Washed With Sun Landscape And The Making Of White South Africa:

Washed with Sun Jeremy A. Foster, 2008 Looking mainly at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster examines the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa

Washed with Sun Jeremy Foster, 2014-08-15 South Africa is recognized as a site of both political turmoil and natural beauty and yet little work has been done in connecting these defining national characteristics Washed with Sun achieves this conjunction in its multidisciplinary study of South Africa as a space at once natural and constructed Weaving together practical aesthetic and ideological analyses Jeremy Foster examines the role of landscape in forming the cultural iconographies and spatialities that shaped the imaginary geography of emerging nationhood Looking in particular at the years following the British victory in the second Boer War from 1902 to 1930 Foster discusses the influence of painting writing architecture and photography on the construction of a shared romanticized landscape subjectivity that was perceived as inseparable from being South African and thus helped forge the imagined community of white South Africa In its innovative approach to South Africa's history Washed with Sun breaks important new ground combining the persuasive theory of cultural geography with the material specificity of landscape history

Romanticism and Aesthetic Life in Postcolonial Writing Philip Dickinson, 2018-02-08 This book explores Romanticism as a force that exerts an insistent but critically neglected pressure on the postcolonial imagination From the decolonizing poetics of the Caribbean to the white writing of South Africa from the aesthetics of post imperial disappointment to postcolonial theory itself it develops an account of the textual and philosophical interpenetration of postcolonial aesthetics with Romantic ideas about sense history and world What emerges is a reading of Romantic postcolonial co involvement that moves beyond well worn models of intercanonical antagonism and the historicizing biases of conventional literary history Caught somewhere between the effects of reanimation and estrangement Romanticism appears here not as a stable textual repository prior to the postcolonial but as echo spectre self interruption or vital force that can yet only emerge in the guise of the afterlife its agency mediated but never exhausted by postcolonial writing

Sentient Ecologies Alexandra Coțofană, Hikmet Kuran, 2022-11-11 Employing methodological perspectives from the fields of political geography environmental studies anthropology and their cognate disciplines this volume explores alternative logics of sentient landscapes as racist xenophobic and right wing While the field of sentient landscapes has gained critical attention the literature rarely seems to question the intentionality of sentient landscapes which are often romanticized as pure good and just and perceived as protectors of those who are powerless indigenous and colonized The book takes a new stance on sentient landscapes with the intention of dispelling the denial of coevalness represented by their scholarly romanticization Sites of Contestation Julia Rensing, Rizzo Lorena, 2021-05-28 This book is a collection of essays written by emerging scholars at the University of Basel on the basis of their subjective encounters with a specific archival collection housed in the Basler Afrika Bibliographien in Basel The Ernst and Ruth Dammann collection consists of around 8100 images 750 audio recordings and numerous manuscripts diaries and notes The German couple conducted research on Namibian oral literatures and languages as they were spoken and performed across the country in the early 1950s Based on in depth engagement with the textual visual and audio records assembled in this intricate collection the authors of this book critically interrogated the implications of opening a colonial archive exploring alternative ways of reading and understanding the historical material As unique examples of close reading and listening the essays propose creative ways of attending to the politics of race gender famine ethnography biography and fiction in colonial knowledge production Planetary Hinterlands Pamila Gupta, Sarah Nuttall, Esther Peeren, Hanneke Stuit, 2023-11-09 This open access book considers the concept of the hinterland as a crucial tool for understanding the global and planetary present as a time defined by the lasting legacies of colonialism increasing labor precarity under late capitalist regimes and looming climate disasters Traditionally seen to serve a colonial port or market town the hinterland here becomes a lens to attend to the times and spaces shaped and experienced across the received categories of the urban rural wilderness or nature In straddling these categories the concept of the hinterland foregrounds the human and more than human lively processes and forms of care that go on even in sites defined by capitalist extraction and political abandonment Bringing together scholars from the humanities and social sciences the book rethinks hinterland materialities affectivities and ecologies across places and cultural imaginations Global North and South urban and rural and land and water Writing the Empire Eva-Marie Kröller, 2021-04-06 Crossing time and oceans this fascinating history of the McIlwraiths tracks the family's imperial identities across the generations to tell a story of anthropology and empire South Africa Yearbook, 2009 Choice, 2009 Program of the ...
