authors argue conceal the continued hierarchical and unequal relations of domination and exploitation between European and Euro American centers and non European peripheral regions In this volume world system scholars address these and related aspects of the modern colonial capitalist world system Addressing the myth of universalist knowledge the volume reminds us that our knowledge is situated in the gender class racial and sexual hierarchies of a specific region in the world system while the colonality of power additionally situates our knowledge The volume further argues that the postcolonial era retains the hierarchy of colonialism and the possibility of national development without global structural changes is one of the greatest 20th century myths Taking these perspectives into consideration the contributors examine and help to refine classic world system theory

Traversing Transnational Biomedical Landscapes Judith Schühle, 2020-04-02 In the age of globalization the transnational dimension of sciences like medicine seems to be given However the agents connecting different parts of this transnational biomedical landscape have yet to receive their due attention Situated at the intersection of contemporary debates as well as theories of medical anthropology and migration in the 21st century this book explores the experiences of Nigerian trained physicians who migrated to the US and the UK within the last 40 years By drawing on individual professional life stories Judith Sch hle illuminates how these physicians disconnect from and re connect to diverse local social and biomedical contexts becoming established abroad while at the same time trying to influence health care services in Nigeria through transnational endeavors

African Cities Through Local Eyes Giuseppe Faldi, Axel Fisher, Luisa Moretto, 2021-10-16 This book provides readers with a wide overview of place based planning and design experiments addressing such powerful transformations in the African built environment This continent is currently undergoing fast paced urban institutional and environmental changes which have stimulated an increasing interest for alternative architectural solutions urban designs and comprehensive planning experiments The international and balanced array of the collected contributions explore emerging research concepts for understanding urban and peri urban processes in Africa discuss bottom up planning and design practices and present inspirational and innovative co design methods and participatory tools for steering such change through public spaces sustainable services and infrastructures The book is intended for students researchers decision makers and practitioners engaged in planning and design for the built environment in Africa and the Global South at large Transnationalism

Raymond Anthony Rocco, 2006 Well known social scientist and humanist from USA Latin America and Spain such as Saskia Sassen Garc a Canclini or Monsivais worked together at an international conference held in Los Angeles Cal in order to make a compelling case for the transnational as an operative analytical category Their essays collected in this volume consider how cultural studies political analysis urban studies and the study of migrations change when using a sort of a transnational perspective that goes beyond the economic determinism underlying the liberal concept of globalization and the more critical of mundialization After an introduction that carves out a scientific space for a transnational frame of reference and clarifies its political dimensions the book deals with three main issues the interaction of global supra national and local infra national forces in global cities post metropolis and other post national spaces a critical consideration of current use of modern political discourse from the oxymoronic notion of world citizenship to the ambivalent realities of human rights and how transnational forces and scapes subvert collective imaginaries figurations identities and memories that formed the cultural core of nation alism
