Zen and the Art of Public School Teaching John Perricone,2005 This book is based upon two assumptions The first is that we teach who we are and the second is that one's philosophy of life is intimately tied to one's identity and that it is one's philosophical identity conscious or otherwise that ultimately dictates one's teaching style and also what distinguishes those who find joy and passion in the teaching profession from those who find drudgery and then simply pick up a paycheck every two weeks In his book Zen and the Art of Public School Teaching Mr Perricone compellingly invites his reader to participate in an introspective journey that is designed to help the reader better know themselves and the professional path upon which they have embarked This book is for those who are just beginning their careers in teaching for veteran teachers who are still very open to personal and professional growth and to those who are thinking about becoming teachers

The 5-Minute Teacher Mark Barnes,2013-08-15 Even in an education system driven by the Common Core State Standards and high stakes testing teachers must adapt their methods to the styles of the modern learner This means creating a student centered classroom driven by brief interactive instruction from highly skilled teachers who know when the time is right to get out of the way The five minute teacher is one who delivers quick thought provoking lessons that send students clamoring to find meaning on their own with the help of peers and using the concepts and tools the teacher has provided in just a few minutes to create a wondrous student centered classroom Barnes shares real anecdotes and practical strategies for transforming any learning environment into a remarkable student centered classroom facilitated by a five minute teacher
