Glassroom Learning Jason Mills, 2023-07-31 Christian higher education institutions across North America are experimenting with radical shifts in educational content and delivery Cyber education is becoming a common supplement or replacement for embodied learning especially since the global coronavirus pandemic Most theological educators have embraced the shift online finding ways to leverage technology to enhance teaching very few consider how technology itself impacts theological students particularly those being educated for pastoral ministry What effect do shifts toward online courses have on those enrolled in programs of pastoral formation Are future ordinands being adequately trained When developed well Web based learning can strengthen intellectual virtues However it can also inhibit character virtue formation and self differentiation Internet usage has been shown to negatively affect social well being resulting in higher rates of anxiety depression and isolation in students furthermore it alters behavior making learners more distracted less empathetic and less able to concentrate and contemplate Theological schools should therefore articulate clearer standards for student formation and strengthen aspects of embodied learning to prepare clergy for ministry in an increasingly complex church and world Analyses of Cultural Productions: Papers of 30th Conference of Psyart Porto, 2013 Bastos José Gabriel Pereira, Cayolla Ribeiro Diniz, Fox Elizabeth,
