Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations:

Trauma and Cinema E. Ann Kaplan, Ban Wang, 2004-02-01 This volume addresses the relation of trauma to transnational modern mass media The first of its kind Trauma and Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations provides ten essays which explore the ways trauma works itself out as media in images in and as film photography and video in global cultural flows The focus of our volume on the matrix of trauma visual media and modernity seeks to engage and go beyond current tendencies in trauma studies The book discusses how trauma presented in the media spills over national boundaries and can be found in images across divergent cultures in Africa Asia Australia Europe and America From the Holocaust to the Chinese Cultural Revolution from Taiwan's colonial experience to the catastrophe of Hiroshima from attempted annihilation of Australian Aborigines to attempted reconciliation in South Africa these essays offer the reader a plethora of images of trauma for comparison and contrast Italian Experiences of Trauma through Film and Media Alberto Baracco, Rosario

Pollicino, 2022-03-17 This volume offers new approaches to considering Italy's traumatic experiences through a wide array of media including film documentaries docufiction websites YouTube videos advertisements newspapers and literature that have not yet been fully analyzed It looks at the trauma inflicted on Italians not simply as national or cultural traumas but rather as the creation identification of subnational and transnational communities shaped by these trauma cases The term subnational or transnational community is used mostly in reference to human beings as they form those communities however they are also connected to a specific place namely Italy In addition whereas things cannot become traumatized this book also considers living things such as the environment and the nature which may create further traumas for people

Ephemeral Coast: Visualizing Coastal Climate Change Celina Jeffery, 2022-08-02 Ephemeral Coast Visualizing Coastal Climate Change considers the ways that art can offer a means through which to discover analyze re imagine and re frame emotive discourses about the ecological and cultural transformations of the coastline This edited anthology takes ephemerality as its central conceptual and methodological framework and presents a series of essays that create interconnections between environmental and social considerations of the coast a succession of embodied creative practices and shifting regional geographic identities The book presents a series of specific case studies of artistic practices and strategies that seek to capture the rewriting of cartographic maps that are being reshaped by rising seas coastal flooding and catastrophic weather The essays in this edited volume engender creative strategies for understanding new and uncertain coastal ecologies and the loss expulsion or destruction of their associated cultures habitats species and ecosystems The anthology also looks at the historical mnemonic and contemporary transitional conditions of conflicted coastal spaces in which empire modernity and globalization press on coastal erosion and incursions proliferate it with trivial plastics pollution and disposable attitudes and bring vulnerable communities into uncertain futures Ecologies of the Moving Image Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2013-10-07 This book presents an ecophilosophy of cinema an account of the moving image in relation to the lived ecologies material social and perceptual relations within which movies are produced consumed and incorporated into cultural life If cinema takes us on mental and emotional journeys the author argues that those journeys that have reshaped our understanding of ourselves life and the Earth and universe A range of styles are examined from ethnographic and wildlife documentaries westerns and road movies sci fi blockbusters and eco disaster films to the experimental and art films of Tarkovsky Herzog Malick and Brakhage to YouTube s expanding audio visual universe Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg,2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today s global arena

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory Edward Branigan,Warren Buckland,2013-12-04 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an international reference work representing the essential ideas and concepts at the centre of film theory from the beginning of the twentieth century to the beginning of the twenty first When first encountering film theory students are often confronted with a dense interlocking set of texts full of arcane terminology inexact formulations sliding definitions and abstract generalities The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory challenges these first impressions by aiming to make film theory accessible and open to new readers Edward Branigan and Warren Buckland have commissioned over 50 scholars from around the globe to address the difficult formulations and propositions in each theory by reducing these difficult formulations to straightforward propositions The result is a highly accessible volume that clearly defines and analyzes step by step many of the fundamental concepts in film theory ranging from familiar concepts such as Apparatus Gaze Genre and Identification to less well known and understood but equally important concepts such as Alain Badiou s Inaesthetics Gilles Deleuze s Time Image and Jean Luc Nancy s Evidence The Routledge Encyclopedia of Film Theory is an ideal reference book for undergraduates of film studies as well as graduate students new to the discipline Chinese and Japanese Films on the Second World War King-fai Tam,Timothy Y. Tsu,Sandra Wilson,2014-10-24 This book examines representations of the Second World War in postwar Chinese and Japanese cinema Drawing on a wide range of scholarly disciplines and analysing a wide range of films it demonstrates the potential of war movies for understanding contemporary China and Japan It shows how the war is remembered in both countries including the demonisation of Japanese soldiers in postwar socialist era Chinese movies and the pervasive sense of victimhood in Japanese memories of the war However it also shows how some Chinese directors were experimenting with alternative interpretations of the war from as early as the 1950s and how despite the resurgence of nationalism in Japan since the 1980s the production of Japanese movies critical of the war has continued

Emotion Pictures Lucy Fischer, 2022-11-07 This book investigates a group of exceptional films that single-mindedly consider one particular emotion be it pity lust grief or anxiety to examine cinematic emotion in depth Drawing on philosophical and psychological approaches Fischer's unique analysis offers unparalleled case studies for comprehending emotion in the movies The book provides the reader with an opportunity to contemplate what notion of a particular emotion is advanced onscreen to describe how the unique tools and aesthetics of cinema are utilized to do so to place such representations in dialogue with film theory as well as philosophical and psychological commentary and to illustrate the important dichotomy between filmic portrayals and audience response Beyond film and media scholars and students this book will have resonance for academics and practitioners in several fields of psychology including social work psychiatry and therapy

Documentary Testimonies Bhaskar Sarkar, Janet Walker, 2009-12-04 This volume examines documentary films that compel us to bear witness move us to anger or tears and possibly mobilize us to action The essays gathered here analyze questions regarding the usefulness and legitimacy of documentary testimony What is the value of the historical archive the televised public hearings or activist online videos constitute Is it made part of the official record or dismissed as renegade or ephemeral To what extent can documentary bring about social change How do the documentary testimonies compensate for or account for the frailty of memory

Identity and Pleasure Ariel Heryanto, 2014 The years following the fall of Suharto have been full of promises of liberation but also apprehension for the future The period brought an unprecedented rise in the public profile of Islamic politics new and public debates on past human rights violations protracted and irrevocable divisions within top political elite the rise of Asian popular culture and a digital communication revolution passionately welcomed by young Indonesians along with youths all around the world Identity and Pleasure The Politics of Indonesian Screen Culture critically examines what media and screen culture reveal about the ways urban-based Indonesians attempted to redefine their identity in the first decade of this century Through a richly nuanced analysis of their expressions and representations across screen culture cinema television and social media it analyses the waves of energy and optimism and the disillusionment disorientation and despair that arose in the power vacuum after the dramatic collapse of the militaristic New Order government The overall narrative provides much reason for optimism but it also suggests that the deep reservoir of creativity that gave rise to Indonesia's local hybrid modernities has been targeted by competing grounds of modernists who favour a narrow definition of what it means to be Indonesian A co-publication with the Center for Southeast Asian Studies Kyoto University

Film, History and Cultural Citizenship Tina Mai Chen, David S. Churchill, 2007 This new book investigates the relationship of film to history power memory and cultural citizenship The book is concerned with two central issues firstly the participation of film and filmmakers in articulating and challenging projects of modernity and secondly the role of film in shaping particular understandings of self and other to evoke collective notions of belonging These issues call for interdisciplinary and multi layered analyses that are ideally met through dialogue across place time identities and genres The contributors to this volume enable this dialogue by considering the ways in which cultural expression and identity expressed through film serve to create notions of belonging group identity and entitlement within modern societies

Journal of Dramatic Theory and Criticism ,2013 Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium Lee

Carruthers,Charles Tepperman,2023-01-15 At the turn of the millennium Canadian cinema appeared to have reached an apex of aesthetic and commercial transformation Domestic filmmaking has since declined in visibility the sense of celebrity once associated with independent directors has diminished projects garner less critical attention and concepts that made late twentieth century Canadian film legible have been reconsidered or displaced Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium examines this dramatic transformation and revitalizes our engagement with Canadian cinema in the contemporary moment presenting focused case studies of films and filmmakers and contextual studies of Canadian film policy labour and film festivals Contributors trace key developments since 2000 including the renouveau or Quebec New Wave Indigenous filmmaking i docs and diasporic experimental filmmaking Reflecting the way film in Canada mediates multiple cultures forging new affinities among anglophone francophone and Indigenous language examples this book engages familiar figures such as Denis Villeneuve Xavier Dolan Sarah Polley and Guy Maddin in the same breath as small budget independent films documentaries and experimental works that have emerged in the Canadian scene Fuelled by close attention to the films themselves and a desire to develop new scholarly approaches Canadian Cinema in the New Millennium models a renewed commitment to keeping the conversation about Canadian cinema vibrant and alive The Camp Colman Hogan,Marta

Marin-Dòmène,2007 The camp is nothing if not diverse in kind scope and particularity in sociological and juridical configuration in texture iconography and political import Adjectives of camp specificity embrace a spectrum from extermination and concentration to detention migration deportation and refugee camps And while the geographic range covered by contributors is hardly global it is broad Chile Rwanda Canada the US Central Europe Morocco Algeria South Africa France and Spain And yet is to so characterize the camp to run the risk of diffusing what in origin is a concentration into a paratactical series of oidentity particularisms While The Camp does not seek to antithetically promulgate a universalist vision it does aim to explore the imbrication of the particular and the universal to analyze the structure of a camp or camps and to call attention the role of the listener in the construction of the testimony For by naming what cannot be said is not every narrative of internment and exclusion a potential site of agency articulating the inner splitting of language that Giorgio Agamben defines as the locus of testimony oeto bear witness is to place oneself in one TM s own language in the position of those who have lost it to establish oneself in a living language as if it were dead or in a dead language as if it were living Shocking Representation Adam Lowenstein,2005 How the modern horror film has represented the social conflicts left in the wake of national trauma The Hollywood Historical Film Robert Burgoyne, 2008-02-11 Takes you on a cinematic journey through the controversial portrayal of history on film from the swashbuckling epics of the silent era to up to the minute dramas like World Trade Center With thought provoking analysis this work examines the power of historic films to entertain and promote national myths while influencing public opinion Perverse Implantations Laura Christian, 2006 Gender and Allegory in Transamerican Fiction and Performance Katherine Sugg, 2008-09-15 By rethinking contemporary debates regarding the politics of aesthetic forms Gender and Allegory in Transamerican Fiction and Performance explores how allegory can be used to resolve the problem of identity in both political theory and literary studies Examining fiction and performance from Zo Vald s and Cherr e Moraga to Def Poetry Jam and Carmelita Tropicana Sugg suggests that the representational oscillations of allegory can reflect and illuminate the fraught dynamics of identity discourses and categories in the Americas Using a wide array of theoretical and aesthetic sources from the United States Latin America and the Caribbean this book argues for the crucial and potentially transformative role of feminist cultural production in transamerican public cultures Schirmer Encyclopedia of Film Barry Keith Grant, 2007 This reference source covers all aspects of the cinema including film history production national cinemas genre theory and criticism and cultural contexts Representing Atrocity in Taiwan Sylvia Li-chun Lin, 2007 In 1945 Taiwan was placed under the administrative control of the Republic of China and after two years accusations of corruption and a failing economy sparked a local protest that was brutally quashed by the Kuomintang government The February Twenty Eighth or 2 28 Incident led to four decades of martial law that became known as the White Terror During this period talk of 2 28 was forbidden and all dissent violently suppressed but since the lifting of martial law in 1987 this long buried history has been revisited through commemoration and narrative cinema and remembrance Drawing on a wealth of secondary theoretical material as well as her own original research Sylvia Li chun Lin conducts a close analysis of the political narrative and ideological structures involved in the fictional and cinematic representations of the 2 28 Incident and White Terror She assesses the role of individual and collective memory and institutionalized forgetting while underscoring the dangers of re creating a historical past and the risks of trivialization She also compares her findings with scholarly works on the Holocaust and the aftermath of the atomic bombings of Japan questioning the politics of forming public and personal memories and the political teleology of closure This is the first book to be published in English on the 2 28 Incident and White Terror and offers a valuable matrix of comparison for studying the portrayal of atrocity in a specific locale

Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations Introduction

In today's digital age, the availability of Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals for download has revolutionized the way we access information. Gone are the days of physically flipping through pages and carrying heavy textbooks or manuals. With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
