Trauma Recalled Liturgy Disruption And Theology:

Trauma Recalled Dirk G. Lange, 2010 Christian commitment and Christian theology both are tempted by complacency Yet Dirk Lange asserts both are brought up short by keen awareness of the traumatic events that liturgy recalls and that theology seeks to explicate Recalling Martin Luther's great demurrals about a theology of glory Lange reminds us that Christianity begins with exposure to the primal trauma the cross at the core of the Christian story Ruptured Voices:

Trauma and Recovery Karen O'Donnell, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Trauma is no longer and perhaps has never been an uncommon occurrence it is now commonplace in human experience Notoriously difficult to define when one tries to offer a definition of trauma that works across disciplines and beyond the boundaries of subjects one enters a new territory This collection participates in a reconstructive movement in which the boundaries of trauma trauma theory and trauma recovery are flung wide The vastly differing experiences contexts and critical reflections of the contributors serve to ensure this monograph offers a fresh voice in the field of Trauma Studies This collection of essays on trauma seeks to open dialogue and expand discussion Blurring the boundaries of traditional disciplinary lines this monograph strives to interrupt and rupture the debate on trauma It is in the fissures created by such rupture that new and compelling voices can be heard Liturgy & Power Flanagan, Brian P., Vento Johann M., 2017-05-18

Post-Traumatic Public Theology Stephanie N. Arel, Shelly Rambo, 2016-11-02 This book imagines new modes of religious response to trauma moving beyond simple answers to the why of human suffering toward discussions of profound expressions of faith in the aftermath of trauma Engaging current realities such as war race and climate change chapters feature specific locations from which theology is done and draw on the resources of Christian faith in order to respond This volume recognizes religious leaders as first responders to trauma and offers theological reflections that can stand up in the current realities of violence and its aftermath The writings provide models for how to integrate the language of faith with the literature of trauma Feminist Trauma Theologies Karen O'Donnell, Katie Cross, 2025-01-30 Throughout the study of trauma theology runs a lineage that is deeply feminist As traumatic experience is being more frequently acknowledged in public this book seeks to articulate an explicit understanding of feminist trauma theology for the first time Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between trauma and feminist theologies highlighting methodological theological and practical similarities between the two The MeToo and ChurchToo movements sexual abuse scandals gender based violence pregnancy loss and the oppression of women in church spaces are all featured as important topics With contributions from a diverse team of scholars this book is an essential resource for all thinkers and practitioners who are trying to navigate the current conversations around theology suffering and feminism Affect Theory, Shame, and Christian Formation Stephanie N. Arel, 2016-11-08 This book addresses the eclipse of shame in Christian theology by showing how shame emerges in Christian texts and practice in ways that can be neither assimilated into a discourses of guilt nor dissociated from embodiment Stephanie N Arel argues that the traditional focus on guilt obscures shame by perpetuating the image of the lonely sinner in guilt Drawing on recent studies in affect and attachment theories to frame the theological analysis the text examines the theological anthropological writings of Augustine and Reinhold Niebuhr the interpretation of empathy by Edith Stein and moments of touch in Christian praxis Bringing the affective dynamics of shame to the forefront enables theologians and religious leaders to identify where shame emerges in language and human behavior The text expands work in trauma theory providing a multi layered theological lens for engaging shame and accompanying suffering

Enfleshed Counter-Memory Edwards, Stephanie C.,2024-12-18 Builds a Christian social ethic of trauma that offers realistic hope for our world Care for the Sorrowing Soul Duane Larson,Jeff Zust,2017-10-26 Moral Injury is now recognized as a growing major problem for military men and women Operant conditioning can overwhelm moral convictions and yet the question of whether to shoot or not to shoot often will never have a settled answer Certain theories and treatment models about MI have been well developed but too often overlook root issues of religious faith The authors propose a new model for understanding moral injury and suggest ways to mitigate its virtually inevitable occurrence in pre combat training and ways to resolve MI post trauma with proven spiritual resources People outside the military too among whom the incidence of MI also is a growing threat will benefit from this analysis The stories of the injured their shaping and their telling are the key and there are many illumining stories of moral injury and recovery Those who suffer MI their families and caregivers including counselors pastors and faith communities will find hope giving first steps toward the healing of MI in this book Between Pain and Grace Gerald Peterman,Andrew Schmutzer,2016-05-23 Why is there suffering When will it end Where is God in it Despite how common suffering is we still struggle to understand it and even more to bear through it Between Pain and Grace gets to the heart of this struggle Its honest and detailed portrait of life challenges our assumptions about pain emotion and God himself Born from a popular college course on suffering this book answers critical questions like Is God personally involved in our pain and suffering How should Christians handle emotions like grief and anger What does the Bible say about issues like mental illness sexual abuse and family betrayal Striking an elegant balance between being scholarly and pastoral Between Pain and Grace is useful in the classroom churches and for personal reading The authors draw from Scripture personal experience and even psychological research to offer a well rounded and trustworthy take on suffering Between Pain and Grace will give you confidence in God s sovereignty comfort in His presence and wisdom for life this side of paradise It will also make you more tender and better prepared to respond to the suffering of others Read it today for a richer more realistic relationship with God Intergenerational Catechesis timone a davis,2021-03-12 In this work the author moves away from youth centered catechesis toward a catechetical method that gets at the heart of faith formation for ALL generations storytelling In the African American storytelling tradition both the storyteller and listener are important they embody the story What happens in the story exchange process is the discovery of connections The author s method of

African American storytelling My Story Your Story brings to life the Christian story through our shared experiences Intergenerational catechesis invites us to see ourselves and one another across time through eyes that are young middle aged and elderly Based on an understanding of family intergenerational catechesis moves away from the domestic church as a starting point for growing in faith to the community as a starting point Where the domestic church focuses on those who live in the household intergenerational catechesis focuses on everyone in the Church community single persons divorced persons widows widowers teens young adults pre school and elementary children parents grandparents aunts and uncles In highlighting our connections we are better able to see ourselves and one another differently When we see ourselves and others transformed faith is revitalized

Glimpsing Resurrection Deanna Thompson,2018-07-31 In Glimpsing Resurrection Deanna A Thompson combines recent trauma research with compelling first person narrative to provide insight into the traumatic dimensions of living with a serious illness Her aim is to help those who are ill and those who care for and minister to them deepen their understanding of how best to offer support The tendency for Christians to move almost immediately from death to proclamations of new life risks alienating those for whom healing and new life seem out of reach says Thompson Glimpsing Resurrection focuses less on the why to help readers instead come to terms with the how of living with a serious disease In particular Thompson provides a framework and concrete suggestions for how to be a church where those who are undone by illness can be undone as well as a place that can love and support them to hope

Rupturing Eschatology Eric J. Trozzo,2014 Rupturing Eschatology is Eric Trozzos constructive retrieval of Luthers theology of the cross seeking to establish a contemporary Lutheran and emerging account of the cross silence and eschatology The book explores Luthers early theology of the cross and divine hiddenness in concert with the work of the Lutheran mystical tradition and modern Lutheran theology Trozzo argues for an account of divine possibility oriented around a contemporary theology of the cross marked by reclamation of the biblical and mystical practice of silence as the space that creates hope

Broken Bodies Karen O'Donnell, 2019-01-01 The Body of Christ is a traumatised body because it is constituted of traumatised bodies This monograph explores the nature of that trauma and examines the implications of identifying the trauma of this body Constructing new ways of thinking about the narratives at the heart of the Christian faith Broken Bodies offers a fresh perspective on Christian theology in particular the Eucharist and presents a call to love the body in all its guises It offers new pathways for considering what it means to be Christian and explores the impact that the experience of trauma has on Christian doctrine

Ruud Ganzevoort, Srdjan Sremac, 2018-08-11 This book focuses on the power of the ordinary everydayness and embodiment as keys to exploring the intersection of trauma and the everyday reality of religion It critically investigates traumatic experiences from a perspective of lived religion and therefore examines how trauma is articulated and lived in the foreground of people's concrete material actualities Trauma and Lived Religion seeks to demonstrate the vital relevance between the concept of lived religion and the study of trauma and the reciprocal relationship between the two A central question in this volume therefore focuses on the key dimensions of body language memory testimony and ritual It will be of interest to academics in the fields of sociology psychology and religious studies with a focus on lived religion and trauma studies across various religions and cultural contexts

Witnessing a Wounded World Timothy Middleton, 2025-11-04 A crucial intervention at the intersection of ecotheology and trauma theology We are in the midst of a global ecological crisis At times the scale of the suffering involved can be hard to fully comprehend The whole planetary ecosystem feels out of kilter Meanwhile trauma theorists and society at large have become increasingly aware of the incidence of trauma in a growing variety of contexts In Witnessing a Wounded World Timothy Middleton asks what might be gained by viewing ecological suffering through the lens of trauma By bringing concepts and methodologies from trauma theology to bear on questions that arise within ecotheology Middleton engages a series of pressing questions What kind of traumas are being precipitated by anthropogenic climate change and accelerating biodiversity loss What would it mean to envisage the Earth itself as traumatized And how might a Christian theologian respond From large scale deforestation and open cast mining to rampaging wildfires and fracturing ice sheets the Earth itself is subject to intense devastation Witnessing a Wounded World analyzes such phenomena in terms of three traumatic ruptures to communication to flesh and to time Drawing on practices of witnessing and the insights of deep incarnation Christologies Middleton proceeds to offer a theological account of this ecological trauma For Christians a model of Christic witnessing can bring the Earth's suffering to light As the first sustained treatment of ecological trauma to address the trauma of the Earth itself Witnessing a Wounded World makes a profound contribution to discussions of suffering faith and the present ecological emergency

Taking It to the Streets Jennifer Baldwin, 2018-12-18 Taking It to the Streets Public Theologies of Activism and Resistance is an edited volume that explores the critical intersection of public theology political theology and communal practices of activism and political resistance This volume functions as a sister companion to the text

Religion and Science as Political Theology Navigating Post Truth and Alternative Facts and focuses on public civic performative action as a response to experiences of injustice and diminishments of humanity There are periods in a nation s civil history when the tides of social unrest rise into waves upon waves of public activism and resistance of the dominant uses of power In American history activism and public action including and extending beyond the Women s Suffrage the Million Man March protests against the Vietnam War the Civil Rights Movement Boston Tea Party Black Lives Matter the Stonewall Rebellion are hallmarks of transitional or liminal moments in our development as a society Critical periods marked by increases in public activism and political resistance are opportunities for a society to once again decide who we will be as a people Will we move towards a more perfect union in which all persons gain freedom in fulfilling their potential or will we choose the perceived safety of the status quo and established norms of power Whose voices will be heard Whose will be silenced through intimidation or harm Ultimately these are theological questions Like other forms of non textual research subjects movement dance performance art public activism requires a set of research lenses that are often neglected in theological and religious studies Attention to bodies as a category performance or epistemological vehicle is sorely lacking so it is no wonder that attention to the mass of moving bodies in activism is largely absent Activism and public political resistance are a hallmark of our current social webbing and deserve scholarly attention

Suffering in Worship Armand Léon van Ommen, 2016-11-25 How does the universal experience of suffering relate to the experience of worship Questioning how Anglican liturgy welcomes people who are suffering Suffering in Worship uniquely applies a narrative ritual model for the analysis of both the liturgical text and worship services themselves In this book van Ommen draws on interviews with participants in worship as well as clergy Highlighting several elements in the liturgy which address suffering including the Eucharist songs sermons and prayers of intercession he shows the significance of a warm and safe liturgical community as a necessary context for suffering people to find consolation This book also uses the concept of remembrance to plead for liturgy that attends to the suffering of both God and people As such it will be of interest to scholars of pastoral theology as well as clergy

The Cyberdimension Eric Trozzo, 2019-04-29 In 2013 Edward Snowden released a trove of documents revealing the extent of government electronic surveillance Since then we have been inundated with reports of vicious malware attacks election hacking data breaches potential cyberwars fights over Net Neutrality and fake internet news Where once discussion of cyberspace was full of hope of incredible potential benefits for humanity and global connection it has become the domain of fear anxiety conflict and authoritarian impulses As the cloud of the Net darkens into a storm are there insights from Christian theology about our online existence Is the divine present in this phenomenon known as cyberspace Is it a realm of fear or a realm of hope In The Cyberdimension Eric Trozzo engages these questions seeking not only a theological means of speaking about cyberspace in its ambiguity but also how the spiritual dimension of life provokes resistance to the reduction of life to what can be calculated Rather than focusing on the content available online he looks to the structure of cyberspace itself to find a chastened yet still expectant vision of divinity amidst the political economic and social forces at play in the cyber realm The Trauma of Doctrine Paul Maxwell, 2021-01-12 The Trauma of Doctrine is a theological investigation into the effects of abuse trauma upon the experience of Christian faith the psychological mechanics of these effects their resonances with Christian Scripture and neglected research informed strategies for cultivating post traumatic resilience Paul Maxwell examines the effect that the Calvinist belief can have upon the traumatized Christian who negatively internalizes its superlative doctrines of divine control and human moral corruption and charts a way toward meaningful spiritual recovery
