The Dark Womb Karen O'Donnell,2022-02-28 The experience of reproductive loss raises a series of profoundly theological questions how can God have a plan for my life Why didn't God answer my prayers How can I have hope after such an experience Who am I after such a loss Sadly these are questions that along with reproductive loss have largely been ignored in theology Karen O'Donnell tackles these questions head on drawing on her own experiences of repeated reproductive loss as she re-conceives theology from the perspective of the miscarrying person Offering a fresh original and creative approach to theology O'Donnell explores the complexity of the miscarrying body and its potential for theological revelation She offers a re-conception of theologies of providence prayer hope and the body as she reimagines theology out of these messy origins This book is for those who have experiences such as losses and those who minister to them But it is also for all those who want to encounter a creative and imaginative approach to theology and the life of faith in our messy complex world

The Emotionally Abusive Mindset Anne Dryburgh,2023-02-07 How this book can help you This book is a resource which provides insights into what emotional abuse looks like across a spectrum of relationships It considers how someone with an abusive way of thinking tends to operate The book does not cover physical or sexual abuse but is designed to give some key basic information. It would be helpful if other people would take these insights and explore biblical answers for helping them in an in depth manner. The author's hope is that this book will help open this discussion. Praise for The Emotionally Abusive Mindset. The Emotionally Abusive Mindset is written from the heart of a seasoned biblical counselor, Anne Dryburgh. The third book in her Overcoming Emotional Abuse series dives deeper into recognizing the mind frame of the abuser and the victim in various relationships. Her insights evoke a depth of discernment coupled with understanding and sympathy for those caught in the destruction of emotional abuse. This book will help pastors and biblical counselors obtain the biblical acumen to recognize abusive relationships and give sound counsel that produces a transformational change in Christ. Shannon Kay McCoy, Certified Biblical Counselor, Biblical Counseling Director, Valley Center Community Church, Council Member of Biblical Counseling Coalition, Author of Help I'm A Slave to Food. In an engaging and truly readable style, Anne manages to present complex issues in an accessible way. Anne explores what an abusive mindset actually looks like, not just in clear definitions but through examples and story. The second part of the book is especially helpful, showing that in Christ there is true hope for everyone. But Anne does not leave this hope as some ethereal aim; rather, she grounds it in real and practical ideas. As with the other books in this series, it will prove to be a valuable resource for both professionals and non professionals alike, as well as providing victims and perpetrators of abuse a guide as to how to live out a truly godly life. Simon Marshall, International Director, European Christian Mission. For a concise biblically focused response to emotional abuse, this is your book. Anne Dryburgh aptly presents various expressions of spousal, parent, sibling, disabled, spiritual, and elderly abuse. Then, navigating with biblical skill in a complex arena, she identifies common, well intentioned behavioral and spiritual mistakes and debunks the misuse of Scripture. Based upon the relational, functional, and substantive callings of every believer, which are carefully explained, The Emotionally Abusive Mindset champions the choice to honor God rather than yielding to an abuser's desires. This book packs a powerfully hopeful worldview into 100 pages. A helpful tool for abuse survivors and their counselors. Sue Nicewander Delaney, MABC, ACBC. Anne has done it again. Her writing is perspicuous, theologically accurate, and practical. If you think you might be being abused by a boyfriend or girlfriend, a spouse, or a spiritual leader, this small book may help you confirm or disconfirm your perception. If you are a pastor or counselor wondering if you are dealing with a case of abuse, or if an elder or deacon has an abusive mindset, Anne can come to your rescue. Howard Eyrich, MA, ThM, D Min, Director of Doctor of Ministry Program, Birmingham Theological Seminary, USA.

Speaking of Rape Danielle Tumminio Hansen, 2024-03-19. Rape survivors need speech to recover, to tell the story of their harm, to rebuild their sense of self and their place in the world. But the words available to them often fail to describe their experience of the violation, which isolates and silences them, enables future perpetration, and lets rape remain unacknowledged. Tumminio Hansen steps into this space of the seemingly unspeakable and responds to the linguistic crisis by offering fresh ways of speaking and listening that reframe how we can describe, discuss, and address rape.

Bravely weaving first person narrative with the wisdom of psychologists philosophers theologians and restorative justice experts Speaking of Rape revolutionizes our ways of understanding the scope and nature of sexual violations in order to revolutionize how we respond to them

Stories of Therapy, Stories of Faith Lex McMillan, Sarah Penwarden, Siobhan Hunt, 2017-03-28 Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith is a collection of stories from therapists who have amplified the theology already present in their work In particular these authors a group of counseling practitioners and educators bring forward a dialogue between their practices and a social Trinitarian theology that emphasizes the relational nature of God and humans The resulting stories of practice give voice to the ethical hope that counseling practice is participation in the redemptive story of the Gospel The authors write about their motivations for practice in initiatives as diverse as parenting trauma work opposing bullying in schools reengaging orphaned African children with their heritage providing hospitality for difference and counselor education Stories of Therapy Stories of Faith will be of interest to counselors and counselor educators particularly those drawn to developing their ethical and theological commitments within their therapeutic practices

Negotiating Identities Anders Runesson, Cecilia Wassén, Karin Hedner Zetterholm, Magnus Zetterholm, 2022-10-03 Covering the period from 200 BCE to 600 CE this book describes important aspects of identity formation processes within early Judaism and Christianity and shows how negotiations involving issues of ethnicity stereotyping purity commensality and institution building contributed to the forming of group identities Over time some of these Jewish group identities evolved into non Jewish Christian identities others into a rabbinic Jewish identity while yet others remained somewhere in between The contributors to this volume trace these developments in archaeological remains as well as in texts from the Qumran movement the New Testament and the reception of Paul's writings rabbinic literature and apocryphal and pseudepigraphical writings such as the Book of Dreams and the Pseudo Clementine Homilies The long timespan covered in the volume together with the combined expertise of scholars from various fields make this book a unique contribution to research on group identity Jewish and Christian identity formation the Partings of the ways between Judaism and Christianity and interactions between Jews and Christians

The Impact of Violence on Mental Health Janice Lynn Ristock, Canada. Mental Health Division, 1995 Literature on family violence is constantly being updated and areas of research are being expanded as step by step more is learned about the nature and breadth of this issue This document is meant to be a resource both for those people interested in an overview of the subject and for those interested in investigating particular research areas For example students and other academics may find this guide useful as a resource for their courses and research Health and social service providers self help groups or concerned individuals may similarly be interested Researchers into family violence on the other hand may find this resource useful in revealing findings from the practice setting A substantial part of this literature was developed as a direct outcome of the numerous projects funded under the Family Violence Initiative of the federal government
